The closing remarks point out that the dance parade concludes with Wingy Manone’s orchestra from the Streets of Paris nightclub in Hollywood. This broadcast was heard over NBC-Red in Chicago over WMAQ at 2:30 - 3:00 am and in New York over WEAF at 3:30 - 4:00 am New Year’s Eve Dancing Party programs that moved from band to band and venue to venue were broadcast as follows for New Year’s Eve 1941-1942, which occurred only three weeks after the United States was attacked and formally went to war. The news on all fronts was grim and the future uncertain.

The National Broadcasting Company started the process of divesting its Blue Network to comply with a lengthy Federal Anti-Trust initiative. To begin, the network identification became simply “The Blue Network.” Facilities, equipment, personnel and standards remained with NBC until a sale of the operation could be completed. From this point forward, all former NBC Blue notations in the catalog become simply “Blue” to accurately describe programs.

NBC CONTINUES WITH SEPARATION OF BLUE
HOLD CHICAGO HUDDLE WITH STATIONS DESPITE D. J. SUIT

“NBC will proceed with the setting up of the Blue as a separate operating unit and hold a scheduled meeting in Chicago of Blue Network affiliates Jan. 15, despite the antitrust suit which the U. S. department of justice filed against NBC and CBS in the same town last Wednesday (31). NBC figures that the divorcement steps that it has taken with the Blue cover in part the very things that the Government's complaint seeks to accomplish. The impression at NBC is that Thurman Arnold, assistant U. S. attorney general is mainly desirous of getting the indicted webs to accept a consent decree, and it was said that the position taken in either quarter that there will be no yielding on that design so long as a decree would require the networks to give up the practice of optioning time on affiliated stations. Action on the filing of incorporation for the Blue in Albany will come the latter part of this week. Suggestions for a new tag for the network now totals 20-odd. The Blue will operate as a subsidiary directly of RCA until a buyer for the network comes along. The Government in its suit asks that a receiver be appointed for the same purpose. There are no indications when the Mutual Network will file its own triple damage action against NBC. The papers in this proposed litigation have been in the works for several weeks.”

“Hollywood, Jan. 13 - Negotiations are underway which may move Tommy Dorsey's band from Victor recording label to Columbia Records. Dorsey's contract with Victor expires Feb. 14 and because he has been long dissatisfied with its terms, which call for a reported $750-a-side guarantee against a royalty, he is currently talking to Columbia exec Mannie Sachs, here from New York to attempt to close a deal and put the outfit on his label. Leonard Joy, Victor's New York recording director, was out here last week but went back east without Dorsey's renewal. If Dorsey decides to switch over to Columbia it will mark the most outstanding shift of a major band from one company to another since Benny Goodman changed from Victor to Columbia several years ago. Dorsey last year was Victor's top band in sales, on both Its Victor and Bluebird labels, accounting for more than 3,000,000 platters.”

Tommy Dorsey was presented with a silver platter for his fifth consecutive appearance on “Spotlight Bands” as “band of the week” with the best-selling tune “This Love of Mine.” In reality, the top tune in the nation was Glenn Miller’s “Chattanooga Choo Choo.” Miller’s commercial sponsor and ad agency declined to allow Miller to appear on the Coca Cola program since his second appearance as “band of the week” December 6, 1941.

This program was # 4 in a set of thirteen 12” 33 1/3 rpm standard groove discs of the Saturday night “Spotlight Champion of Champions” bands, pressed by the World Broadcasting System at the request of the United States War Department (see also December 20, 1941).

VICTOR HOLDS TOMMY DORSEY WITH UNPRECEDENTED GUARANTEE CONTRACT

“Tommy Dorsey’s band will be paid the highest recording salary ever handed a pop dance band under the terms of a new contract signed, or agreed to, but definitely set, with RCA-Victor last week. His pay will be $1,250 a side ($2,500 a record) against a royalty of 5% of the retail purchase price of a 50c platter, computed on an individual release basis. He's to make 60 sides a year. This means that Dorsey is assured of a salary equal to a 100,000 sale of every 'record' by his band released by Victor. And it's virtually impossible for any band to maintain a 100,000 sale average. Prior to renewing with Victor, Dorsey was on the verge of shifting to Columbia Records. His original contract with Victor, which called for $750 a side against the same royalty arrangement, expires Feb. 14 and Victor apparently was at first reluctant to meet his new terms. Once before Dorsey came near jumping to another label. He had an unsigned agreement with Ell Oberstein to record for the latter's short-lived U.S. Record Co. a while back, but the deal was mutually cancelled when Victor, offered better terms. Highest previous salary ever paid a band was $1,000 a side to Artie Shaw, also by Victor, when he was riding high with his old jump combo.”³

DORSEY BROS; OWN STORY AS MGM FILM

“Negotiations are on which may put brothers Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey and their bands together in a film based-on their lives. If the idea jells it will be filmed by Metro next fall. Tommy Dorsey is now on the Coast at the Palladium Ballroom after finishing 'Ship Ahoy' for MGM, and Jimmy recently completed 'The Fleet's In' for Paramount. Jimmy possibly will make another solo before hooking up with Tommy. Dorsey Brothers orchestra split up during a date, at Glen Island Casino in 1935. Since then their respective bands have become two of the most outstanding in the business.”\(^5\)

T. DORSEY TO GET $1,250 A DISC SIDE?

“New York – Only a few days after he was reported to have signed a new recording binder with Columbia, Tommy Dorsey resigned with Victor at a price said to be the highest ever paid a dance band for recording work. Dorsey’s contract was to end this month. Close friends said he would receive $1,250 a side under his new agreement. If that figure is correct, then it means that the spectacled trombonist will be paid more money per side than Glenn Miller, Art Shaw or Jimmy Dorsey. The band has been playing the Palladium in Hollywood and doubling on movie sets in a new pic starring Eleanor Powell. Dorsey has recorded for Victor exclusively since he organized his own band in 1935.”

FRANK SINATRA IS SET AS NEW RECORDING STAR

“Los Angeles – Frank Sinatra, Tommy Dorsey’s featured songster and winner of ‘Down Beat’s’ all-star band poll for 1941, ‘goes on his own’ as a recording star shortly but still under the wing of the bandleader with whom he climbed to the top – Tommy Dorsey. Sinatra was scheduled to cut four sides for Victor at their Hollywood studios late last month. Frank draws star billing on the labels and it is accompanied by a 14-piece combo consisting of the reed and rhythm sections of the Tommy Dorsey band augmented by strings. Tommy conducts but will not be mentioned on the labels. Titles were not announced but Harry Myerson, Victor’s Hollywood recording director, said that they included two standards and two pops.”

METRO MAY GO INTO DISC BIZ

“Hollywood, Feb. 3. Metro will branch out into the record business if Nicholas M. Schenck okays the venture. Louis B. Mayer, headman at M-G studios, has been making a thorough study of platter making and is said to be fully convinced that such an enterprise would be an invaluable adjunct to picture production, distribution and exhibition. It is believed that Mayer got the idea from Tommy Dorsey, who now at the studio appearing in ‘Ship Ahoy.’ The bandsman ends his association with Victor March 31 for a tie-in with Metro, if Schenck gives the green light. It is reported that Metro is ready to earmark $500,000 for the record-making venture, with Dorsey cut in for an interest Mayer's interest was further whetted by two illuminating facts: that two other studios, Warners and RKO, are interested in record firms, and that more records were sold in 1941 than in any previous year. Warners has a small interest in Decca Records, and RKO is associated with RCA-Victor, but without voice in its operation. Mayer last week dispatched Harry Link, identified with the Metro music affiliates and studio biz head of music, to N. Y. in an effort to interest Eli Oberstein in joining the projected Metro pancake outfit. Latter is veteran of the disc business and now heads Classic Record Co. Covering all angles before making his report to Schenck, Mayer has been assured that record making will not be affected by priorities and that needed materials will be available. Oberstein was to have flown here from New York early this week for huddles, but hasn't arrived. Frank Walker, prez of Victor, Is here, however, getting nowhere in trying to induce Dorsey to renew. Dorsey recently told, friends that he had made up his mind to go back with that outfit, but with the Metro thing getting hot, changed his mind. In checking over the list of recording talent at Metro, It is revealed that Judy Garland is under contract to Decca; Katherine Grayson and Jeanette MacDonald with Victor; Nelson Eddy and Rise Stevens with Columbia. Contracts are for one year, with options and are studio-approved. If Dorsey goes into the Metro venture, which he inspired, he may curtail his band work to take 'active part in its operation.'

INSIDE STUFF - ORCHSTRAS

“There may not be a resumption of the RCA-Victor Dance Caravan of last summer, which was supposed to resume road’ work’ late this month or early in March. Several bands, including Glenn Miller, have been approached on the idea of taking part in a new tour, to promote Victor and Bluebird record labels, but it's understood they turned it down. Reluctance to play in opposition to one-night ballroom promoters is said to have influenced decisions. Milton Pickman, gm. of last year's short tour with Tommy Dorsey and Shep Fields' bands, is in California with Dorsey with whom he's supposed to be Involved in MGM's plans for a new record company.”

JIMMY, TOM DORSEY IN FILM TOGETHER?

“New York – Metro is attempting to sign a pact with Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey which will star the two noted leaders and their bands in a flicker musical slated to start next fall on the coast. While Tommy has already performed in films for the studio, Jimmy’s work on the screen has been strictly for Paramount and Metro is reportedly doing some fast and fancy dickering to bring the sax playing Dorsey’s signature on the line. The plan would not only star the colorful brother pair in a gigantic picture, but also send both Dorseys and the two bands out on the road in the summer to do benefits for the Navy and Army in auditoriums in larger American cities. Thus the pic would be well promoted months before its actual release. Such a tour would probably get under way in May when Jimmy closes at the Pennsylvania Hotel here, his current stand, and when Tommy leaves the Paramount Theatre, New York. Both wind up their respective engagements at about the same time. Bill Burton, Jimmy Dorsey manager, flew to the coast two weeks ago to huddle with Metro big shots but has not yet signed. Tommy, it was said, is ready. The idea is a natural, the studio believes, in as much as a reunion of the two would be news in itself. Probably the only stumbling block now standing is Jimmy’s demand for money. He was paid more than $85,000 for his Paramount work in ‘The Fleets’ In’, to be released shortly, and Burton is demanding more for the Metro appearance.”

TOMMY DORSEY DUE TO JOIN EDDIE CANTOR

"Negotiations are under way which will put Tommy Dorsey's orchestra on Eddie Cantor's NBC program for Ipana-Sal Hepatica. If it goes through Cantor will not dispense with the services of Edgar (Cookie) Fairchild, conductor, who has been with him for seasons. Dorsey rather would work alone, and possibly would become the summer replacement for Cantor. Dorsey would join the show some time in April, when he comes east to play the Paramount Theatre. New York and open his annual stay at Astor Hotel."¹¹

NO DORSEY BROTHERS PIC

"Hollywood, Feb. 17 - Deal for Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey to do a picture at Metro is reported off due to Jimmy Dorsey's coin demands. It Is understood he asked $100,000."¹²

METRO EARMARKS $500,000 FOR ITS NEW RECORD BIZ; T. DORSEY A PARTNER

"Hollywood, Feb. 17 - Metro has an okay from Nick Schenck to go into the record business, and David Bernstein, vice-president and treasurer of Loew's, Inc, has been delegated to work out the financial setup. The studio hopes to have a catalog and the first batch of pressings on the market by early autumn. Initial outlay of $500,000 has been earmarked for the new enterprise. Tommy Dorsey and Jack Cummings, latter a Metro producer and nephew of Louis B. Mayer, each receive a 20% stock interest and also participate in the profits. Dorsey will get $2,500 for every record he makes (plus royalties). On that basis he should net around $100,000 annually for the 30 platters he is scheduled to wax. Cummings' new duties will not interfere with his production activities at the studio. Milton Pickman, former business manager for Ted Lewis, who looked after Dorsey's RCA tour, will scout new talent and handle band contacts. Platters will be pressed at plants to be erected in Culver City and New York. Studio singers not tied up by other recording companies putting a plug on wax for thousands of jukeboxes around the country. Since Warner Bros, has a directorial interest in Decca; and the RCA affinity gives RKO Pictures an in with Victor records, this at first interested Metro."¹³

STOKI GETS HAPPY

"Hollywood, Feb. 17. A lean-looking, bushy-haired gent strode across the dance floor of the Palladium, home of the hepcats and mitted maestro Tommy Dorsey. That's a great outfit you have there,' the gent remarked. Dorsey gave him a fast take and then beamed. His congratulator was Leopold Stokowski, out for an evening among the Mainstreeters."¹⁴

TALKING WITH DEUTSCH

"New York, Feb. 17 - Counsel for Metro has been negotiating during the past week for a pressing plant in Scranton, Pa., in connection with the film company's contemplated plans for going into the phonograph record business. - There have also been discussions with Percy Deutsch, of the World Studio about using the latter's cutting facilities for this project. Tommy Dorsey sold the idea of Metro extending its interests to the phonograph record field to Louis B. Mayer. Mayer later had Harry Link, professional manager of Leo Feist, Inc. fly out to the Coast so that he (Mayer) could get Link's viewpoint on the proposition. Final decision on the matter will be made by Loews-Metro Prexy Nick Schenck."

