Overview: Studies the dynamic modeling and control of spacecraft formations orbiting about a planet. Investigate linear and nonlinear relative motion descriptions, rectilinear and curvilinear coordinates, orbit element difference based descriptions, J_2 -invariant relative orbits, as well as Lyapunov-based relative motion control strategies. Pre: ASEN 5050 or equivalent, or permission of instructor (3H, 3C)

Goal: To introduce students to the spacecraft formation flying kinematics, dynamics, and control.

Homework Policy: Each homework assignment is due on the specified due date and must be turned in at the beginning of the lecture. Normally, late homework will not be accepted. Some homework will require simple programs to be created. These can be done in Matlab, Maple, Mathematica, C, or Fortran. See instructor if not sure about the software package being used. If a homework has been graded incorrectly, you need to see me within 2 weeks of having the homework returned to you.

Exams: There will be a mid-term exam and no final exam. If you have exam grading issues, you must see me within 2 weeks of having the exam returned to you. There will also be two course projects which will require you to write a technical report. These reports must be type written and composed as a professional technical report.

Class Attendance: You are expected to attend class. If you need to miss a lecture, it is your responsibility to catch up on the material. Don't go to the instructor to catch up on missed material, speak with class mates and get the notes from them. Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to reasonably and fairly deal with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. If you cannot attend a regularly scheduled class, it is up to the student to catch up on the missed material. If you cannot take an exam on a particular day, please let the instructor know at the time the exam is being scheduled.

Make-Up Policy: There are no make-up homework assignments. If you miss the assignment, you get a zero for it. If you can't make an exam or a pressing reason, you need to contact the instructor one week prior to the exam date. If you can't take the exam for some emergency reason, you still need to notify the instructor prior to the exam. Without prior consent, there will be no make-up exams.

Grading Policy: A conventional ten-point system will be used for grading. If I feel it necessary, I will curve the exam scores to reflect the difficulty level of the problems assigned. Thus, your final assigned scores on each set of papers is your true grade and should be interpreted on a 100 point scale (i.e. A(90-100), B(80-89), C(70-79), D(60-69), F(below 60)). I will assign "+" and "-" grades at my discretion. The exam or project with your highest score will be weighted with an additional 5%. The percent worth of exams and class assignments are:

- Homework/Quizzes – 20%
- Project 1 – 25%
- Mid-Term – 25%
- Project 2 – 25%
- Mystery Points – 5%

Honor Code: All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to the academic integrity policy of this institution. Violations of this policy may include: cheating, plagiarism, aid of academic dishonesty, fabrication, lying, bribery, and threatening behavior. All incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council (honor@colorado.edu; 303-725-2273). Students who are found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy will be subject to both academic sanctions from the faculty member and non-academic sanctions (including but not limited to university probation, suspension, or expulsion). Other information on the Honor Code can be found at

Class Room Behavior Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records. See policies at

Religious Observances Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to reasonably and fairly deal with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. In this class I will attempt to accommodate any conflicts with exam times if you let me know at least 2 weeks in advance See full details at

Discrimination and Harassment The University of Colorado Boulder (CU-Boulder) is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working, and living environment. The University of Colorado does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status in admission and access to, and treatment and employment in, its educational programs and activities. (Regent Law, Article 10, amended 11/8/2001). CU-Boulder will not tolerate acts of discrimination or harassment based upon Protected Classes or related retaliation against or by any employee or student. For purposes of this CU-Boulder policy, "Protected Classes" refers to race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or veteran status. Individuals who believe they have been discriminated against should contact the Office of Discrimination and Harassment (ODH) at 303-492-2127 or the Office of Student Conduct (OSC) at 303-492-5550. Information about the ODH, the above referenced policies, and the campus resources available to assist individuals regarding discrimination or harassment can be obtained at
