Provence is where sun-drenched beaches and undulating hills tie the Mediterranean to the Alps. Its very name conjures images of idyllic days with dazzling light illuminating the verdant countryside’s sloping vineyards and lush olive groves. The colorful scenery of the region enraptured Cézanne, Chagall and van Gogh. Writers have flocked here and extolled it as the Great Land of Inspiration for all that is French and fabulous. You may not be able to spend “A Year in Provence,” as author Peter Mayle describes in his book, but you may journey with us for a week to experience this magical place.