T. DORSEY, CUMMINGS 24\(\frac{1}{2}\)% EACH IN NEW METRO RECORDING CORP.

"Metro's impending stab into the record business was confirmed yesterday (Tuesday) by Charles C. Moskowitz, speaking for prez Nicholas M. Schenck. Moskowitz declared, however, that nothing definite is set yet on the proposition and he's not certain how long it will take to get preliminary details worked out. Affiliation of Tommy Dorsey as a partner in the Metro pressing affiliate was meantime cleared. He is to get 24\(\frac{1}{2}\)% of the company. Similar block of stock goes to Jack Cummings, Metro producer and nephew of Louis B. Mayer, but he will continue his present activities at Metro. Company during the past week continued it's prospecting for talent and execs for the new setup. One of its principal sources of supply, of course, will be Dorsey, who washed up his recording pact with Victor last Thursday (19). He'll hereafter record exclusively for the Metro wax outfit."

DORSEY FOR SKELTON IN JUNE, VOIDS CANTOR DEAL

“Hollywood, March 3 - Tommy Dorsey has been set for the summer stanza after Red Skelton drops off June 16 for 13-week layoff. That kills the deal for the band to go on the Eddie Cantor program, which has been in negotiation. Understood that another Brown & Williamson tobacco product will be made available for Dorsey after he concludes the Raleigh hitch. Although it is reported that Skelton has been tiffing with the agency (Russell Seeds), it is not likely that he'll make a new association despite persistent rumors. Seeds has him tied to a long contract.”19

HENRY DUNN RESIGNS AGVA POSTS, PUTTING GRIFFIN PROBE UP IN THE AIR

“Henry Dunn (Cross &), currently appearing in Miami at the Beachcomber ntery, has again resigned as national treasurer and member of the board of the American ‘Guild of Variety Artists. This time Dunn insists that the resignation be effective immediately. A few months ago Dunn tendered his first resignation. He was not too sure about it, however, and the national board tabled it indefinitely. Resignation of Dunn puts the investigation of Gerald Griffin up in the air again. Dunn was chairman of a special committee that probed the national executive secretary’s part in a brawl early last fall in Tommy Dorsey’s music publishing offices in N. Y. Others on the committee are Walter Greaza, assistant executive secretary of Equity; Mrs. Florence Marston, eastern rep of Screen Actors Guild, and Joe Smith (& Dale), AGVA national board member. Latter three have been awaiting a report from Dunn, who reputedly has much evidence that’s necessary before a full report can be filed.”20

Tommy Dorsey Orch (16) with Frank Sinatra, Pled Pipers (4); Buddy Rich; Ziggy Elman; Dick, Don and Dinah; 'Date with the Falcon' (RKO)

"Tommy Dorsey is playing his first Frisco date this week and will leave with a flock of new friends. With jive juves hanging from chandeliers, mere mention of Dorsey's name in a screen trailer started a demonstration at the opener. As curtains parted with the leader tromboning the theme, heptsters split the joint wide open. Dorsey took it with quiet dignity. Orch goes from theme right into a hot 'Hallelujah' plus 'When It Hits You' with hot breaks and vocal stuff by Jo Stafford and Chuck Peterson, Ziggy Elman trumpet solos along the route for returns second only to Dorsey 'Song of India,' as per a past Dorsey recording, winds up the first set. Only outside specialty, Dick, Don and Dinah, moves in next; two boys and a looker do screwball knockabout that's new here and successfully sustains the pace. Pied Pipers resume with 'Embraceable You." after which Elman takes over on 'When Angels Sing.' Lad figuratively blows his brains out. Elman and drummer Buddy Rich then monopolize 'Hawaiian War Chant' with their duet interlude. For no particular reason Elman then takes the sticks while Rich does a tap routine which gets by only because he can do no wrong. Frank Sinatra then baritones 'Without a Song' for smash returns. During' his second, This Love of Mine,' the Dorsey trombone quartet moves in (or some nice stuff). Following 'Beguine,' Dorsey's trombone works again in "Never Smile Again' together with Sinatra and the Pipers. Sinatra finishes his stint with a deadpan version of 'South of the Border', which pleased the mob although corny. Biz excellent."23

"Tommy Dorsey walked away with all the laurels due to his terrific one-niter here recently. The crowd missed Connie Haines but local cats were knocked out by Jo Stafford's brand of warbling. Milt Raskin, 88-man, tells that Buddy Rich is the most solid percussionist he has ever had the pleasure of playing with. This is interesting to note as Milt was Gene Krupa's piano man for a good long while."24

METRO RECORD DEAL STILL PENDS

"Though it was reported as having gone cold during last week, Metro's recording company plans are still alive, according to David Bernstein, vice-president and treasurer of Loew's Inc. It's understood that Tommy Dorsey, who is to be involved in the new company if it's set up, has set a deadline of 10 days hence and if plans don't materialize by then he will re-sign his band with RCA-Victor. Word from Metro's coast studios Monday (9) stated that everything hung on the decision of Bernstein and Nicholas M. Schenck, company prez, both in New York. Government curtailment of radio and phonograph production as of April 22 has little to do with the delay in getting going, according to the same sources, but, conversely, the Government's action was supposed to be hindering factor in reports from the N. Y. end. Eli Oberstein, head of the new Classic Record Co., is said to have the inside track as recording manager because of his wide experience in the field and his connection with Scranton Manufacturing Co., pressing plant which turned out his defunct U. S. Record discs and is now making his Classic sides. However, the Scranton plant, already loaded with Oberstein's and its own line, has a limited production capability and can't look forward to additional machines to handle MGM's line."25

“Fort Worth, March 21 – Tommy Dorsey’s on-night sand at Lake Worth Casino Sunday (15) attracted 3,600 persons, 800 more than Kay Kyser drew at same spot last spring. Admission was $1.50 per person. Band’s broadcast on a national radio hook-up at 7 p.m. CWT was given for an audience of soldiers exclusively. Tickets were distributed thru headquarters in Fort Worth and free busses transported the 350 men to the broadcast.”

MGM EXECs COME OUT OF DREAM

“Los Angeles – The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio execs who thought it would be swell fun to have a phonograph record company as a little side-line are beginning to come out of the dream, or at least the dream isn’t quite as rosy as at first glance. A survey of the practical angles of starting a new disc plant revealed quickly that recording and processing machinery were very much subject to the well-known priorities situation. The companies now in business are supposedly well fixed but production of new equipment to outfit a new plant is very doubtful in the near future. A Hollywood trade paper reported that MGM tops ha contacted the Allied Phonograph and Record Co. here with the view to purchasing Allied’s plant and equipment but no confirmation of this was forthcoming from either MGM or Allied. If and when the MGM interests overcome the obstacle of securing necessary equipment they will look into the matter of distribution and find out what it is that makes a record company’s sales machine function – able distributors and their field agents. To create a distributing organization under present conditions that could compete with those now handling Victor, Columbia and Decca records would be a difficult and very costly enterprise. Tommy Dorsey, who refused to re-sign with Victor because he saw a possibility of tieing up with the new MGM firm, was in San Francisco and could not be reached for comment.”

TOM DORSEY TO NEW YORK

“New York – Tommy Dorsey returns to the big town on April Fool's Day to start a three-week stint at the Paramount Theatre. It will be Tee Dee’s eighth engagement at the Times Square house. The band has completed work in the Metro pic ‘Ship Ahoy’ and is now on the road headed east. Pert Connie Haines, chirper, has recovered from her recent illness and is expected to b back at the mike at the Paramount. Tommy and crew open at the Hotel Astor May 19 for the third consecutive season. Meantime, the band probably will cut records for the new MGM recording firm in which Dorsey himself has an interest. Tommy’s Victor contract expired last month.”

METRO DISC FIRM JUST NOT NOW SAYS LOEW’S VP

“Metro is not going into the recording business at the present time,’ David Bernstein, v.p. and treasurer of Loew's, Inc., made that statement in New York Monday (16). He would not say that the idea, which Metro has been mulling for weeks, was definitely cold, confining himself to the assertion that a ‘question of supplies’ had forced the sidetracking of the issue. Ever since Metro’s plans first were rumored responsible persons in the recording and orchestra fields have wondered where Metro expected to secure the pressing equipment and materials needed to manufacture discs. Companies already in the business have assertedly been bothered by war priorities on essentials to production. Tommy Dorsey's band; which completed a contract with RCA-Victor recently, was to have been one of Metro's recording names, along with talent tied to the company via film contracts. Dorsey was also to become a stockholder and executive of the new company. He will likely return to Victor but also has an offer from Columbia Records.”

Tommy dropped by the Plantation to hear George Wald first and also have a tune-up session before talking to the mighty Peck. After helping the very popular Wald close the doors, Tommy, Wald, Ziggy Elman and Buddy Rich joined Peck for one of the grooviest sessions ever heard in this neck of the woods.”

“Chicago, March 17 - Mrs. Milton Weil takes back from Tommy Dorsey the Sun Music Co. catalog, willed her by her husband, and which she sold to the bandleader about three years ago. According to the terms of the sale Dorsey was to have made periodic payments to Ker and since none have been made recently she is to resume control. Sun is separate and apart from the Embassy Music Co., non-ASCAP firm that" Dorsey also operates, and which he retains under general and professional manager Jack Johnstone. One of the tunes that Mrs. Weil gets with the take-back of Sun catalog is 'I'll Never Smile Again,' Dorsey's biggest hit as a music publisher and one of his biggest as a bandleader.”

TD GETS 6000 KIDS ON FIRST PURDUE CONCERT

“West Lafayette, Ind. - The appearance of Tommy Dorsey here on the Purdue University campus last week broke all existing attendance records for name bands. Dorsey packed over 6,000 persons in the million dollar Hall of Music with his hour and half concert of swing. Students were admitted to the concert by showing a purchase of at least fifty cents worth of Defense Saving Stamps. The total amount of stamps sold was well over the three thousand dollar mark. The Dorsey crew seemed dwarfed on the mammoth stage of the Hall of Music, but they handled the concert perfectly. Highlights of the concert were Ziggy Elman’s terrific solos and Buddy Rich’s ‘Quiet Please.’ Although many of the nation’s leading symphonies have given concerts at the Purdue, Dorsey’s concert of swing is the first for the University. Half an hour after the concert Dorsey played for a regular dance in the Memorial Union building. Jamming the twin ballrooms, he shattered his old 1940 record by playing for more than 4,500 dancers. During the dance the band played for a half hour broadcast over the university station.”

T. DORSEY NOT SIGNED YET

“New York, March 21 – RCA-Victor, who should know, denies printed reports that it has re-signed Tommy Dorsey at a fat increase. Dorsey, who has been trying to talk MGM into forming a new record firm with himself as partner and chief attraction, will probably give up on the picture outfit within the next couple of days unless action is forthcoming. Should this happen, he is expected to drive a hard bargain, playing Columbia against Victor and vice versa, before signing any new disk contract.”

INSIDE STUFF – ORCHESTRAS

"Whether Tommy Dorsey will continue with RCA-Victor will not be settled until the leader gets back to New York. He is working his way east to open at the Paramount theatre, N. Y., April 1. Beside quarrel with Victor which prompted his steaming up the Metro proposition Dorsey is assertedly burned additionally at the company for releasing against his wishes the version he made of 'Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses,' out recently. Before the Metro Idea started Dorsey had been talking to Columbia Records about a shift to that outfit's 60 cent label."

