T. DORSEY'S '400 CLUB' DEAL DEPENDS ON OPA

“Tommy Dorsey's orchestra may still play the 400 Club, N. Y., which has been seeking a booking on him. Club offered Dorsey a $6,000 guarantee sometime ago, and that figure still stands. At the time, however, possibility of a guarantee against all cover charges was discussed. Whether that still holds is not certain. Dorsey and his manager, Arthur T. Michaud, looked over the spot last week. His possible opening there, however, will depend completely on whether the spot's owners can secure okay from the Office of Price Administration to tack on a cover charge. It has been operating with a minimum, Reports of possible curfews on liquor sales, however, may hold up the ideal.”

T. DORSEY INTO N. Y. 400 CLUB AT 6G GUARANTE; OPA OKAYS COVER TAB

“Office of Price Administration has okayed the switch from a minimum to a cover charge at the 400 Club, N. Y., and Tommy Dorsey's orchestra will debut a name band policy there around Feb, 15. He'll be in on a $6,000 guarantee, one of the highest figures ever paid a band in a N. Y. hotel or nitery insofar as modern pop bands are concerned. That guarantee is against a percentage of the covers. 400 Club has a capacity of approximately 850. It is out of the way a bit, situated on 5th Ave. near 42nd Street and has operated for years mostly as a restaurant. Last spring it went into a nitery policy with two bands and acts, which wasn't very successful. Dorsey is currently at the Capitol Theatre, N. Y., shifting to Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook, Cedar Grove, N. J., opening Jan. 26. The 400 Club follows.”

T. DORSEY'S PAR, N.Y., DATE LOOKS SET FOR LABOR DAY

“Conversations have been begun regarding the time of Tommy Dorsey's fulfillment of the one date his band still owes the Paramount Theatre, N. Y. He will probably play the latter house in the fall, possibly during the Labor Day period. Dorsey is currently at the Capitol Theatre, N. Y., his first date there. It was his acceptance of a bid by Metro to play the house that started a drawn-out argument between him, Paramount officials and Music Corp. of America last summer over whether or not he owed that house another date. It was decided he did but the time was deferred until after the Capitol booking.”

MILLION INCOME IN '44 FOR T. DORSEY

“Tommy Dorsey's orchestra piled up a gross income last year of approximately $1,000,000. This figure is the highest take ever amassed by a popular dance band. Kay Kyser might have equaled it several years ago, but his income was based mostly on his then Lucky Strike radio commercial. Back in August, it was estimated that Dorsey's gross would be closer to $1,200,000, which unquestionably would have been an all-time high. However, his enforced layoff on the Coast, from August to early November, put a crimp in the expectations even though he did work weekends at the Dorsey Brothers-owned Casino Gardens Ballroom. Figured In that $1,000,000 take is a sizeable income from the sale of 6,000,000 RCA-Victor recordings in 1944. Such a record sale was unusual as the band's total gross since Dorsey had not made a new record during the previous 18 months, due to the record ban.”

INSIDE STUFF – ORCHESTRA - MUSIC

“While the papers were signed for Tommy Dorsey's Feb. 16 debut at the 400 Club, N.Y., the deal, wasn't quite definite until late last week. It awaited the gathering of remote broadcast periods, which was difficult, despite Dorsey's name power, because of the tight schedules handled by all networks. It's all straightened out, however. Dorsey will have an approximate total of seven CBS and Mutual shots weekly. Before opening the 400 Club, Dorsey plays Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook for three weeks, opening Friday (26).”

“Dorsey Brothers Music Co. will again work on ‘Nevada.’ Originally published during the record ban and not very successful, tune will be recorded by Tommy Dorsey's orchestra on its next Victor date.”

Tommy Dorsey and his Orchestra opened at Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook, Cedar Grove, New Jersey.

