A World of Discovery

AHI Connects | Rías Baixas Winery & Lunch. Sample this Galician region's renowned, crisp Albariño white wine and savor a leisurely lunch during your visit.

Baiona. On a guided walk through scenic Baiona, see highlights like the 13th-century Ex-Collegiate Church of Santa María and the Church of Santa Liberata, and check out a replica of the Pinta in the harbor. In 1493, the Pinta, part of Christopher Columbus' first voyage and piloted by Martín Alonso Pinzón, landed in Baiona, bringing the earliest news of the fleet's transatlantic travels.

Porto, Portugal. Get to know this vibrant city on a full-day visit that includes a lunch of Portuguese specialties. Embark on a panoramic/walking tour that introduces you to the majestic Porto Cathedral overlooking the city; the São Bento Railway Station, decorated with traditional blue-and-white azulejo tiles; and the colorful Ribeira district with great views of the double-decker Dom Luís I Bridge. Take a short cruise across the Douro River and enjoy a tasting of port wine in Vila Nova de Gaia, the historic home of Portugal's famous port wine cellars.

Coastal Portuguese Way. Stunning vistas await on a drive along the Spanish portion of the Portuguese Camino route that hugs the ruggedly beautiful Atlantic coastline. In Oia, soak up the gorgeous scenery on an invigorating walk down its coastal paths, then stroll through the cozy town, known for the grand Royal Monastery of Santa María de Oia. Travel next to A Guarda, where you'll have time for lunch on your own. Afterward, head up Mount Santa Trega to tour the fascinating ruins of an ancient Celtic fortified settlement.

Historic Gems of Portugal: Guimarães & Braga. Take in the splendid, well-preserved architecture of delightful Guimarães, the birthplace of Portugal's first king, with insights from your guide. After a delicious lunch there, continue to Braga, one of Portugal's oldest cities. See its top sites, including the Sé de Braga, the country's first cathedral, and the 18th-century Bom Jesus do Monte Sanctuary with its celebrated, dramatic baroque staircase adorned with fountains and statues.

Santiago de Compostela. Since the Middle Ages, pilgrims have traveled the Camino de Santiago's routes with the goal of reaching Santiago's impressive cathedral. Study its ornate details on a guided tour, then see the landmarks of the picturesque old town during a walk. Next, visit the city's popular market, the Mercado de Abastos,