"Mutual network will begin on March 29 a definite schedule of orchestra remote exchanges between WOR, New York; WGN, Chicago, and KHJ Los Angeles. Whereas the present coverage of one station's pickups by the others is more or less haphazard due to news programs and other interruptions, the new schedule will set aside periods during which the bands picked up are to be "Certain of outlet in each territory. From 12 midnight to 12:30 am, WOR will carry Chicago bands serviced by WGN; 12:36 to 1 am, WOR's pickups will be carried by WGN and KHJ, Los Angeles; at 1:15 am, KHJ remotes will come through to the others. Plan is to be carried out seven nights a week."

RICHMAN ALL SET TO RESIGN AS AGVA VP. UNLESS GRIFFIN QUITS MEANTIME

"Miami, March 24 - Harry Richman, current at the Royal Palm here, says he has his resignation from the vice-presidency of the American Guild of Variety Artists already written out. However, he won't send it through 'if AGVA gets rid of Gerald Griffin, national executive secretary, and sets up death benefits, relief and sick funds.' Richman says AGVA right now is hardly operating to the actors' good. Its administration is chaotic and working at cross-purposes, plus the fact that it has been discredited to a great extent,' Richman adds, 'and only my great friendship for Morton Downey, president of AGVA, has stopped me from resigning up to now.' As he put it, he didn't want to leave Downey holding the bag. According to Richman, he spoke to Harry Goodman, brother of Benny Goodman and Rocco Vocco, music publisher, immediately after the brawl at Tommy Dorsey's N. Y. offices last fall, and that he gleaned from them that Griffin's part in the fracas was 'deplorable.' Committee of AGVA members probing Griffin’s alleged part in the Dorsey brawl met Monday (23) in N. Y. but failed to reach a decision. The committee, headed by Morton Downey, will probably have a verdict when it meets again next Monday (30)."

Reviews

PARAMOUNT, N. Y.

Tommy Dorsey Orch with Frank Sinatra, Jo Stafford, Pied Pipers, Buddy Rich, Ziggy Elman and Chuck Peterson; Allen, Burns & Cody, Paul Regan; Film, “My Favorite Blonde” (Paramount)

“It’s laugh and fun at the Paramount this session right through the entire bill from shorts, to feature to Tommy Dorsey. It’s a show that rates anybody’s money, and the Paramount seems to be getting its despite the Holy Week start Bob Hope and Tommy Dorsey are too much of a combo for even Good Friday an Army day parade to beat. Credit must go to Dorsey and his outfit for the good nature of the stage entertainment. They refuse to take themselves or their music too seriously. Which is exactly as it should be. Dorsey kids everything and anything for a laugh. Such as when trumpeter Ziggy Elman and trapster Buddy Rich finish a hot stanza of improvisation and he introduces them as Harry James and Gene Krupa. Or when vocalist Frank Sinatra is in the midst of a ballad and shrimp trumpeter Chuck Peterson suddenly stands up and whistles. It’s slapstick - and showmanship. Piped Piper quartet comprises femme chirp Jo Stafford and three boys provide best of the Dorsey vocal work. Miss Stafford and Sinatra on their own are mild. Sinatra hasn’t much voice, but gets the best out of it through smart use of the mike. Miss Stafford might copy. Only two turns have been added by the Par to fill out the hour’s show. They are tumbler-balers Allen, Burns and Cody (New Acts) and mimic Paul Regan. Equally good for theatres or niteries, Regan has a long list of characters he capably cartoons and has a pretty good line to hang them on. Only thing he might well skip are some of those corny gags he uses, which virtually every theatre audiences must have heard by now. Otherwise the patter is good.”42

TOMMY DORSEY RECONCILED TO VICTOR

“Tommy Dorsey’ continues on RCA-Victor’s 50 cent label. This is finish on a drawn-out argument with the company. Dorsey signed and mailed to Victor the contract he’s been carrying around for several months. It called for a guarantee of $1,250 a side for 90 sides (24 records a year) or $120,000 minimum’ over two-year run of the agreement. This is against a royalty. Dorsey band flew into New York Monday (30) afternoon to start rehearsals for it’s opening at Paramount Theatre today (Wed.). Band played at Rainbow Gardens, Fremont, Ohio Sunday (29) a date that was owed that promoter since last December.”

VICTOR SIGNS DORSEY, BUT DISK BIZ STILL BUZZING WITH PLANS ABOUT NEW COMPETISH IN OFFING

“New York – March 28 – Tommy Dorsey signed a new long-term contract with his alma-mater, Victor, this week, and the even uncorked another flood of rumors around the entire disk biz. Many in the trade felt that Dorsey’s move confirmed the talk that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer had decided to junk any plans it had for starting a disk venture. Another school of dopesters, however, had it figured that Dorsey’s end of the proposed deal was the only thing that was cold and that the studio was still playing around with the idea.”

“BULLETS” BACK WITH TD; CATCHES UP ON HIS SLEEP

“Los Angeles – “Bullets Durgom (also spelled Durgan, Dorgan, Durgen – and one mag recently gave it as Durgham), the irrepressible promotion man who quit his job with Tommy Dorsey here because he “wanted to catch up on his sleep” went back to work for Tommy a week later, but this time “Bullets” will stay in Hollywood as Western emissary of the Tommy Dorsey interests. “Bullets” will hold forth in a penthouse suite at 8946 Sunset Boulevard and will oversee Tommy Dorsey’s publicity, record promotions and western activities of Dorsey’s publishing firm, Embassy. The Dorsey office here will also be interested in personal management, and, of course, if the heralded MGM recording firm goes into operation, there will be a lot to look after in that connection.”

"SHIP AHOY"
(MGM)

AN elaborately staged musical, with good songs, top notch dancing, first-rate comedy and just enough of a plot to make it timely. "Ship Ahoy" should spell box-office in any situation. Verve and pace have been provided by the direction of Edward Buzzell, and the film moves swiftly. Tommy Dorsey's popular orchestra provides the music, which includes “Last Call for Love,” "Cape Dance" and "Tampico." Eleanor Powell has some of the best dancing of her career, while Red Skelton and Bert Lahr do some expert clowning. Virginia O'Brien's "deadpan" singing is one of the film's highlights. Miss Powell, nightclub dancer, signs for an engagement in Puerto Rico. She is asked to deliver a secret magnetic mine as a service for the Government, but does not know she really is in the employ of enemy agents. Meanwhile, Skelton, as a prolific writer of adventure stories, suffers a nervous breakdown. All four, Miss Powell and Skelton, and Miss O'Brien and Lahr, meet on ship board and there ensues a hilarious mix-up of romance and spy chasing. Others in the cast include William Post, Jr., James Cross, Eddie Hartman (the latter two in a good dance routine), Stuart Crawford, John Emery and Bernard Nedell. Jack Cummings produced. Running time, 95 minutes; ‘G’.

SHRIBMAN SUES TOMMY DORSEY

“American Federation of Musicians gave permission to both Tommy Dorsey and Sy Shribman to take a dispute between them into civil courts. Accordingly a suit has been started by Shribman in Supreme Court, New York, asking $50,000. Dorsey was served with papers in the action, but no complaint was handed him. It’s figured, however, that the complaint will be the same as the one that had been handed the union. In this Shribman claimed that he loaned Dorsey 92,500 in 1937 In return for which he was to get 5% of Dorsey’s earnings on one-nighters for five years. He asserts he hasn't been paid. Shribman first filed his claim with the Executive Board of the American Federation of Musicians, as required by union regulations. The okay to take the case into civil court was then given. It was rumored last week that Shribman had attempted to attach Dorsey's salary at the Paramount Theatre, N. Y., where he's current, but couldn't make it stick. It was denied.”

GRIFFIN DEPOSED AS AGVA EXEC SEC AS 4A'S TAKES OVER OPERATIONS; TOM PHILLIPS TEMPORARY SUCCESSOR

“Gerald Griffin, under fire for some time, on Monday (6) was deposed as national executive secretary of the American Guild of Variety Artists by vote of the board of the Associated Actors and Artistes of America, which last Thursday (2) took over the operation of AGVA and suspended the letter's national offices and national board. Griffin was asked to stay on for two weeks to help Tom Phillips, who has been given the temporary title of national organizer, learn the AGVA office routine and become familiar with the variety union’s outstanding business. While it was not officially noted in the resolution on the AGVA takeover, the widespread criticism of Griffin's part in the Tommy Dorsey music publishing office brawl last fall was also greatly responsible for the Four A's action. Griffin was supposed to have aimed political insults at Harry Goodman, brother of Benny Goodman, which resulted in fist fights involving AGVA's executive secretary, his brother Alexis, and several guests at the Dorsey party.”

“The names on the marquee will mean a fair amount of business for this musical, though the asinine story and treatment plodding direction and some rather poor performances would ordinarily scuttle a film like 'Ship Ahoy,' If ever a picture in recent years looked as though It was shot off the director's cuff, this is It. Fortunately for the investment picture includes Red Skelton, Tommy Dorsey's orch and Eleanor Powell in the billing, though Dorsey is only featured while the other two are starred, Bert Lahr, also featured. Is another marquee asset and, incidentally, the laugh mainstay of the film, his comedy overshadowing Skelton's by a wide margin. Metro, in fact doesn't treat Skelton too well in this opus. He mounts a lot of unfunny material as a neurotic pup-hack, plus being handicapped by his casting as both a buffoon and a romantic lead. There's too wide a gap between clown and leading man for even a clever performer like Skelton to bridge—especially with no help from the writers and extremely stilted direction from Edward Buzzell. As the film unfolds with its ridiculous libretto, which includes virtually every musical and patriotic cliché, it becomes an obvious exercise for Miss Powell, who has four production dancing routines—all good, of course, but too much of the same thing. This film, incidentally, presents a strange coincidence in relation, to Miss Powell. In her last Metro musical 'Lady Be Good,' Miss Powell's dancing was overshadowed by the work of the colored Berry Brothers (3). Same thing happens in 'Ship Ahoy,' the click comedy dance routine by Stump and Stumpy taking the edge off her hoofery. Dorsey's band is also given plenty of latitude, and at times the film looks like a full-length juke-pic. However, considering Dorsey's popularity with the jitterbugs and the poor quality of the story, perhaps it's just as well for the box office that the band gets all that prominence and staging. Dorsey's own tromboning, Ziggy Elman's trumpet, Buddy Rich's drum work and Frank Sinatra's singing, latter doing 90% of the vocalizing in the film and doing it well, stand out. Best song is 'Last Call for Love,' by Burton Lane, Margery Cummins and E. Y. Harburg. Other tunes are 'Who Are You,' by Lane and Harburg, and 'Cape Dance' and Tampico,' by Walter Ruick, latter two serving as dance numbers for Miss Powell. story is a musical spy yarn, but in hodge-podge. At the finish there's a scene outside a naval recruiting station, but it doesn't tie up with any portion of the picture. Miss Powell, star of a picture theatre show including Dorsey's orch, is used as a dupe by foreign spies, posing as American agent, to tote a model of a secret magnetic mine to Puerto Rico. In order to get her there, the spies arrange for the booking of- the entire show at a floating cafe, operated by another foreign agent.
“On the same luxury liner carrying the troupe to Puerto Rico goes Skelton, taking the sea voyage for his nerves, and Lahr, his stooge, who promoted the trip in order to be close to Virginia O'Brien, who is Miss Powell's pal. FBI men are also on board, suspecting dirty work, yet they can't locate the mine-carrier. Skelton goes for Miss Powell, but they tiff when near P. R. In a bag mix-up, Skelton walks off with the suitcase holding the mine, and his experiences of trying to get the bag off the ship's metal deck plates result in Skelton's few strong laughs in the entire film. Later Miss Powell recovers the bag and innocently delivers it to the foreign agents, but the FBI men, with help of the suddenly hep Skelton and Lahr, manage to capture the lot. Out of nowhere, while Skelton and Lahr are making their escape in a rowboat from the floating nitery, appears an American submarine whose commander, also by some miracle, knows about the mine. It's all grandiose silliness. Film moves tediously through Its 94 minutes. It doesn't seem probable that four writers—Harry Clark, on the screenplay, Matt Brooks, Bradford Ropes and Bert Kalmar on the original story, could have come up with something so hare brained and so lacking in even the bare essentials of a smooth-running plot. This may have been Buzzell's chief handicap, but the direction doesn't show any Ingenuity, regardless, and the cutter appears to have whacked out pieces of film without regard to their relation to subsequent busing. Performances, with the exception of Lahr, the restraint of Dorsey, Sinatra's singing and-the swell playing and delivery of Buddy Rich at the traps, are hardly flattering to anybody In the cast. Miss Powell continues stilted in dialog and unflattered in coiffure; Skelton is chiefly handicapped by his material; John Emery and Bernard Nedell overplay the spy characters. Miss O'Brien, with one deadpan song delivery, does nicely, but her talking portions are weak. Production is expensive. ^\textsuperscript{50}

'AT HOME WITH DORSEY'
Series to Succeed Present 'For America We Sing' Series on Blue

“For- America, We Sing,' Frank Black orchestra series on the Blue network Monday nights for the Treasury Department, goes off with the May 4 broadcast. In its place, the Tommy Dorsey swing stanza 8-8:30 Sunday nights on the same network, will take over the Treasury plugs with its May 3 edition. Dorsey show is currently being picked up from the band's N. Y. location, but will presently remote each week from the bandleader's home at Bernardsville, N. J. It will originate indoors or in the garden, depending on the weather; will then be titled 'Home at Tommy Dorsey's.' ^\textsuperscript{51}"

ADOLESCENT BEHAVIOR

“Performances by Tommy Dorsey's band on the stage of the New York Paramount have been food for conversation for the trade the past week or two. Consensus is that the outfit is ‘having a party’ on stage each show for its own benefit. Caught one night last week the men in the band, particularly Dorsey, Ziggy Elman and Buddy Rich, were having so much fun that every effort with the exception of one, by singers, soloists, was ‘broken up.’ At one point during a long instrumental break by Elman and Rich, the former stopped trumpeting completely while he changed horns deliberately and with no thought that an audience was watching, and waiting. Rich also stopped and since the band was laying out during that passage nothing was going on but the giggles of the musicians and the cracks being tossed back and forth between them. At other times Dorsey reached up and belabored Elman with a drumstick; or Rich would lean over and bat him on the noggin. When Frank Sinatra came on for vocals Elman and 'Rich broke up every song but one, 'Ol' Man River,' and Elman did his best to interrupt that.