INSIDE STUFF—ORCHESTRAS—MUSIC

“Business at Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook, which hasn't been too good lately, jumped with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra, refuting claims that the opening of the spot at such a time of tight transportation was a mistake. Dorsey played to almost 900 opening night, capacity 1,700-odd Saturday, in a light snowstorm. Ever since Dailey reopened the spot back in September, it has been buffeted by snowstorms and general bad weather, except for the opening weeks of Harry James and most of Shep Fields' run. Sammy Kaye's and Freddie Slack's weeks were ruined by weather. Dailey's Terrace Room Newark, with Louis Prima's band, outstripped both those bands at the box office during that period.\(^9\)

TOMMY DORSEY TO SOLO WITH STOKI'S SYMPH

“Tommy Dorsey will join the ranks of jazz maestri, who have gone temporarily longhair, like Benny Goodman, when Dorsey appears as soloist with Leopold Stokowski and his New York City Symphony Feb. 15 at City Center, N. Y. Dorsey will play the Concerto for Trombone and Orchestra written by Nathaniel Shilkret. Performance will mark concerto's premiere as well as Dorsey's longhair debut. Likely that Dorsey's band will sit in with the Center symphony, under Stoki's direction, for the performance. Concerto, in three movements, Is mainly a serious work with jazz rhythms. First two movements are in classical vein with little touch of jazz. Last movement goes straight boogie-woogie.”

Other highlights skedded include the N. Y. Y., Feb. 22.”

RICH WANTS OUT FOR MAESTRO HEAD START

"Buddy Rich, drummer with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra, wants to leave and form an outfit of his own right after Dorsey closes at the 400 Club, N. Y., around the third week in March. He has been discussing with Dorsey the possibility of getting out of a year's contract before its expiration in May, so as to get an earlier start as a maestro. Rich Is under contract to Music Corp, of America."

T.D.'S POTENTIAL 8G WEEKS IN 400 CLUB, N.Y., DEAL

"Tommy Dorsey's deal at the 400 Club, N. Y., where he opens Friday (16), is one that few bands in the business could secure. He's in for four weeks on a $3,500 weekly guarantee, plus the first $3,000 in covers (at $1.50 per), plus 50% of all covers over that figure. If business comes up to expectations, Dorsey can easily, walk out each week with between $7,500 and $8,000. For a, cafe job, that's an unheard-of salary. Following the 400 job, Dorsey will set out on a theatre tour, in which will be sandwiched a string of concert dates similar to bookings he played last year in the southwest. He's being sold on the same heavy guarantee, against 80%. On 12 dates last summer, he earned $80,000 in this 'way. Dates will be inaugurated in New England, where' he's playing the RKO Boston theatre week of April 5 for the first time in five or six years. He's also due at the Palace theatre, Albany, March 29. Before leaving N. Y. on the theatre and concert bookings, Dorsey will record for RCA-Victor, for Red Seal release, the "Concerto for Trombone" that he will play with Leopold Stokowski's N. Y. City Symphony tomorrow (Thursday)."

T. DORSEY’S DRAW AT 400 CLUB IN N. Y. MAY AFFECT STANDBY POLICY IN AREA

“Bandsmen and hotel operators employing name bands are closely watching the experiment of the 400 Club in N. Y., which debuted a name band policy with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra last week (16). In the event the spot is successful in establishing the policy with Dorsey, every name band room in the N. Y. area is in danger of losing the top artists who may be their standbys. Dorsey is drawing coin there which can reach as high as $8,000 weekly if he does big business, and while other bands probably would not be able to rate that kind of money, they unquestionably could get deals much better than the ones they accept at hotels. Dorsey’s business since opening night doesn’t carry much significance due to the brief period. He played to over 800 at the debut (16), between 800 and 900 Saturday and around 350 Sunday. Those figures aren’t exceptional. What effect the midnight closing decree posted Monday (19) by the Office of War Mobilization might have on the spot, is, of course, as yet unknown.”

