BOLD SCHOLARS 2015-2016

Minimum Requirements for Renewal

The BOLD Scholars Program seeks to help students achieve academic excellence, develop professionally, and prepare to be culturally-competent leaders in an increasingly global and diverse workplace. BOLD Scholars also give back to their community and support the mission of BOLD to increase diversity in engineering.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>GOAL</th>
<th>STUDENT REQUIREMENTS</th>
<th>NOTES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Contribute to the BOLD Community and BOLD Mission | - Complete 10 BOLD Community Hours from the following options:
  - Service at a BOLD sponsored or approved events
  - BOLD Power Hours (every Wednesday 4 – 5 pm in the BOLD Center)
  - Other BOLD Professional Development events
  - BOLD Cultural and Community events | All events must be BOLD sponsored or approved.
  - First-Year Scholars required to attend BOLD Fall Welcome in August.
  - TEAMS volunteering can count for up to 5 BOLD hours. |
| Achieve Academic Excellence | - 10 Hours of Involvement with a diversity-serving student society
  - AISES, CUWIC, NSBE, SAGE, SASE, SHPE/MAES, and/or SWE | You must attend your first society meeting by October 1st.
  - 1 Success Coaching Meeting with a BOLD Director
  - Students can always drop by for office hours or additional meetings as needed | First-Year Scholars must meet with a BOLD Director by October 15th.
  - Returning students can do a 1 on 1 or group meeting in either semester.
  - Complete First-Year Engineering Projects Course (First Year Scholars only) | Take one of the following in fall or spring semester: GEEN 1400, ECEN 1400, ASEN 1400, COEN 1400, or COEN 1410.
  - Achieve ≥2.800 cumulative GPA (First & 2nd Year Scholars)
  - Achieve ≥ 3.000 cumulative GPA (3rd and 4th Year Scholars)
  - Enroll in ≥ 12 credit hours | We strongly encourage you to take advantage of Math Workgroups, the Student Success Center tutoring, Peer Advocates, and office hours.
  - Must remain in good academic standing with the College of Engineering and Applied Science. |