“It's no wonder that the band's lame attempts at 'screwball showmanship' brought forth disparaging remarks from exiting patrons. If Dorsey could have stood in the inside lobby after the show in question he would have had no trouble realizing the number of new 'friends' he made, Some of the remarks were too pointed to be misunderstood.

“Egotism that swells to this size would be outside the realm of trade comment if it were private or merely a case of a few over-prosperous musicians forgetting professional standard. Unfortunately this sort of thing is both public and contagious. Other, lesser bands may imbibe false notions of what is permissible, what can be gotten away with. This in turn does no benefit to the future of dance bands or of theatre dates.

“There are a number of bands that are pretty consistently sloppy in their attitude toward the public. This is sometimes noted in cafe and hotel dates as well as theatres. The trade has perhaps been too indulgent, too easy-going about unprofessionalism. True enough the uncritical adoration of silly kids, and especially gushing girls, may seem to certain musicians a plausible basis for the idea that favorite bands can themselves behave like adolescents having the giggles. But when they do amuse themselves in this style they ought not to be allowed to imagine that they are witty or clever or cute to anybody above the mental I.Q. of a moron.”

INSIDE STUFF - MUSIC

Before Metro changed the title of the Eleanor Powell-Tommy Dorsey 'Ship Ahoy' film from its former 'I'll Take Manila' designation, a title song had been written. Unwilling to discard the melody entirely, it was retained by switching the title and lyric to 'I'll Take Tallulah'. Likewise, the heroine, originally Kate, was re-dialogued 'Tallulah.' 'Last Call for Love,' considered the hit time in the pic, lists. Marjorie Cummings as one of its writers. She's wife of Jack Cummings, producer of the film, and her participation in the melody' is because she suggested the title.

TOMMY DORSEY ADDS STRINGS

“Tommy Dorsey is rehearsing a group of nine strings, which he intends adding to his band when it opens at the Astor Hotel, New York, May 10. It's been mentioned, too, that the leader has some ideas for a concert tour with the larger outfit later in the Fall. If the extra men are put on, Dorsey's band would be made up of 21 people—five sax, four trumpets, four trombones (with his own) four rhythm, and four singers. Harry James has four violins in his current group; Artie Shaw had 14 strings in the bunch he broke up recently. Other leaders have been mentioned as mulling the advisability of adding them. Shep Fields, for one, expects to do so if the all-sax band he now leads clicks.”

Record Reviews

Tommy Dorsey

Moonlight On The Ganges and Snooty Little Cutie (Victor)

“Ziggy Elman deserves a decoration of some kind for busting up every record he’s on. Ganges goes fine some of the best sweet TD’s played in a long while, nicely phrased saxings, good muted trumpet (Peterson) and then Ziggy starts screaming, and you can move on to something else. Interesting to note how heavy the rhythm section’s copy of Basie is, compared to the Count’s tasty little decorations. Cutie, by Bobby Troup (Daddy) is cute – so what?”

Well Git It and Somewhere A Voice Is Calling (Victor)

“Ziggy Elman got cut at his own stuff here – high and potent. Chuck Peterson takes him on at a slight duel, and not only plays ‘em as high, but with better tone. Best jazz on the disc is by Heinie Beau (clarinet) and Don Lodice (tenor). Milt Raskin’s piano bit is okay though, and you have to hand it to Tee D for the way he plays the trombone lead after his solo- drives like mad. No questioning that this band is the epitome of powerhouse jazz. But listen to Duke Ellington’s Tootin’ Through The Roof (Columbia) if you want to hear a trumpet battle done not only with power, but with taste and ideas as well. Somewhere has a good Sinatra vocal, and sixteen bars of crack brass ride with a single sax voiced against them.”

BUNNY BERIGAN, 31, DIES IN N. Y.

“Bunny Berigan, one of the most respected trumpet players in the music business, died early yesterday (Tues.) morning in Polyclinic Hospital, New York. He was admitted to that institution the previous afternoon after suffering a hemorrhage during which he had lost a considerable amount of blood. He was 31. His private life is ascribed to his early demise, for he died of the same causes as that other great trumpeter, Bix Beiderbecke. Berigan's latest date with his band was at the U. of Scranton, Scranton, Pa., last Friday (29). On Saturday night he was scheduled to perform at Ray Hartenstein's Sunnybrook Ballroom, Pottstown, Pa., but dancers' were refunded admissions when most of his band did not arrive until midnight because of mechanical trouble with the bus they were riding. Berigan, traveling by private car, was at the dancery on time and staged an impromptu jam session with several other of his men who also arrived on time. Sunday night (31) he was to have played at Manhattan Center, N. Y., but he had by that time become ill and his band - worked without him, while Benny Goodman batoned and helped out with his sextet. Berigan in his heyday was looked upon as one of the industry's greatest trumpet players, on a par, some bandsmen assert, with the immortal Bix Beiderbecke. Some of his work, at the head of his own band or as a star performer with other bands, are record-collector's items. Bandsmen look upon his solo on Tommy Dorsey's recording of 'Marie' as one of the finest bits of improvisation ever captured on wax. Another is the recording of his widely known theme song 'I Can't Get Started With You.' "Born at Fox Lake, Wis., where his mother and brother' still live and where he is to be interred later this week, the musician first earned recognition while with Frank Cornweirs orchestra at the old Jantzen's Hofbrau, New York, in 1928. He next joined Hal Kemp's orchestra when' that band began making a name for itself at the Taft Hotel. New York, and toured Europe with it He subsequently worked for Paul Whiteman, Benny Goodman, Freddie Rich, Dorsey Bros., before forming the first of his own bands, which clicked at the Pennsylvania Hotel, N. Y. At various times from then on Berigan alternately led his own band and worked under some other leader. His last sideman connection was with Tommy Dorsey, whom he left two years ago to for another band of his own. This was handled by Harry Moss of Music Corp. of America. To Moss goes all of the credit for keeping Berigan In the running since. He directed all of the leader's activities, saw to it that he worked almost without a day off, and supervised the financial end of the outfit to the extent that Berigan's total debts, which at the time he left Dorsey were about $15,000, had been cut to almost nothing at the time he died. Berigan's band will be kept intact by Moss if possible, with a new leader Installed. Moss is also huddling at the moment with Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, and other well-known friends of Berigan's, to set up some sort of trust fund for Berigan's wife. Donna, and his two children, Joyce and Pat, who survive, along with Berigan's aforementioned mother and brother. Leader was gravely ill only about four weeks ago. He spent more than a week in Allegheny State Hospital, Pittsburgh, with siege of pneumonia."^[58]

This was the premiere broadcast of “The Tommy Dorsey Raleigh-Kool Show,” the summer replacement for “Red Skelton And Company” show for 13 weeks (June 16, 1942 to September 8, 1942). “Star in Uniform” was a new, regular feature, in each broadcast. Tommy Dorsey chose an outstanding musician from an Army camp near the city he happened was broadcasting from, and this “Star in Uniform” was invited to sit in with the orchestra. The first guest was former TD band member Johnny Mince, who was stationed at Camp Upton, New York.

The complete script of this broadcast can be found in Vol. 3, Chapter 1, “Radio Scripts.”
SPONSOR PAYS LINE COSTS FOR TD

“New York - Tommy Dorsey has added another laurel to his reputation for being a shrewd businessman. In one of the few radio deals of its kind, Brown-Williamson, sponsors of Tommy's new NBC show, have agreed to pay all costs of broadcasts emanating from non-New York points. Other bands have clauses in the radio contracts which permit them to travel, but are obligated to shell out the expenses, which run anywhere from $300 to $1,700 depending on the distance from a basic station. Dorsey gets all this cost-free. On June 16th, TD takes over the time at present filed by the Red Skelton show, shifting to a different time when Skelton returns in the fall. The sponsors thus figure him as being more than just another 'summer band show.' Exact nature of the program has not been revealed, with Brown-Williamson supposed to have some novel ideas held under-cover.”

Radio Reviews

“TOMMY DORSEY SHOW”

Reviewed Tuesday, June 16, 1942, 10:30-11:00 pm. Style - musical. Sponsor - Brown & Williamson, Agency - Russell M. Seeds, Chicago. Station - WEAF (New York, NBC)

“Stepping into Red Skelton's boots while the titian-topped comic takes a summer leave, maestro Tommy Dorsey mixes up straight music, two War Bonds giveaways and a slush pump salute to ‘America’s hero of the week’ to make a potent sponsor cocktail. Program opens up with ‘Song of India,’ a Dorsey-fan familiar that pleases for trumpet and trombone sweetness. Next comes an invitation for listeners to send in 50 words or less letters asking TD to play the favorite song of their favorite person. Plea of a woman whose soldier son loves ‘Yes, Indeed’ was read off as a sample. TD complies, Jo Stafford, Chuck Peterson and the Pied Pipers chirping the lyrics. Is it good? Yes, indeed. Time out is taken to explain that $100 War Bonds will be sent each week to the author of the best missive and his blessed one. Then the band runs thru ‘Last Call For Love’ and ‘I Know That You Know,’ finally arriving at ‘Sleepy Lagoon,’ which is dedicated to General Jimmy Doolittle as the week's hero. As expected, Dorsey turns in a flawless sliphorn solo on this one, but the high spot of the number is reached by his newly acquired string and harp ensemble. Showmanship enters again when Johnny Mince, former clarinetist with the Dorsey crew, is presented as the week’s Star in Uniform. Mince is quite a man on the licorice stick and proves it via a hot-lick chorus of ‘Marie.’ The single disappointing note on this half-hour shot is contributed by vocalist Frank Sinatra. Turning on the croon with ‘Last Call For Love,’ Sinatra never rose above a listless and unimaginative plane.”

CASH SEPARATES T. DORSEY FROM HARPIST GIRARD

“Only Tommy Dorsey's inability to get together on salary with Adele Girard last week prevented her from joining his band. Miss Girard, wife of clarinetist Joe Marsala, would have played harp in Dorsey's new string section. She's rated very highly as a swingster on her instrument having played with her husband's jive combination. Marsala was to have joined Dorsey, too. Chuck Peterson, one of Dorsey's featured trumpeters, ' leaves that band next week to join Woody Herman in place of Ray Linn. He catches up with Herman July 2 at Cedar Point, Sandusky, Ohio.”