Reviews

400 CLUB, N. Y.

Tommy Dorsey Orch. (30) with Bonnie Lou Williams. Frank Lester, Sentimentalists (4), Buddy Rich, Jess Stacey, no minimum cover, $1 weekdays, $1.50 weekends after 9 pm

“There is considerable interest among bandsmen in the booking of Tommy Dorsey's orchestra into this spot, which heretofore has been successful in recent years with a restaurant-only policy. Only time will prove whether the pull of Dorsey’s name will be able to transform the place, which seats approximately 850, into a successful band room. There are many factors blocking a successful run here, even by a band so powerful at the box office as Dorsey. The room is situated on Fifth Avenue, which is deserted after sundown. With the current brownout, finding the club is literally a matter of finding an address. You can ride past the place in a cab and never notice it. There is nothing attractive about the interior of the room. It is a cold atmosphere lighted rather brightly by hidden ceiling illumination. And it is studded by a dozen or more ponderous pillars that make it impossible to get a clear view of the bandstand from any part of the room. He dance floor is perhaps equal in area to that of the Pennsylvania Hotel.

\[16\] Variety, February 21, 1945, p. 41
“It seemed to be an adequate opening night, with the spot jammed tight with music tradesmen. If Dorsey can get the ball rolling here in six weeks, the spot will be a valuable addition to the ranks of band buyers. There are a lot of “ifs” involved, however. On of the things that the operators, Nat and Joe Moss must do is to continue without letup the large display ads carried in every daily newspaper prior to the opening.

“Dorsey’s band, which last week finished a run at Frank Dailey’s Meadowbrook, that wasn’t up to biz expectations due to the bad weather, is a fine outfit. For a wartime combo, its as exerting at jump pace and soothing and danceable at ballad speed as can be found. With arrangements by Fred Norman, Sy Oliver, Bill Finegan, et. al., virtually all of which stand out among modern band material, plus enthusiastic delivery by 11 strings, five rhythm, five trumpets, three trombones, six saxes and all led by Dorsey’s excellent trombone and personal bandstand deportment, the band is really great. Dorsey has been having trouble lately with male vocalists. Currently, he’s using Frank Lester, who seems promising. Bonnie Lou Williams and the Sentimentalists, one of the best quartets with any band today, have been with Dorsey for some time.”

T. DORSEY’S 6½G IN 1ST WK. AT 400

“Tommy Dorsey drew just under $6,6600 in salary for his first week at the "400" Club. N.
Y., for the period ending last Thursday (22). This figure does not represent capacity business, but is still one of the highest café salaries ever earned by a band, in N. Y. or out, on a six-day week. He gets a $3,900 guarantee. Dorsey drew just under $3,000 in cover charges, some at a $1 and some at $1.50 weekends. The showing, assertedly has highly satisfied the club's operators and, with the second week appearing better than the first (past Saturday (24) Dorsey played to 1,000 covers, 200 better than previous week), the operation will continue in the face of the midnight curfew. How the latter will affect the club isn't known since Monday night is Dorsey's night off and last night's (Tuesday)

TOMMY DORSEY, JIMMY DORSEY AND THEIR COMBINED ORCHESTRAS

This unusual recording session was the brainstorm of Cpl. George Simon, who supervised the recording session for the Army Special Service Division V-Disc program. The combined brass and reed sections were separated on each side of the rhythm sections. There were engineering complications transmitting the music to CBS, then to NBC and finally to RCA Victor where V-Disc acetates were cut. Simon felt this “resulted in diminished fidelity but the feeling came through.”

INSIDE STUFF – ORCHESTRAS – MUSIC

“Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey's orchestras completed the two sides for V-Disc last week, which called for combining of their two bands. Date was kept rather secretly at Liederkranz Hall. N. Y., Thursday (15) as a means of preventing the studio from being overrun with people not directly involved with the bands or the Army recording crew. Put together the bands added up to 10 trumpets, seven trombones. 10 sax, eight rhythm plus the brother-maestros. Date was conducted by Si Oliver, former Tommy Dorsey arranger, who wrote arrangements for the two sides encompassing all the above instruments. Tunes cut were "More Than You Know" and a blues. Date was under the direction of Sgt. George Simon of V-Discs.”

