

University of Colorado Boulder

Department of Asian Languages and Civilizations, Graduate Program in Chinese

---

APPLICATION FOR A TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIP IN CHINESE

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone number: _____

E-mail address: _____

List previous language learning experience:

List previous language teaching experience:

Please write a detailed statement (2-3 pages) describing your previous language learning and teaching experiences and explain why you consider yourself qualified to work as a Teaching Assistant.

Along with this application, please include a ca. five-minute audio/video recording of yourself speaking Chinese (a combination of self-introduction and reading a sample of modern Chinese prose is best). If you are not a native speaker of English, please also include a few minutes of self-introduction in English. Please send these recordings in either *.mp3 or *.wav formats via email to dalc@colorado.edu or postal mail to the Graduate Program Assistant:

Department of Asian Languages and Civilizations

Attention: Graduate Program Assistant

University of Colorado Boulder

279 UCB

Boulder, CO 80309-0279, USA

Deadline for application for full consideration: December 15. International students are encouraged to send all application materials as early as possible due to the increased time required to process their applications in the International Admissions office, before they arrive in the Department of Asian Languages and Civilizations.