PBRL WRAP UP

In This Issue

- Be Colorado/Move
- MyCuinfo changes
- Bernie visits Boulder
- Legislative update
- Sexual Assault Survey

A Review of items that affect you—the staff at CU

In this, our end of year edition, we would like to recap some of the items that have transitioned, people that made CU newsworthy and issues that you as staff need to be aware of moving into the New Year. We will touch on changes in campus policy, in the ways we apply for jobs, in our paychecks, benefits and profile of how the world and campus leaders see us.

Bernie Visits Boulder

A look at the democratic party hopeful and his fall visit to the CU Campus

Changes in MyCuinfo/ELEVATE

Not only a new look, but a more complete picture of your benefits, paycheck, training and many other items of interest.

Jobs@cu now CU Careers

A new way of applying for a job at CU as well as the first point of contact for new employees.

Sexual Assault Survey

The University of Colorado Boulder launched its very first Sexual Misconduct survey on October 19th. (Details on page 2)

“The Be Colorado
Move program is a great way to motivate yourself to stay active.”

Reading in the Quad
The Be Colorado Move program is a great way to motivate yourself to stay active. University of Colorado employees and retirees who are the primary member of a CU Health plan are eligible to enroll. “Participants can earn $25 a month if they complete moderate to vigorous physical activity a minimum of 30 minutes, 12 days a month.”

You can receive a quarterly payment through your paycheck, up to $75 in a quarter, by completing and tracking your minimum days of physical activity. There are several ways to keep track of your activity: many fitness tracking devices like Fitbit, BodyMedia, and others. There is even a Be Colorado Move application for your smart phone that you can use to track your 12 minimum days of activity.

There are some steps to enrolling, like completing a basic health assessment and creating an account in the Move program. The assessment is for your private use and can be a good baseline in starting a new fitness regimen. Your account will enable you to track your fitness and incentives online. To learn more about the program or to enroll, log on to:

Sexual Assault Survey
John Kelly—Ad hoc Sexual Assault Committee Chair

The University of Colorado Boulder launched its very first Sexual Misconduct survey on October 19th. The current survey only addresses student experiences, but the university is working on completing a survey for faculty and staff that will be introduced in 2016. The goal of this survey is to collect information on the frequency and impact of sexual misconduct on campus. This includes: sexual assault, sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner abuse, and stalking. This will be the most comprehensive study done on Sexual Misconduct on this campus, and will provide CU administrators with the information they need to combat this nation-wide epidemic.

The survey takes 8 to 20 minutes to complete. Once students have completed the survey they will receive a credit of $5 to their Buff One Card. All undergraduate and graduate students will have received a personalized link via email in order to take the survey.

Students, please take the 8 to 20 minutes to complete the survey no matter what your experiences with campus sexual misconduct have been. The survey will be instrumental in ensuring that all students have the opportunity to benefit from a college education free from sexual misconduct.
Republican Debate

The Republican presidential candidates took the stage for the party’s third debate in late October at the University of Colorado in Boulder.

This was the first debate following a national poll that at the time, showed Ben Carson leading Donald Trump in support among Republican voters. In recent months, Trump has been attacking all of his cohort to place himself in a commanding lead among Republican Candidates.

With the Primary’s in New Hampshire and Iowa slowly approaching, it will be imperative that the campus unify itself in pushing for a record number of registrants who can vote in the upcoming election.

Remember:

“Every Votes Counts”

Bernie Visits Boulder

Alex Mancero—Legislative Liaison | PBRL Committee

A crowd of over 9,000 (KDVR) gathered at Potts Field on Oct 10th to hear Senator Sanders’ stump speech to a very friendly and enthusiastic crowd. For many Democrats, Senator Sanders is a leader with strong progressive values. Bernie, a self proclaimed independent, has many Democrats embracing the causes he has spoken of for past 30 years.

His anti-capitalist rhetoric has taken on a populist flavor that appeals to the masses who have lived the debilitating outcomes Democratic Socialism warns against. Polls at the time of this event show Sen. Sanders being embraced by approximately 36% of those who vote for the Democratic ticket.

Only time will tell if the country is prepared to support Bernie’s ideals in this election cycle or beyond. Some believe that much of what he stands for will eventually come to fruition, but it will be long after his political career ends, yet his work now will pave the way for revolutionary changes in the American political landscape for years to come.
MyCuInfo/Elevate

Employee Portal Redesign

The CU Resources tab of the employee portal is getting a major facelift. Aside from its modern design, the portal makes navigation a lot easier by displaying information that matters to you, such as important links and forms.

Here is a link to some of the major improvements coming your way:

---

Jobs @ CU - Now CU Careers

The University of Colorado’s four campuses succeed in transforming Colorado’s communities and the nation through the efforts of an amazingly diverse workforce. With more than 3,000 CU job opportunities opening at CU every year, you just might find one that's perfect for you.

Start searching today

---

Paychecks 101

Paychecks provide valuable information

Beyond the bottom line, it contains information about your tax payments, deductions and even your time off! This resource is designed for everyone, not just CU employees, to learn about the ins and outs of paychecks.

---

Contact Us

Give us a call for more information about the issues that affect you, the staff at CU Boulder.

PBRL Committee
Attn: Alan Slinkard
PBRL Committee Chair
Duane Physics: E319
(720) 345-7911

---

Legislative Update

Click on the following link for information concerning recent Legislation that affect you as staff at CU Boulder.

---