One of them is led by the former boss of my present boss, a fellow named Tom Dorsey” … “Yeah, that’s right, but tell me, who’s this other character leading this other band?” … “Don’t know him” … “Wait a minute, I’m You’re brother Jimmy” … “Oh” … “Remember, we used to play together in the same band when we were kids” … “Yeah, I remember you, but, say James, who is this guy who introduced us? Says he works for a guy who used to work for me. I don’t dig him. Who’s that?” … “Thomas, his name is Bill Goodwin” … “Thank you very much.” … “Pardon” … “Fellows, it ain’t Harry Bonzell” … “Well, who is this guy you’re working for that you said?” … “The singer?” … “Well, he’s a … you remember a slender fellow, Tom, don’t you? CURFEW NIPS BUDDY RICH PLANS, STAYS WITH T.D.

“Buddy Rich has temporarily given up plans to build a band of his own, and will stay with Tommy Dorsey’s orchestra He has signed a new one-year contract with the leader, effective June 1, at the expiration of his current pact. He draws $500 weekly from Dorsey. Construction of a new band, was extremely difficult enough in these war-times, but the curfew put the final clamp on the idea.”

DORSEY’S FILM BIOGRAPHY

“Hollywood, March 20 - Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey will at last film the story of their lives, an effort the brothers have been trying to do ever since Hollywood became aware of name bands. They have formed Embassy Productions in association with producer Charles R. Rogers and around Sept. 1 will begin work on their initial effort. Tentative title of the picture is "My Brother Leads a Band" ("My Brother and I" had been the temporary title, but it was discarded as implying a dramatic story). Film will have a $1,000,000 budget. Financial backing of the organization is undisclosed. In order to form Embassy, Tommy Dorsey had to secure a release from Metro, where he was under contract and option. This was completed last week by Dorsey's manager, Arthur Michaud, and plans for the independent production were laid immediately.”

Goodman to Follow Ellington at 400, N. Y.

“Benny Goodman's orchestra is iet to follow Duke Ellington's into the 400 Club, N. Y., around the end of April. This sets the spot with box office power well into the spring, with negotiations going on for talent to follow Goodman. Latter's price is undisclosed, but it's said to be in the neighborhood of the current Tommy Dorsey salary, which Is’ 43,500 weekly guarantee, plus the first $8,000 in covers and a 50-50 split thereafter. Incidentally. Ellington's salary arrangements for the 400 were misprinted in last week's "Variety." He's getting a $3,500 weekly guarantee, plus the first $2,500 in covers, with the next 5500 worth going to the house, then a 50-50 split thereafter. Ellington will open April 4, while Dorsey closes March 28. Erskine Hawkins' orchestra has been signed for the intervening time.”

400, N. Y. BEING FORCED TO SHUTTER FOR SUMMER

"400 Club, N. Y. will probably close for the summer following Benny Goodman's 'four-week run, which opens April 28. Spot has no air-conditioning system in the downstairs room, in which the name bands are used. Equipment may be obtained during next two weeks, but the operators of the spot aren't confident it will be. If Goodman closes the 400 for the summer, it will reopen around late September or early October. The spot's operators are Music Corp. of America, which has an exclusive on booking, already at work lining up bands and endeavoring to complete the entire season from fall to spring. Tommy Dorsey, who opened the spot Feb. 16, closes tonight (Wednesday), followed by Erskine Hawkins for five days, then Duke Ellington, April 4."25

“Tommy Dorsey without his orchestra becomes a fixture on the RCA program Sunday afternoons (NBC 4:30. pm), starting April 15. Maestro has made a number of appearances on the program with his band the past few months and RCA. was so impressed with his m.c.'ing that the idea for him to handle that chore was hatched.. He replaces Louis Calhern. Dorsey's theatre and one-night route had been completely set up following his closing last Wednesday (28) at the 400 Club. N. Y. With, the setting up of the radio program, his bookings were ' rearranged so that he'll have weekends off to come into N. Y. alone for the show. His band- will lay off each weekend."