“New York - The 47th Convention of the American Federation of Musicians, held two weeks ago in Dallas, Texas, dumped four land-mines in the lap of the music business. Prexy Petrillo knocked the delegates out of their chairs on the opening day with the announcement that as of August 1st, no further recordings or transcriptions by members of the Federation would be allowed in jukeboxes or on radio stations. Recording would continue to be allowed for home use and for the armed services, at the request of FDR. The convention barely had time to think this one over when resolutions calling for a 300 mile limit on one night jumps and making booking agencies 100% liable for all monies on all engagements were passed, to be followed by passage of the 802 resolution, which had come up for the last three years. From now on, the commissions of the bookers are to be deducted from the net and not the gross that a band receives – the net being the figure reached after transportation, standby and all union taxes have been paid. Petrillo has been preparing action on the recording and transcription question for some time. He was given the authority at the last convention to take the matter up with the executive board and they voted him the power in October to take action as he saw fit.”

TOMMY DORSEY PLAYS VS. HIMSELF IN PITT, RESULT OF PIC-STAGE BOOKING

"Pittsburgh, June 30. Stanley, WB deluxer, and Penn, the Loew house here, which operate under a pooling agreement, rubbed their eyes last week to discover that they had Tommy Dorsey all set to play against himself here beginning Friday (3). Came about as a result of 'Reap the Wild Wind' holding for a second session at the latter house. Set to follow it last Thursday (25) was 'Ship Ahoy,' in which Dorsey's band is featured, with WB-Loew execs figuring picture would be a great trailer for Dorsey's p.a. on the Stanley stage the following week. However, big biz for 'Reap' pushed 'Ship' back and as a result, shoved Dorsey into direct competition with himself. As a result, Penn had to book in another film hastily to replace the Metro musical next week. 'Juke Girl' got the call, with 'Ship' following it. At that, Dorsey will be against himself for one day since his in-person engagement won't end at Stanley until July 9, same time his picture opens at the Penn.

(A-1)

Tommy Dorsey and his Orchestra, Astor Roof, Hotel Astor, New York

“It’s wonderful, this enlarged Tommy Dorsey band! It’s really wonderful! It does all sorts of things, and it does all sorts of things so well, too! It can rock the joint with the mightiest sort of blasting jazz, and then it can turn right around and play the soothingest sort of cradle music that’ll rock any babe fast asleep. The strings have made a difference, a very pleasant one, too. Figuratively speaking they’ve added another musical dimension to the Dorsey aggregation - as well as to the Dorsey payroll of course. And that’s not “figuratively” speaking. Credit the creations of arrangers Axel Stordahl and Freddie Woolston (spelling) for the effectiveness of the bowers. They have supplied them with gorgeous bits of manuscript, none of it overwritten, all of it scored with simplicity, charm and excellent taste. That the strings carry off their assignments so well is the result of their inherent musicianship and the many weeks of playing together (for the majority of them) in Artie Shaw’s band, Edition No. 3A. The strings are used primarily on ballads, a wise move, since nobody has been able to incorporate those instruments effectively into a steady jazz diet, and changes are pretty certain that nobody ever will. They’re used in the foreground, and in background (note some of the lovely obbligatos) for vocal effects AND for Tommy’s trombone. The Dorsey vocal department is important because it is used often and because it is so good. No need telling you about Frank Sinatra. His easy way of phrasing a song is a truly convincing bit of salesmanship. When he lets out and when he over clown, he’s less convincing. Jo Stafford is finally coming into her own. She sings purely, unaffectedly, from the heart, and always on the nose, lending tremendous distinction not only to her solo efforts, but to those of the Pied Pipers as well. The group, with and without Sinatra, is still this reviewer’s favorite among all vocal units, what with its natural and musical approach towards all it does. Tommy spots his singers wisely. He is spotting himself with more restraint, which in some ways is smart, and in others a bit disappointing.
"His pretty horn is still immense, and when he emotes he sets musical moods that no other trombonist, and very few other instrumentalists, can duplicate. In past days, a series of his solos used to become monotonous, if only because of background clichés. Now, however, with the strings, Tommy has the opportunity to vary background tone colorings to such an extent that similar solo doses will become tremendously more palatable. Whereas the sweet stuff revolves around the strings, the singers and the leader, the jazz is dependent primarily upon trumpets and rhythm. That the Dorsey brand of jazz is as excellent as it can be attributed to the efficiency of both the sections.

"Dancebandom has probably never heard a more brilliant trumpet section than this one, composed of Messrs. Elman, Peterson, Zito and Blake. It's positively immense! It can bite and blast like the most bombastic Big Bertha, and it can soften right up and become as soothing as a neat shot of cocaine. You don't find trumpeters more powerful and more consistent than Ziggy and Chuck. You already know what a fine hot man the former is. The latter's becoming a revelation in that department, batting out stuff you'd never expect from a man you'd always been led to believe was strictly a lead man. And in young Jimmy Zito, Tommy has himself a real find, a trumpeter with an exciting, aggressive tone, and an amazingly versatile range. "Forgotten-man" Jimmy Blake rounds out the section very capably. Not a high-noter, he's still an able, consistent trumpeter with fine conceptions plus an unexploited talent for playing some lovely, melodic ad lib bits. As a trio, the trombones are entirely capable, playing ensemble bits with proper precision and good blend. When Tommy joins them for quartet spotings, they are, of course, more impressive as they play straight men for one of the world's greatest straight trombonists. The saxes are a fine section. Spotted less frequently than the trumpets, they still impress with their fluent phrasing, excellent blend, and ditto intonation. Good overall tone here, too, for which much credit must go to young Bruce Snyder, who plays baritone with both a lovely tone and requisite boot. Freddy Stulce, oldest in points of service in the entire orchestra, is a capable and consistent lead man in the Hymie Schertzer tradition. The effect of having played next to that man for as long as he did has obviously had the desired and desirable results. The reeds also contain some impressive soloists. One is Heinie Beau, a brilliant-toned clarinetist with a boot who heretofore had been relegated to un-starred tenor sax duties, but who’s now taking very fine advantage of opportunities afforded him. Star tenor assignment go to Don Lodice, a vastly improved hot-man, who comes across with many more ideas of his own (good ones, too) and whose tone is so much better than it used to be that it’s hard at times to realize he is himself. As for the rhythm section - it’s great. Buddy Rich paces it. The lad is wonderful! He propels a tremendous; natural beat under the impetus of one of the most magnificent drum techniques dancebandom has ever known. And as he continues to mature, his taste continues to improve, with less emphasis being paid to flash and rim shots and interpolated rudimental tricks, and more and more being paid to giving the men a beat and holding the entire entourage together. That last job is no snap in this enlarged Dorsey outfit, either, for a big fiddle section, no matter how hard it tries, gives the impression of dragging. Consequently, if a drummer permits himself to be impressed, thereby laxing up on the reins, time is likely to go to pot. That it never does is a credit to Buddy and, of course, to his three cohorts. Those three are all good. Phil Stephens is an exceptional bassist with a prodigious beat and a full, rich tone. Milton Raskin is playing better than ever, his solos especially showing much more ingenuity than those he had contributed to other name bands in the past.
“And Clark Yocum, when he’s not singing (or getting ready to) with the Pied Pipers, rounds out the quartet in thoroughly workmanlike and beautiful fashion. The routine of the Dorsey band is still impressive, if not always danceable. Tommy relies primarily on the contrast motif, though he’s not making that quite as obvious as he used to, not always following a rhythm tune with a ballad and v.v. His pretty moods are especially mellow when he allows them to grow through the course of two and sometimes even three slower songs, and, obviously, set off his faster attempts that much more effectively. Complaints about the brashness, and the inability to dance to an unhealthy portion of any Dorsey set, aren’t without plausible foundation.

“Successive bombardments are appropriate for stage-show presentations, but a good deal less so for hotel rooms where not all patrons come primarily to hear the Dorsey band. With the recent addition of the fiddles, Tommy can afford to be less sensational in his treatment of numbers, while still producing an impressiveness that can be matched by very, very few other outfits in the land. For he now has himself one of then most thoroughly musical and commercial orchestras, per se, that danceband has ever known, one that by its very stature will impress anyone who comes to hear, see, or dance to it. Add to that excellent taste and all-round magnificent musicianship, and you’ve really got yourself something!

Review

STANLEY, Pitt
Pittsburgh, July 3.

Tommy Dorsey Orch (27) with Frank Sinatra, Jo Stafford, Buddy Rich, Bruce Snyder; Paul Regan, Lane & Ward; “A Gentleman After Dark” (UA)

“Stanley’s house record is in danger this week. Getaway was a blazing capacity, with the ropes bulging at the break, and six shows carded tomorrow (4) for the holiday and five every day in the week. That means 31 performances and if Tommy Dorsey maintains his opening pace, and indications are that he will, Kay Kyser’s mark will be either just about matched or bettered. TD’s been here before but interest has never been like this, and it’s combination of reasons - the new band, the jukeboxes, the radio and pix, with his Ship Ahoy (MGM) already widely publicized since it opens a block away at the Penn on his closing day at the Stanley next Thursday (9). Band justifies the enthusiasm, too. With nine fiddles and a harp to back his five saxes, four trombones, four trumpets, guitar, bass, piano and drums. Dorsey has an outfit that can take everything in its stride, including the symphonic swing that’s often talked about but seldom produced.

“Music has an exciting quality always, is wild and abandoned when the tune calls for it and can be soft and silent when that is the nature of the number. Through it all it has class, and while it's way off the beaten path, it's still abreast of the times. Sample of what Dorsey can do now comes early in the show when strings take off on 'Jersey Bounce,' melt in with the saxes for some brilliant effects and then let the brass take it away. A corking arrangement and a show-stopper. The instrumental stars, Ziggy Elman and Buddy Rich, both wow 'em, latter with his flying-piston and skin beating on 'Hawaiian War Chant,' from Ship Ahoy, and Elman with a display of tooting that must send his blood pressure sky high when he reaches those high notes.

“Unusual for a band vocalist to get the closing spot in a show, but that’s the lot of Frank Sinatra: he fills it - and how! Crowd simply wouldn’t let him get off - ran the opening performance overtime by at least 15 minutes. Sinatra warms them up with 'Without A Song' and then goes into 'This Love Of Mine' with obbligato by the four trombones, has the Pied Pipers with him in 'Just As Though You Were Here,' a recent recording, and tears down the stretch with 'South Of The Border,' a comedy novelty as done here, and 'Poor You.' On the femme vocal end, Jo Stafford clicks almost as sharply. Her first is 'Yes, Indeed,' with Bruce Snyder, from the sax section. With the Pied Pipers she does a swell job on '(Beyond The Hills Of) Idaho' and a great one on 'Embraceable You.' Gal has the pipes to melt any tune into sweet surrender. Dorsey waits to give his fiddles a real workout until near the end, on a concert arrangement of 'Sleepy Lagoon,' and they do him proud. Dorsey has plenty of show right in his own outfit, but for good measure WB deluxer has tossed in a couple of first-rate acts. Lane and Ward are a cute couple of hoofers and even manage to get some original continuity into their routines with that "reading them funnies" to an acrobatic bounce. Paul Regan is a first-rate impersonator who’s been fouled by the booking office in being penciled in with just a week between him and Dean Murphy. Not that he exactly suffers by comparison, but their subjects are the same with few exceptions and anyway mimics should be rationed over a longer stretch than just a few days. Didn’t effect Regan’s showing, however. He was over here like a house on fire. Max Adkin’s house crew had an overture of modernized Schubert melodies at the first show, but he’ll probably get a rest for the remainder of the week, what with the Stanley trying to squeeze in as many appearances for Dorsey as possible.”

TOMMY DORSEY’S REMOTE FROM PITTSBURGH THEATRE

“Pittsburgh, July 7 - Tommy Dorsey's broadcast as summer series of the Red Skelton (Brown & Williamson) replacement will be aired tonight (7) from stage of Stanley Theatre, where Dorsey opened a week's engagement Friday (3). Program follows his last show of the evening at the WB deluxer. Last Sunday (5), Dorsey's bond show on the Blue network was originated by WWVA, Wheeling, W. Va., from stage of Capitol Theatre in Steubenville, Ohio. Latter house gets Stanley attractions every Sunday on account of the blue law ban In Pennsylvania against flesh on that day.”

