This course examines politics, society, and economics during the Revolutionary periods. Major topics will include American society on the eve of the Revolution, the causes of the Revolution, military and diplomatic aspects of the era, the creation, adoption, and implementation of the U.S. Constitution, the development of political parties, the changing status of Native and African Americans, and the position of women.

Approved for Arts & Sciences CORE: US Context

For more course descriptions go to: http://srp.colorado.edu/