Tommy Dorsey Orch (29) with Four Sentimentalists, Bonnie Lou Williams, Stuart Foster, Lane & Claire, "The House of Fear" (U)

“Here for the first visit in eight years, Tommy Dorsey trombones to near-sellout with orchestral jolts for cheering bobby-soxers. From theme, ‘Getting Sentimental Over You.’ through first band opus ‘Song of India’ to the smash close ‘Well Git It,’ stomp-happy audience stays with Dorsey and his gang. ‘Boogie-Woogie’ set ‘em moaning and Buddy Rich cavorts like six-armed Indian idol at drums after year and a half in Marine Corps Also sensational but less seat smashing is Charlie Shavers' trumpet solo, ‘Summertime.’ Bonnie Lou Williams, with four oomphitic dolls, the Sentimentalists, wows with ‘Sleighride In July,’ ‘More and More,’ ‘Candy’ and ‘I Should Care.’ As for Lane & Claire, eccentric dancers expert at somersaults after straight stuff, they hit wrong note by toning down volume for mythical sleeper in audience when fans howl for bang-bang novelty. Stuart Foster does near-Sinatra with "Night and Day." Dorsey smoothly solos Dave Rose's version of ‘Smoke Gets in Your Eyes.’”

T.D.'S WALTZ ALBUM

"Tommy Dorsey's orchestra, augmented by nine extra strings; recorded a group of waltzes for RCA Victor last week in N. Y. for release in album form. It's Dorsey's initial attempt at such material. In the past, however, he has made special things for Victor's Red Seal label. Waltzes' cut last week included such things as "Tales of the Vienna Woods." With the nine added strings, Dorsey used 34 pieces including his own trombone."31

T. DORSEY WON’T PLAY PARAMOUNT, N. Y., AFTER ALL; COST HELD PROHIBITIVE

"After a drawn-out dispute, months ago, during which the case was taken to the American Federation of Musicians, Tommy Dorsey's orchestra will not play the Paramount Theatre. N. Y., after-all. He was supposed to have played that house this year, then return to the Capitol, where he played his last Broadway date. Paramount slates that its hold on Dorsey for one more appearance is not to be exercised due to the cost. At 12,500 weekly salary, plus standbys for his big band, it would have run $17,000 to $18,000. Dorsey at one time was a twice-yearly fixture at the Paramount. Last year about this time a hot dispute occurred over the fact that he signed his band to the Capitol, the Par claiming he owed them one more booking. It was settled by an arrangement to play one date at the Capitol, then fulfill the Paramount commitment."

Duke Ellington was guest pianist with the Dorsey band and TD was guest trombonist with the Ellington band for a special Victor “Double Feature” record release.

The unissued V-Disc test pressing is located in the GMA Walter C. Scott Collection and has been digitally restored for preservation and presentation.

We need to verify if the location of “The Minor Goes A Muggin’” recording was indeed different than the location of the main recording session or if the preceding tunes were also recorded at the Lotos Club studio.

Review

"THRILL OF A ROMANCE"
(M-G-M)

“Esther Williams's equipment as an actress may function more effectively as time passes by, but her equipment as a swimmer leaves room for little, or no, improvement. Poised on diving board and disported in pretty Technicolor water, it is an asset of "Thrill of a Romance." She and Van Johnson comprise the romance in an original screenplay by Richard Connell and Gladys Lehman. Neither very original, nor much of a screenplay, the writers have tossed a ball of lightest fluff into the air and tried valiantly to keep it there. Richard Thorpe, in directorial collaboration, must have found the going-difficult for 105 minutes which suggests the result, while intermittently amusing and always handsome to look at, might have been better in less footage. If there had been less footage, there would have been less need to repeat identical material with such frequency. Miss Williams is like a poem while she swims, but she swims more often than the best interests of the picture demand. Lauritz Melchior, noted Metropolitan Opera star, sings with distinguished effect, but his debut is relied upon to bolster a sagging story for evident lack of other devices to keep matters proceeding. Miss Williams, a swimming teacher, marries Carleton G. Young, business tycoon, who leaves her on their wedding day for that big deal in Washington. Abandoned at the altar, or a couple of hours thereafter, the bride is understanding, disconsolate and innocently launches upon a flirtation with Johnson, war hero returned from the South Pacific. Her husband fails to return, as per promise, but the bride turns less disconsolate now as she and Johnson gradually fall in love.