MORE COMING UP

"Theatre operators are watching with keen interest the trend toward name bands in pictures, meantime trying to get a closer line on exactly what share of pull they are exerting in films as well as stage personals. 'While reluctant to make' an estimate as to exactly what the popularity of the better-known bands means either, on film or on stage, their value is far from being' discounted. Two recent releases that are doing big in the theatres and are expected' to gross well over $1,000,000 in rentals for their distributors are 'Ship Ahoy' and The Fleet's In.' The former, made by Metro, has the Tommy Dorsey band, while 'Fleet's In,' turned out by Par, includes the Jimmy Dorsey outfit. The Dorsey bands are credited with meaning much to both films. Last year Glenn Miller's orch definitely helped 'Sun Valley Serenade' (20th), Sonja Henie starrer, to a domestic gross of $1,800,000. A new picture; 'Private Buckaroo' (U), with the Harry James orchestra,' has only started out and its box office possibilities are not ventured in advance of a number of dates, while coming up is the Sam Goldwyn feature, 'Pride of the Yankees,' which includes Ray Noble's orch. Kay Kyser, another topflight band, recently went on release in 'Favorite Spy' (RKO). Its grosses have been spotty. , There are at least 15-bands that should command in films the box office power that they have on the stage. Not infrequently grosses in theatres playing bands zoom, in spite of pictures that are not outstanding."71

Tommy Dorsey Contracts Don Tannen for Vaude

“Pittsburgh, July 14 - Tommy Dorsey, playing Stanley Theatre last week, signed Don (Popikoff) Tannen, singing comedian, to play several coming theatre dates with him. Dorsey caught Tannen while he was filling a short engagement here at Little Jackie Heller’s night spot, the Yacht Club. Currently Paul Regan, Impersonator, is in Dorsey's band show, but Regan has recently played several theatres where TD Is booked and thus a replacement was necessary. Tannen will join the Dorsey unit in Washington, and that week Regan will play the Yacht Club here. Bandleader also expects to use Tannen for his N. Y. Par theatre engagement and asked him before leaving town to accept no other engagements on Broadway until then. Lucky break for Tannen was result of a fluke. He was a last minute booking at the nitery here, rushed in overnight.”

RECORD REVIEWS:

Tommy Dorsey
Take Me and Be Careful, It’s My Heart
Just As Though You Were Here and Along The Street of Dreams

“Take Me, even with bad balance, sounds as rich-toned as any TD has cut. Strings achieve Kosty (editor’s note: Kostelanetz) proportions at times. Beat is a little waterlogged. Careful doesn’t even sound like the Dorsey band – more like Percy Faith – until the brass section starts its familiar blatting. There are sections of TD’s Though strings that are right in there. Last two were the first string sides the band cut and aren’t nearly as the first. Once again a bad beat. Seems as if Tommy can’t get a quiet beat that swings. Either it’s gotta barrelhouse along or fall through heavily. Frank Sinatra sings all four sides.”

INSIDE STUFF - ORCHESTAS

“Frank Sinatra is not leaving his vocalist spot with Tommy Dorsey until another spot is definite. Dorsey outfit admits having spoken to Dick Haymes, now with Benny Goodman, replacing Sinatra, but denies that the change will be made immediately. It had been rumored that Haymes would replace Sinatra before Dorsey goes to the Coast for his next Metro picture.”

FAN PAPER OUT

“The quarterly edition of Tommy’s Tribune, newspaper published by the Tommy Dorsey fan club of Buffalo, N.Y., has been distributed. Harriet A. Plumley, 93 Urban Street, is president. The paper gives the following code of standards for all true Dorsey fan:

1. Preferably is a jitterbug, although often is a simple music-loving person
2. Never knocks, but always boosts the other bands and feels sorry for they can’t have a leader such as TD
3. Is faithful to the end
4. Listens to every Dorsey recording, programs and does everything possible to get his records played on the air
5. Listen to the arguments presented by fans of the other bands and sympathizes with them that they should be so nutty as to believe Glenn Miller is better than TD
6. Lives with the hope that someday he may be able to shake TD’s hand and say in a reasonable calm voice, “How do you do Mr. Dorsey? I’ve heard so many of your programs.”

Reviewed Friday Afternoon, July 17

“Tommy Dorsey is here on his annual visit, this time exhibiting a 10-piece string section (including a girl harpist) in addition to his regular money-making group, featuring Frank Sinatra and his ballads, Ziggy Elman and his trumpet, the Pied Pipers (three men and sexy Jo Stafford) and their famous harmony, plus the maestro’s famous sweet slide horn. Plenty of talent here and only two outside acts are used to round out the bill – Lane and Ward and Paul Regan. In all, a tightly packed package of up-to-date entertainment. The boys dish out oldies, new hits as well as Dorsey trademarks (‘Song Of India’, ‘I’ll Never Smile Again’), all placed in proper spots and delivered in the usual Dorsey standard. A definite highlight, and doubling in the role of sub leader, is Ziggy Elman, the boy with the hot trumpet who is a familiar name to the jitterbugs judging by the applause greeting him. He takes a featured part in several numbers, delighting his followers. Frank Sinatra is another band natural, possessing a strong tenor voice that treats ballads with more than normal polish. From the standpoint of appearance, however, he could use a few extra pounds and (and the blue spot doesn’t flatter him either) stays on for several numbers and remains for the closing tune, ‘Tallulah.’ Most of his numbers are embellished with rhythmical support from the Pied Pipers who work in fine harmony. On their own, earlier in the bill, they score with ‘Embraceable You’ and a military melody. The string section gets its inning in the melodic arrangement of ‘Sleepy Lagoon’. Otherwise, it plays a minor second to the brass and reeds. Lane and Ward are a cute acro team with idea numbers. First it’s a bit that starts off loud music and tapers off to please a customer supposedly asleep in the audience (different), and finally their well-known Reading the Comics dance, which consists of cute bits of business throughout. For an encore Bobby Lane adds a couple of socko tricks in which he comes down straight on his head to a few inches from the floor before landing feet first. Paul Regan, impersonator with a sense of humor, has never had a better act. The material is good and the characters move along with the speed of a Milton Berle routine. Went strong. On screen, The Great Man’s Lady. Big biz end of first show opening day despite blazing heat. (Sam Honigberg).”

“Tommy Dorsey Orch, with Jo Stafford and the Pied Pipers, Ziggy Elman, Buddy Rich, Frank Sinatra; Bobby Lane and Edna Ward, Paul Regan; ‘The Great Man's Lady’ (Par)

“Tommy Dorsey brings his augmented 31-piece band, with its several star performers, into the Chicago theatre for a smooth, pleasant and highly entertaining 70-minute show. Band opens with the familiar theme, 'I'm Getting Sentimental Over You,' goes into a lusty version of 'Hallelujah,' then offers 'Jersey Bounce' in fast, rhythmic style for a spirited show opening. Bobby Lee and Edna Ware are cucko acrobatic' dancers. They do a couple of cute novelties, disputing the possession of a Sunday comic section in dance time and dancing without their shoes. Jo Stafford and the Pied Pipers, a better than average quartet, sing George Gershwin's 'Embraceable You' and follow it with a patriotic medley. Genuinely attractive novelty is the band's concert arrangement of 'Sleepy Lagoon,' featuring the violin section of the orchestra. This is followed by 'Hawaiian War Chant,' which shows off Elman's great trumpeting and the maniacal drummer boy antics of Buddy Rich. Imitations, which seem to have become a standard part of most stage shows these days, are well presented by Paul Regan. Poised and nonchalant, with a definite appeal to the ladies, Frank Sinatra sings 'Skylark,' 'This Love of Mine' and, as soloist with the Pied Pipers, 'I'll Never Smile Again,' 'South of the Border,' 'Poor You,' 'Last Call for Love,' ending up with 'I'll Take Tallulah' for a smash finish. Not a vacant seat in this big house at the opening show Friday (17) (Loop).”

INSIDE STUFF - ORCHESTRAS

“Tommy Dorsey last week secured an attachment for $1,000 against bandleader Teddy Powell in an effort to recover cash Dorsey "loaned the former last winter. Powell, now at the Log Cabin, Armonk, N. Y., signed a judgment allowing Dorsey to take his money out of the first theatre salary Powell earns after leaving the Log Cabin in September. Powell borrowed the cash from Dorsey after the Rustic Cabin, Englewood Cliffs. N. J., burned down last winter and Powell's band lost all its Instruments and library.”

“Joe Marsala, clarinetist, who usually confines himself to leading small jazz combinations. Is rehearsing a big band in New York, It Is not connected with any agency so far. Marsala and his wife, harpist Adele Gerard, almost joined Tommy Dorsey's band recently but the idea was dropped over salary differences. Marsala once before led a big band, about three years ago.”

GEO. MARLO TO FRONT FOR DORSEY MUSIC CO.

"George Mario will become professional manager of the Dorsey Brothers Publishing Co., now in the process of being formed by the band leading brothers who made up recently. Mario was for two years professional manager of BMI, but left recently to enter the Army. He was rejected on his application for a commission. BUDDY RICH INTO MARINES

"Buddy Rich, drummer with the Tommy Dorsey orchestra, has enlisted in the Marines. He stays with the band, however, until he's called for service. Meanwhile Dorsey is seeking a replacement, Rich allegedly was on the verge of being drafted into the Army."

HOUSE REVIEWS

PALACE, CLEVE
Cleveland, July 24.

"Tommy Dorsey Orch, with Jo Stafford and Pied Pipers, Buddy Rich, Ziggy Elman, Frank Sinatra; Phil Regan, Lane & Ward; 'Moontide' (20th)

"RKO deluxer's current edition Is the most powerful, best entertaining bill It's had this season between Tommy Dorsey's new 31-piece crew and Jean Cabin's first American flicker. With standees from the start, it's very likely that the sentimental gent of swing will set a new summer b. o. record. Dorsey, who hasn't been seen hereabouts for over a year, is pulling not only the younger set of chair rocking jitterbugs, but also the better class of music enthusiasts. Both groups were eminently satisfied with wide range of his opening repertory, which smoothly shifts from such exciting jive classics as 'Jersey Bounce' and excellently done 'Hawaiian War Chant' to the tiptop concertized version of 'Sleepy Lagoon.' Virtuosity of Ziggy Elman on trumpet and Drummer-Boy Buddy Rich in 'Chant' inspired a rip roaring ovation that shook David Bines' attractive stage setting, holding up the band's next number. Dorsey's trombone solo, the rich tonal quality given to outfit by ten new strings, Frank Sinatra's singing and ingratiating vocal harmony by the Pied Pipers teamed with Jo Stafford, were other terrifically applauded highlights that had initial performance running a bit over time. Singers were almost drowned out by band in patriotic medley done with newsreel shots for background, but number is rousing. Clever acrobatics with a Sunday comic section by Lane and Ward score high. Phil Regan's incisive satirical mimicry in almost a score of comic impersonations went over far better than his gags, which could be fresher. With cooler weather and showers helping, weekend trade was in the sellout class. (Pull)."

DORSEY SENIOR

“Thomas F. Dorsey, Sr., 70, father of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey and also a bandmaster himself. Died July 12 at Friends Hospital, Philadelphia. Born in Shenandoah, Pa., he later instructed music and was a bandmaster in Mahanoy Plain, Pa. He taught both Tommy and Jimmy their music and both leaders attribute their musical success to their father. The elder Dorsey quit teaching in 1939 due to ill health. Funeral services were held July 14 in Lansford and burial took place in Shenandoah. Surviving are Tommy, Jimmy, their mother, Theresa, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Lisella.”

FATHER’S DEATH MAY END FEUD OF DORSEY BOYS
Plan Joint Music Publishing House; May Take Tour For USO

“New York – After a prolonged illness, Thomas Francis Dorsey, Sr. died in the Friends Hospital, Philadelphia, July 12. He was 70. Standing at his grave a few days later in Shenandoah, Pa., having rushed home from Washington, the other from Detroit, Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey buried once and for all the hatchet of a feud which has raged on and off for almost nine years. Not only did the brothers agree to call it quits on the harsh words, but at press time their respective attorneys, John Manning for Jimmy and Bill Farnsworth for Tommy, are drawing up details of a joint music publishing business … both brothers returned to work July 16, and though they obviously didn’t wish much discussion, it seems evident that an era of cooperation is at hand, with a good possibility of the much talked about joint tour of the two top flight bands for the USOs benefit. Jimmy was signed recently at a $75,000 figure to do a picture for MGM with Red Skelton entitled I Dood It, while his stable mate at GAC, Glenn Miller, got the same figure to re-sign with 20th Century Fox for another film. Tommy is also under contract to MGM for two more pictures, Du Barry Was A Lady and Girl Crazy.”

