LLOYD SOBEL – Guest Lighting Designer

Lloyd Sobel has been designing lighting extensively both nationally and abroad. His work includes designs for the Atlanta Ballet, Ballet Arizona, Ballet Idaho, Colorado Ballet, Eugene Ballet, Miami City Ballet, Pittsburgh Ballet, and the State Street Ballet in Santa Barbara. His collaborations with Mai Murdmaa since 1991 for the Estonian National Ballet at the Tallinn Opera House, have included the world premiere of a full-length ballet based on Dostoyevsky’s Crime and Punishment with an original score by Arvo Part, as well as a number of other world premieres.

Additional credits include designs for choreographers David Parsons, Robert Battle, Jimmy Gamonet, Donald McKayle, Toni Pimble, Peter Pucci, William Soleau, and Lynn Taylor-Corbett.

Mr. Sobel also designed lighting for Thomas Ades’ opera, Powder Her Face, performed at the Brooklyn Academy of Music’s “Next Wave Festival” in New York. He recently completed his second season designing for the Houston Grand Opera’s outdoor productions of Madame Butterfly and Two Faces of Romeo and Juliet. He also lit a production of John Adams’ opera, El Nino, performed in Atlanta and opening the Ravinia Festival with the Atlanta Symphony.

Most Recently, Sobel designed the lighting for a production of A View from the Bridge directed by Arthurr Miller’s son at the Pittsburgh Playhouse and the gala opening of the Ellie Caulkins Opera House in Denver.

Sobel resides in Denver, Colorado, and just completed his fifteenth year as resident lighting designer for the Aspen Music Festival’s opera program.