36 The Billboard, June 23, 1945, p. 17
“Innocently lost in the woods, like babes, boy and girl return the following morning, find the husband back, in a rage sufficiently towering to seek an annulment. His convenient lawyer at that point advises the husband's divorce had never been cleared finally anyway. This clears Miss Williams, a bride in name only, and paves the convenient way for a reunion with Johnson. It is little enough substance to submit to the vigorous rubber band treatment indulged, and that is where and how the repetitive handling sneaks in. Despite its handicaps, "Thrill of a Romance" has its undeniable passages of charm, even if too far apart in their spacing. Melchior is one of its values. Miss Williams in bathing suit and pool is decidedly another. Johnson, of course, has box office magnetism, never to be discounted in these days. Likewise, Tommy Dorsey and his band cannot be bypassed, nor can a youngster named Helene Stanley, who is a kind of piano-and-song wizard at her tender age. Spring Byington and Henry Travers, as the absent-minded couple, are good for good moments. Production values are out of Metro's top drawer, where the "A" budgets are kept. Disciples of fluff will find this attraction geared to their enjoyment. It is a combination of jive and semi-grand opera, champion swimming, the personal draw of Johnson, the elaborateness and idyllic atmosphere of a plushy summer hotel, fine color photography against Western mountain country may be easily could be—generous enough to do the trick. This reviewer would not be at all surprised if this proves the fate of this Joe Pasternak production. Running time: 105 minutes. General audience classification. Release date not set.”

This is the first “Tommy Dorsey and Company” broadcast. The program was a 15-week summer replacement series for Tenderleaf Tea and Fleischmann's Bluebonnet Margarine (Standard Brands) “Eddie Bracken Show.” The program was broadcast in the Eastern Time Zone at 8:30-9:00 pm. There was one live NBC feed from Hollywood.

2 COMM’LS FORCE T. DORSEY TO NIX FITCH

“Tommy Dorsey was forced to forego a scheduled date on the Fitch Bandwagon radio show past Sunday (3) due to his two other commitments. He works the RCA-Victor program as m. c. and without his band at 4:30 pm and the Tenderleaf Tea Show with the orchestra at 8:30 pm both on NBC. Doing the Fitch show, too on the same day, would have been impossible. There would not have been enough time to do all three broadcasts with proper rehearsals. Henry Russell’s orchestra replaced Dorsey on Fitch.39

“Out of deference to the fact that Tommy Dorsey gambled with the owners of the 40Q Club, N. Y., in opening the spot as a name band room last February, it’s claimed that no other band1 is getting the financial deal he drew and will draw again next fall. Dorsey was given a $3,500 weekly guarantee plus the first, $3,000 in covers, plus 50% of all covers thereafter. Under this arrangement he took out well over $6,000 each week on his first date thereafter. Owners of the 400 are now setting its fall lineup. Woody Herman, who opens at the Pennsylvania Hotel, N. Y., July 16, was booked by the spot last week to open Nov. 29, the length of his stay to be governed by the demands of the N. Y. Paramount Theatre, which he plays thereafter. Herman is drawing $3,000 guarantee, plus the first $3,000 in covers, plus 50% thereafter.”

