

FALL 2017 SCHEDULE OF COURSES

Students who do not attend the first two class sessions may be administratively dropped at the discretion of the instructor. It is up to the individual to make sure that he/she is in (or no longer in) any given course by the drop/add deadline. Courses with an 800 or 900 section number are controlled enrollment (may require an audition for select student population) and require either instructor or department consent to enroll. See note screen for information.

DANCE COURSES

DNCE 1000 (2) – Beginning Contemporary Dance Technique. Introduces students to the dynamic capabilities of the body as an articulate means of expression. Presents basic concepts and skills from contemporary dance forms that may include Afro-modern, floor work, inversion, classical modern and improvisation. Classwork develops efficient alignment, strength, flexibility, coordination, rhythm, dynamics and spatial awareness. No experience necessary. May be repeated up to 4 credit hours.