“New York – Got a traveling band? Use cars? You’re traveling 470 miles a month from now on, bud, like it or not, if you’re working in the gas rationing area in the East. And count yourself lucky to get that. The OPA has informed Down Beat that no band will be given more than this, regardless of the circumstances unless it is traveling specifically on work for the Army. This ration constitutes the B card, while unlimited cards will be given only to direct war occupations. When the Bat pointed out the great hardship this would cause the bands, an important factor in national morale. He OPA official questioned said, “This is war. Somebody has to take it in the neck. In this case, it’s the dance bands.”

“Tommy Dorsey's band is riding the crest of the wave in Philly these days in the juke box hit parade and this is evidenced by the terrific mobs of the Quakertown's younger set heading for the Earle. But the kids must be a mite disappointed in their idol. Maybe it was because the boys were playing their seventh show when caught or maybe it was the heat hut Dorsey and his boys were inclined to cut up too much onstage, spoiling what might- have been a topnotch show. The clowning of the footers, headed by Ziggy Elman and Buddy Rich, became contagious with the audience becoming unruly. Result was that the vocalists and other performers were heckled and the thing was well on its way to becoming a clambake before the curtain came down. But among his fans, the king could do no wrong. Every number was greeted with solid applause and whistling, and when it was over the ovation was deafening. Making his first appearance here in more than three years, and the "first time since he's added the string section. Dorsey and his lads tee off with their theme, 'Getting Sentimental Over You.' From then it" a mixture of Dorsey specials and top kickers on the hit parade: 'Jersey Bounce,' 'Sleepy Lagoon,' 'Hawaiian War Chant,' 'Song of India,' 'Get If and a stirring patriotic medley played behind a scrim on which the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Corps do their stuff while the band plays the anthems of each arm of the service. Frank Sinatra's melodious voice nets him plenty of kudos, but the guy had a tough time bucking the opposition of the kibitzers down front and on the bandstand, Sinatra is solid with 'Without a Song,' 'This Love of Mine,' 'Skylark,' 'Poor You' and teams with the Pied Pipers for a couple including 'I'll Take Tallulah,' 'Never Smile Again,' 'Last Call for Love.' Rounding out the show are a couple of clever acts. Paul Regan, mimic, has plenty of talent and lots of material. He could, however, improve his stint by cutting out some of the cornier stuff and keeping only his best bits, which are really, clever. He has a super-abundance of material, and his act is a bit over-long. Dancers Lane and Ward have an entertaining and 'novel acrobatic turn. They were lined up in the' lobby when caught (Saturday night)."

REVIEW:

“Theatre date in Washington, with the news of the time grim from a place called Guadalcanal and the nation still not digesting the details of the great naval air battle at Midway, shows the Tommy Dorsey organization unchanged in style, grace and gusto. A bit of the ballet backstage takes to the Dorsey Brothers bands of the early thirties and you can inject a note of Satan Takes A Holiday, by heck, into this one. Ziggy Elman and Don Lodice score again. Will you listen to those cigarette commercials? This will give you an idea of the tobacco mania of the day and you’d never think the time would come when someone would actually tell you the things are bad for you. Tommy ushers in Sinatra with “all right, Frankie” for a few ballads, and if we said the Dorsey band didn’t change since the flip side (February 11, 1941 broadcast), forgive us... we are now in TD’s string sonnets and he even has a harp, yet. All of which makes for a pleasant background for Frank and for Tommy himself on his well-spoken ‘None But The Lonely Heart’. Sinatra’s ‘You Are Always In My Heart ‘ was a tune that took him out of the crowd, one he handled expertly then and by now you have made comparison with the Sinatra on side one. Both are fine, but as Frank got older, he only got better. And it should be appreciated, in these days of taped this and that, that the freshness of a live broadcast is, well, refreshing. As witness the band stepping on the announcer ... ‘The Snootie Little Cutie,’ with Frank and the Pied Pipers, and that means the most attractive face and voice of Jo Stafford, is most representative of the big band era. It swung, you could lindy to it and love it, and the lyrics were provocative enough to keep in mind for the girl you admired so much but were afraid to talk to directly. A thing like those inane lines might get you to first base some night, and from there, second base, third... who could tell? Are you listening when Tommy steps into ‘None But The Lonely Heart?’ ... ‘All right, Ziggy’? On this pleasant and somewhat melancholy offering, the leathery and leaping chops of Mr. Elman are hardly required, as he was nearly the conductors white Tommy soloist. The closer here has some of the cornball necessities to playing a theatre date and having a radio remote. The hollering and the showboating are pure pap, but ‘Not So Quiet Please’ makes its point.”

FRANK SINATRA ALONE

“Frank Sinatra, vocalist with Tommy Dorsey’s orchestra, has signed a management contract with General Amusement Corp. He is leaving Dorsey Sept. 3 to go into radio, theatre work, etc., as a soloist. He is to be replaced by Dick Haymes, who has already left’ Benny Goodman. Another vocalist change last week put Ray Eberle, who recently parted with Glenn Miller, with Gene Krupa’s band in place of Johnny Desmond.”

TOMMY AND EDDIE SACK ‘EM

“Chicago – Tommy Dorsey helps Eddie Chase sack ‘em up in the WAAF studios in the Palmer House here. On his daily Mythical Ballroom radio broadcasts, Eddie has been conducting a terrific campaign, urging all of his listeners to turn over their old phonograph records to the American Legion, official collection agency for the Records For Our Fighting Men organization. This group turns them in for cash, then purchases new discs and machines for men in the service.”

JOINS MARINES

“Buddy Rich enlisted in the Marine Corps but is expected to remain with the Tommy Dorsey crew until they complete their next movie before reporting for duty after November 1.”

CAPITOL, WASH.

Tommy Dorsey's Orch- with Frank Sinatra, Buddy Rich, Ziggy Elman, Jo Stafford; Pied Pipers; Archie Robbins, Lane & Ward; 'Calling Dr. Gillespie' (M-G).

“There's a new Tommy Dorsey setup on the stage this week. Instead of the heavy accent on brasses and reeds, the maestro introduces battery of fiddles, bass viol and concert harp in a string section for softer precision. Yet the demonstrative hepcats in the audience control the program, serving noisy applause for blare and rhythm and demanding an overflowing portion of jive. There is some condescension to those who like their music sweet and low with melody strings, but the opening-day audience really poured it on when Ziggy Elman was melting his blistering trumpet arid for Buddy Rich's acrobatic gyrations with the drumsticks. The Dorsey trombone also came in for shrieking approval and noisy palm beating. Routine was considerably upset when Frank Sinatra checked in opening day with a bad case of tonsillitis. This necessitated a quick change, for Sinatra closes the show with a budget of pop tunes. Jitterbugs took the indisposition announcement with a chorus of groans, indicating that Sinatra, were he present, could have had the nomination by acclamation. Specialties include the clever soft shoe stepping of Bobby Lane and Edna Ward, climaxed by smart acrobatic routine. Jo Stafford leads the Pied Pipers in 'Embraceable You' and other gems from the George Gershwin melody album. Scrim comes down for a lively patriotic number with some rabble-rousing films of the Army and Navy in action. String section contributes its best effort to a slick arrangement of 'Sleepy Lagoon.' - Archie Bobbins, a fast worker, slips over a few Joe Millers in a staccato monolog punctuated with, some comedy lyrics. His encore brings out Stan Ross for some double feature Impersonations, one doing the voice, the other expressions and character acting. Scored solidly. Jo Stafford, doing a single for the first time, as pinch hitter for Sinatra, punches over 'Blues in the Night' in a special arrangement and 'Man I Love.' Band does its best brass blasting, with spotlighted soloists, on 'Hawaiian War Chant,' 'Tallulah' and 'Jersey Bounce.' In all, 46 minutes of good Tommy Dorseyiana interspersed with whistling and cheers from constituents who all sway and swing the jazz way. Attendance at first show capacity, with solid lockout jamming the lobby.”

CHESTER BKPT.; LISTS $23.3 IN DEBTS

“Bob Chester last week filed the third largest petition in bankruptcy by a bandleader in Federal Court, N. Y. Again proving that the band business is big business, at least in unpaid debts, Chester listed liabilities of $23,233 and assets of $1,285, not including his saxophone. Previous high baths were taken by Bobby Byrne, who recently listed liabilities of approximately $58,000, and Jack Teagarden, two years ago, for $28,000. In listing creditors, Chester's petition revealed that he had an agreement with Tommy Dorsey whereby the latter was entitled to 10% of Chester's profits from his band. It was not generally known that Dorsey had a piece of Chester's outfit, though there have been rumors to that effect, Dorsey was instrumental in getting Chester's band started about three years ago.”100

The MGM Studio Orchestra conducted by Lennie Hayton augmented the recordings that Tommy Dorsey and his Orchestra made for the film. Dorsey and the band were co-mingled with the MGM Studio Orchestra in segments where the vocalists and soloists from the band (TD, Ziggy Elman and Buddy Rich) are apparent, including “Du Barry Was A Lady,” “Salome” and “Madame, I Love Your Crepes Suzette,” where the full band was not documented as present.

GILT TO THE HILT

“Hollywood, Sept. 15. - Life in Hollywood will be a golden symphony for Tommy Dorsey for the next six months, during which he will luxuriate in a Beverly Hills mansion with a retinue of five servitors from his New Jersey castle, including Cy Smith, combined chauffeur and bodyguard, whose former boss was Joe Louis, knuckle monarch. The Beverly Hillside palace was built by George Fitzmaurice in the gilded days of pictures.”

101 Variety, September 16, 1942, p. 5
Per Mark Cantor: “these are the musicians are that seated in “Well, Git It.” We cannot assume the exact same arrangement in other scenes, nor can we assume that all musicians are seen in each and every set up. “Well, Git It” was recorded on September 17, 1942, between 10:10 P.M. and 12:09 A.M. (the following day). Joe Bushkin arrived for work at 10:10 P.M., so that is when the work on this number commenced; it is certainly possible that they rehearsed the song earlier in the night, but Joe was there when the recording was made. About the situation with the two pianists, the fact that it was decided to include a three chorus set of piano solos ... one by Bushkin, one by Raskin and one split between the two ... is perhaps unique where band appearances in feature films are concerned. Off the top of my head, I cannot think of any band appearance where someone other than the bandleader, or a featured member of the band (Gene Krupa with Benny Goodman, for example) gets so much screen time. At the time of the film’s production, Joe Bushkin was in the armed forces and stationed near Los Angeles. Joe told me that he was able to get a one-day pass, to drive to Los Angeles and record the number, along with his replacement in the band, Milt Raskin. But he was unable to remain in Los Angeles for sideline photography. Don Lodice said that it was an ‘MGM rehearsal pianist, who regularly sat in for sideline work.’ It is important to note that, contrary to suggestions over the years, this is not Roger Edens.”

“Frank Sinatra, ex-vocalist with Tommy Dorsey's band, begins a series of sustaining broadcasts on CBS either Oct. 6 or 8. Exact number of shows he'll do weekly isn't definite. Sinatra has spent the last few weeks since leaving Dorsey (Sept 3) in California. He made a film for Columbia during that time, a short sequence which took only a day and a half to complete.”102

THIS OUGHT TO PROVE IT

“Hollywood – Jimmy Dorsey gets off on clary, Mickey Rooney thumps the skins and brother Tommy slides his tram at Jimmy’s Palladium opening. The reunion of the brothers Dorsey is no gag – both are friendly again and working together on their new song publishing firm which George Marlo directs from New York. Trumpeter behind Tommy ‘s head is Bill Oblok. Jimmy and his band start work in MGM’s “I Dood It” with Red Skelton in November.”¹⁰³

TOMMY DORSEY SET TO PLAY PENNSYLVANIA HOTEL, N. Y., IN FALL OF ‘43 FOR MCA

“Tommy Dorsey's band has been committed to play the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York, next year, opening sometime in the fall. This is a surprising booking since it will probably eliminate Dorsey from playing the Astor Roof next summer, a job he had for the past two years. It also marks the end of General Amusement Corp.'s reign over the Penn's bookings; GAC has had an exclusive on the spot for several years, but Dorsey's deal was made direct by Music Corp. of America Last year MCA had Gene Krupa in the spot, but he was booked through GAC. Booking Tommy Dorsey so far in advance is an evident effort by the hotel to avoid the difficulties it had recently when Glenn Miller suddenly enlisted in the Army, leaving the spot without a band only a few weeks before his opening and after all other top outfits were booked elsewhere. Jimmy Dorsey the past three or four years has occupied the Penn's bandstand from January until March or April. However, if both Dorseys play the spot next year there will probably be a band between them.”