HORNE, GUIZAR, T. D., BORGE SET FOR H’W’D BOWL

Hollywood, June 18 – H. D. Hover, owner of Ciro’s and head man of the popular concerts at the Hollywood Bowl this summer, relates that contracts have been signed for Tommy Dorsey band supplemented to 50 pieces, Lena Horne, Victor Borge and very likely Tito Guizar to appear at his first concert June 27. The line-up of talent is among the most impressive to be booked for any popular concert to date and Hover plans on keeping up this caliber of big names for his Bowl concerts in July, August and September. He has already penned Carmen Miranda and Frank Sinatra to contracts for July and August appearances. The Dorsey, Borge and Guizar bookings were worked out with MCA. Lena Horne was secured through M-G-M Studios. Artie Shaw’s band will very likely do one of the concert dates for Hover. Tickets for the concerts will be popularly priced, ranging from $3 top to 75 cents.42

Record Reviews

By M. H. Orodenker

Duke Ellington - Tommy Dorsey (Victor)

The Minor Goes A Muggin’ – FT. Tonight I Shall Sleep – FT

There is more for musical merchandising than for musical appreciation in this newest record set-up of having on popular maestro appear as guest soloist with the band of another. For Duke Ellington’s appearance with Tommy Dorsey’s band, the boys beat out a solid riff opus by Sy Oliver, “The Minor Goes A Muggin’.” Instead of mood indigo ramblings at the keyboard, the Duke is called upon to knuckle out a hot chorus in chopping the ivories, also setting the opening and closing sequences for the side, The scoring is entirely Ellingtonia, and you have to look twice at the label to realize it is Dorsey’s band. By the same token, Duke repays the tribute by styling his band a la Dorsey lines as Mr. Tommy slides sweetly and sentimentally for Duke and Mercer Ellington’s sugar ballad “Tonight I Shall Sleep.” Of course, Dorsey’s band turns in a poor carbon of Ellington Style and vice-versa. The combination of Dorsey and Ellington on a single strip will sell both sides big on a novelty appeal for the phones.43

DORSEY’S CASINO NOW SIX-DAY-A-WEEK OP; REASON, ALCOHOL OK

Hollywood, July 2 – Casino Gardens, owned by the Dorsey brothers and Larry Finley, swings into a six-nights-per-week policy from strictly weekends, now that liquor sales have been officially okayed for the spot by the Santa Monica (California) city heads. Tommy Dorsey’s band inaugurated the new policy during their current run and when they move to Finley’s Mission Beach Ballroom, San Diego, California, July 17. Brother Jimmy’s band takes over at Casino Gardens. Glen Gray’s band may follow Jimmy Dorsey at Casino Gardens, although a definite contract is said not to b signed as yet. Gray is also definitely skedded for an engagement at Finley’s Mission Beach dancer this summer.45

RCA-VICTOR HAS ARTIST HEADACHES

“Hollywood, July 10 - RCA-Victor apparently is having trouble with its artists m wholesale lots. No less than Freddy Martin, Tommy Dorsey and Dinah Shore are currently at odds with the company. Dorsey and Martin assertedly have refused to record further until their beefs are ironed out. Dorsey won't answer questions on why he is at odds with Victor, but it's said to be over the failure of the company to give his recordings the amount of production he thinks they should get. And his contract with Victor expires near the end of this year. In Martin's case, his beef is over tunes assigned for him to record and the company's refusal to allow him to cut material he thinks will do his band some good. As for Dinah Shore, who hasn't had a hit disc since 'I'll Walk Alone,' she's burned plenty oyer the company s exploitation of Betty Jane Bonney, former vocalist with Les Brown. Victor has issued two discs by the latter.”

PENIL HOTEL N. Y., TO PUSH NEW BANDS IN MOVE TO COUNTER 400 CLUB ‘RAIDS’

“Pennsylvania Hotel, N. Y., one of the best prestige spots in the country for name bands, is considerably put out by the move of established leaders it has played repeatedly for years to the 400 Club, N. Y., where they can get double the coin. In the future, it's asserted, the hostelry Will concentrate on new and semi-established leaders as much as possible in an effort to build a new set of box office names for itself. That would mean the George Faxtons, Stan Kentons, etc. During the past months; the Penn has lost most of its better names to the 400. Both Woody Herman, who opened at the Penn Monday (16), and Jimmy Dorsey, are booked for the 400 next fall. Frankie Carle, whom the Penn took when his was a new and untried band, had a money argument with the hotel several months ago, but agreed to go back, He is now said to be dickering with the 400. Les Brown, who has played the Penn twice, has not been reported talking with the 400, but nevertheless, he is refusing to go into the Penn on schedule in December unless he gets more money. Of course, the Penn's leaning in the direction of young bands is not due to any peeve against the top-ranking maestros. Much of it is obviously based on the fact the top-rankers are booking away from it for the belter 400 Club salaries, leaving the Penn without much choice.”

