

HOLOCAUST AWARENESS WEEK

Monday, February 26th 7pm, Pierre Sauvage

An Emmy Award-winning documentary filmmaker and a child of Holocaust survivors, Pierre founded the Chambon Foundation in 1982 and serves as its president. The nonprofit educational foundation is committed to exploring and communicating the necessary and challenging lessons of hope intertwined with the Holocaust's unavoidable lessons of despair.

Tuesday, February 27th, 7pm Michael Berenbaum

As a writer, lecturer, and teacher consultant, Michael plays a critical role in the conceptual development of museums and various historical films. He is director of the Sigi Ziering Institute: Exploring the Ethical and Religious Implications of the Holocaust at the University of Judaism where he is also an Adjunct Professor of Theology. He will be speaking about his film, DESPERATE HOURS which tells the stories of those precious few who, in the face of utter darkness during WWII, never lost their sight, while groups of Muslims, Jews and Christians all worked together to save lives.

Wednesday, February 28th, 7pm Deborah Lipstadt

Dr. Lipstadt's book HISTORY ON TRIAL: MY DAY IN COURT WITH DAVID IRVING is the story of her libel trial in London against David Irving who sued her for calling him a Holocaust denier and right wing extremist. The book has been described as a "fascinating and meritorious work of legal – and moral -history." It was ranked by the editors at Amazon.com as number four on its list of top ten history books of 2005.