Tommy Dorsey and his Orchestra completed their work on “Du Barry Was A Lady.” The amount paid to Dorsey, the band and arrangers was $19,293.61 (before taxes).

BOBBY BURNS TO GRINNELL FOR OFFICER TRAINING

“Bobby Burns, former manager of Tommy Dorsey's orchestra, has been ordered to begin training for a Lieutenant's commission at the Army Administrative School at Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa. He has been in the Army almost six months and was stationed at Camp Dix, N. J. He reports at Grinnell Oct. 29. At Dix Burns was associated in producing radio programs with Sgt. Jack Leonard, formerly Dorsey's vocalist. Just after receiving his orders to train for a commission Burns was made a Corporal.”

INSIDE STUFF - MUSIC

“Tommy Dorsey is seeking to buy all the rights of 'I'll Never Smile Again' from Mrs. Mabel Sample, widow of Milton Weil. The band leader decided that he would like to have the song after he had turned back the Weil catalog, which he had for three years operated as the Sun Music Co., to Mrs. Sample. Under her deal with Dorsey Mrs. Sample became entitled to any number Dorsey published under the Sun imprint.”

DORSEY OPENS WEEK’S SHOW
Sweet Swing Band Now At Paramount

“Tommy Dorsey, master of sweet swing, stirred them and soothed them, always enthralled them at the Paramount Monday. Here with his 26-piece dance orchestra and five singing stars for a full week’s engagement, Maestro Dorsey offered 65 minutes of meticulous musical craftsmanship, and got the kind of response that promises full houses tomorrow and tomorrow. Dorsey himself, neat in gray suit and straight-combed graying pompadour, leads his rhythm gang without clowning or arm waving and sans circus whip. But his lads show careful training. Dorsey has lost 15 men to the armed services, but his big-name band has top-notch replacements and plenty of punch left.

Jo Stafford Sings

“The Pied Pipers, with Jo Stafford as the girl singer, give some mighty fine close harmony on ‘Mr. Five by Five,’ ‘Embraceable You’ and a patriotic medley for their initial appearance, then join soloist Dick Haymes in ‘White Christmas,’ ‘Smile Again’ and ‘I’ll Take Tallulah’ at the close. Haymes vocalizes “Old Man River,” “Daybreak” and “Take Me,” and that saccharine string section with its eight violins wafts “Blue Lagoon” in from the prewar South Pacific. Dorsey weaves in a seasoning of velvety tones from his trombone. For variety’s sake, Grey and Diane do a novelty balancing act to Dorsey’s strains, topping it off with a staircase climb by Gray in prone position while the eye-filling Diane holds a hand stand with him. Eddie Rio, another Hollywood performer, slapsticks before the mike with impersonations and a “join the army” song.

Wednesday Big Day

“Dorsey’s big day here will be Wednesday, when his band will broadcast two shows from the Paramount stage, first to the east at 5:30 and second to west coast at 8:30. Both will be NBC by way of Portland’s KGW. The busy bandsters drew a record dance crowd to McArthur Court on the University of Oregon campus Saturday night and appeared before an estimated 6000 at Tacoma Sunday. On the Paramount screen this week is the comedy film, “Girl Trouble,” starring Don Ameche, Joan Bennett, Billie Burke, Frank Craven, Alan Dinehart and Helene Reynolds.”

TOMMY DORSEY SINGS BLUES
By E.P. Chalcraft

“‘Dr.’ Tommy Dorsey, whose magic compound of hot and sweet is just what the patients love, is suffering from a musical malaise for which, so far, no effective prescription has been found. Should you hear him muttering something about ‘Sixteen-eleven to go,’ don’t jump to the conclusion he’s the victim of a mathematical fixation. It’s serious, but not that bad. Yesterday afternoon the eminent doctor (he has given the honorary degree of Doctor of Swing at Buffalo University a few years ago) rested in the wings at the Orpheum Theater while the Pied Pipers, accompanied by the band, were raising audience temperatures to a new high. Behind him was a maze of ropes by which the stage sets are lowered and raised. He sat in front of one labeled ‘Fairy Bridge’. But Dorsey wasn’t thinking of fairy bridges. Even when ‘Ziggy’ Elman flourished his preheated trumpet and picked a few right out of the stratosphere and the crowd beyond the footlights went into scata, Dorsey just with a little smile.

Loses 16 Men

“Then he stepped onto the stage with his trombone and played ‘Sleepy Lagoon’ played it soft and sweeter than sorghum dripping from a keg. Just before he played it he said: ‘This number is dedicated to my sixteen boys who are in the service.” And there it is. The army blues have got Doctor Dorsey in a quandary. Sixteen members of his band have donned uniforms of the fighting forces since the United States entered the war, and eleven more are going soon. Not that Dorsey would have it otherwise, because he knows they’re needed. But it creates a replacement problem, which has him baffled.

More To Join

‘There’s George Ricci, cellist, who any day now will leave for the Army Air Base at Santa Ana, Calif. ‘Ziggy’ Elman, Ray Linn and Jimmie Zito of the trumpet section are set to be called. Bill Ehrenkranz has enlisted as an army flyer and will be on his way soon. Then there are “Mannie” Gershman, saxophonist; George Arus, trombonist; “Bernie” Tinterow, fiddle player; Les Atkins, violist; John Huddleston of the Pied Pipers and Don Lodice. ‘It’s pretty difficult to find woman players who can stand the pace of one-night stands,’ Dorsey said. Dorsey himself is 3A in the draft. ‘But I haven’t been reclassified yet,’ he said.”

DORSEY LOSES PIED PIPERS

“New York, Dec. 5 – Tommy Dorsey’s vocal quartet, the Pied Pipers, breaks up an eight-year association when Jo Stafford leaves the group to join her husband, John Huddleston, being inducted at Portland, Oregon. Remaining Pipers will single for the duration. The Dorsey orchestra returns to Hollywood to start work on its third MGM film, Girl Crazy.”

PIED PIPERS QUIT

November 26, 1942 (Thu)

En-route to Seattle from Portland, Tommy Dorsey reportedly threw a temper fit at Portland Union Station. En-route to Seattle, Dorsey apparently fired Clark Yocum because he gave TD the wrong information about which train to board. The vocal group all quit at Seattle in support of Yocum. Public statements (see above) gave a somewhat different reason for their departure. The Pied Pipers returned to California. John Huddleston was induced to military service and divorced from Jo Stafford. Original Pied Piper Hal Hopper replaced him. The group became very successfully involved with Johnny Mercer, Capitol Records and Mercer’s NBC radio series. Mercer and Capitol set Jo Stafford up as a solo performer and June Hutton joined the group. Stafford would later marry Capitol orchestra leader and former TD arranger Paul Weston.

INSIDE STUFF – ORCHESTRAS

“Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey's orchestras will be working on the same lot, Metro, in Hollywood, later this month. Jimmy Dorsey will be finishing up the last two weeks of filming on 'I Dood It,' while Tommy begins work Dec. 12 In 'Girl Crazy.' Last time the two bands were anywhere near each other was at the New Yorker Hotel, N. Y., couple years back, when one closed and the other opened at the Terrace Room, and it was arranged for the respective moves to be made on the same evening.”

DECCA BUYS WEIL CATALOG, BUT NOT CERTAIN ON USE

“Decca Record Co. has acquired the catalog of the Milton Weil Music Co., Jack Kapp, Decca prez, stated yesterday (Tuesday) that he wasn't certain 'as of Dec. 1' whether his company would use the catalog as the nucleus of an active publishing business. All he could say, added Kapp, was that the Weil catalog had been offered him and he bought it.

No recording company has maintained any ownership connection with a music catalog since the latter '20s, when Victor tamed over Southern Music to Ralph Peer. Mrs. Mable Sample, widow of Milton Weil, leased the catalog to bandleader Tommy Dorsey several years ago. Dorsey made it the basis of his Sun Music Co., and, about a year and a half after adding the hit 'I'll Never Smile Again' to It, he turned the catalog back to its owner.”

TD RUNS INTO MORE INCLEMENT WEATHER

“Helena, Montana – Dec. 19 – Despite inclement weather and temperatures ranging just above zero, 1,486 paid their way into Civic Center Ballroom here Friday (4) to dance to the music of Tommy Dorsey’s orchestra. Gross totaled $2,096. Top for servicemen was $1 and $1.50 for civilians. In addition to playing the dance, Dorsey and several of his entertainers that afternoon presented a program for soldiers at Fort William Henry Harrison. From here Dorsey went to Great Falls, where he played to 2,642 people, including 516 servicemen stationed at the base there. American Legion assisted Ben Barnett and K. O. MacPherson of Helena in sponsoring the dance there, which netted $3,766. Orchestra and vocalists also played to servicemen at a special program at the army base there. Immediately following the Great Falls dance, the 40-piece troupe boarded a 27-passenger bus, which took them back to Idaho Falls, where they made train connections to Reno, Nevada.”

INSIDE STUFF - ORCHESTRAS

“Carrying spare musicians as protection against sudden loss of men to the draft seems to be growing. Tommy Dorsey is currently toting two extra trumpet players as insurance against being left short-handed. There’s a good possibility that he’ll soon have to use one, as Ray Lynn, long-time member, reports for a physical this week. Jimmy Dorsey first started the idea of carrying extra men, but it almost backfired on him. He carried one spare trumpeter, but before any of his four set men were called the spare was docketed for a physical. He subsequently drew a 4-F.”122

Yes—Santa was there!

Throughout the nation, this year, millions of young men in uniform spent Christmas Day—not with their families but in Army Camps, Naval Bases, Marine Corps and Air Corps Centers. But Santa Claus was there!

The Coca-Cola Company, in a magnificent presentation, contributed a very great share of the gaiety and lift and enjoyment which are an inseparable part of Christmas. Working with their advertising agency, The D’Arcy Advertising Company, Coca-Cola staged “Uncle Sam’s Christmas Tree”—one of the great radio programs of all time—a program that lasted from noon to midnight of Christmas Day.

From Service Centers in twenty-four states, Forty-Three of the nation’s top bands not only entertained the men at these centers, but their music went out over the airwaves to “bring together” these men and their families in homes throughout the country. Each band was on the air fifteen minutes . . . but the live show lasted several hours. Multiply that by forty-three . . . and you will realize that SANTA CLAUS INDEED WAS THERE.

The Blue Network was privileged to carry this great program and we are proud of our part.

We and our stations want to thank and to salute The Coca-Cola Company, The D’Arcy Advertising Company, the Music Corporation of America and the Bands for one of the greatest contributions ever made to American morale in time of war.

Here is the list of Spotlight Bands which took part in “Uncle Sam’s Christmas Tree”—and the Camps and Bases from which they broadcast.

SINATRA MOVES INTO ‘HIT PARADE’

“Frank Sinatra, former Tommy Dorsey vocalist now on CBS sustaining, will replace Barry Wood on American Tobacco's Lucky Strike Hit Parade. Mood will shift over to the new Friday night replacement show for 'Information, Please,' which starts Feb. 12 with a 50-piece orchestra under Mark Warnow, plus Marie Greene, and Lyn Murray's chorus. This program will originate in Carnegie Hall, N. Y. and consist of an 'All-Time Hit Parade' melodies popular 20 or more years ago. George Washington Hill, head of American Tobacco, spent approximately $1,500 last week to have both shows produced and transcribed for his personal benefit, with Sinatra on the Hit Parade. Wood has been in that spot for three consecutive years. Sinatra has been receiving a concentrated buildup from CBS since leaving Dorsey. He has two shows, one half-hour and a quarter-hour, and on Jan. 4 begins 15 minutes across the board at 11:15 p.m. He was recently signed to a contract by Columbia Records to record solo after the settlement of the present controversy with the AFM. Today (Wednesday) Sinatra begins 10 consecutive weeks at the Paramount Theatre. N. Y. Frank Cooper, of General Amusement Corp., manages Sinatra.”

The program was distributed using two 16” discs. In order to facilitate easier cueing of two quarter hour discs, the Tommy Dorsey half-hour program was split onto two 16” transcription discs, with a different artist, in this case Ray Noble and his Orchestra, on the reverse of each discs (“Downbeat” 13). The date given above is the mastering and editing date. These items have been taken from various Tommy Dorsey Raleigh-Kool shows of the period. The Jack Marshall and George Ricci items, “Stompin’ at the Savoy” and “Flight of the Bumble Bee” are from “Star in Uniform” segments. The Dorsey and Bradley remarks were dubbed during the editing of the transcriptions.