48 Variety, July 18, 1945, p. 51
400 CLUB, N. Y., BAND DATES SET INTO 1946

“After months of switching, patching, etc., the fall lineup of bands at the 400 Club, N. Y., has finally been set up. Tommy Dorsey will open the room in place of Gene Krupa Sept. 6, holding for 11 weeks. Woody Herman, who opened at the Pennsylvania Hotel, N. Y., Monday (16), will follow on Nov. 22 for four weeks; He in turn will be followed by; Jimmy Dorsey, opening on Xmas Day, for 10 weeks. Deals with Sammy Kaye, Charlie Barnet and Frankie Carle are now being negotiated. There was one with Louis Prima, but he claims to have rejected it due to the fact that he’s the focal point of his band and the numerous large posts in the room would obscure vision of him. There was some argument for awhile as to whether Tommy Dorsey would play the 400 club or the Capitol theatre as his first fall date in N. Y. He will play the Capitol in December, probably opening around Christmas. Jimmy Dorsey’s band goes into the Capitol in November, immediately preceding the 400 job. This time tile Capitol’s bookers are seeking band to insert between the brothers. Last year they followed one another into the house.”

RADIO FOLLOW-UP

“Tommy Dorsey's Sunday evening show for Tender Leaf Tea has achieved in the few short weeks it has been on the air, a position as one of the highlights of that evening's listening. It consistently maintains the laugh pace with which it started the series with Keenan Wynn as guest, Dorsey's interpretation of lines and the work, of Stuart Foster, vocalist with his band, who turns out to be an unusually talented mimic, keep the show rolling at a bright pace. Of course, neither would be so effective without the swell writing jobs turned in by the writers of the show, who put out material so fast that it frequently goes by audiences, both studio and unseen. Dorsey's musical pacing has now been solved, solidly, too. He, as usual, incorporates a great deal of his own music, working it in in such a way that it often doesn't seem to disturb the script. For example, on the past Sunday's show, which was a fast and highly acceptable link in the chain of summer shows, there was a pirate bit with Janet Blair, guest. Dorsey's arrangement of ‘Hawaiian War Chant,’ solidly played, fitted in beautifully.”

TOMMY DORSEY STILL AT ODDS WITH VICTOR

“Hollywood, July 24 – Tommy Dorsey’s situation with RCA-Victor remains status quo. Leader is still flatly refusing to record for the disc manufacturer until certain objections he has nurtured for the past few weeks are eliminated. Among them is Dorsey’s claim that the company hasn't been giving him sufficient production, an attitude apparently based on his last royalty check. Dorsey is currently in San Diego, playing Larry Finley's Mission Beach Ballroom. Finley is a third partner in the Dorsey Brothers Casino Gardens Ballroom at Ocean Beach, California. Dorsey heads east late in August to play the 400 Club, N. Y., starting Sept. 6.”

The one gold star is for flight officer Bill Ehrenkrantz, former violinist who was killed in Italy last year. Other musicians represented include Sy Oliver, Joe Bushkin, Ziggy Elman, Nelson Riddle, Walter Benson, Johnny Holston, George Arus and Bruce Snyder (Down Beat photograph).
T. D. Nixes Tea Tunes

"Tommy Dorsey and the 400 Club, N. Y, cleaned up last week a slight difference of opinion over the playing of Saturday afternoon tea sessions. For a while there was a possibility that Dorsey wouldn't open the spot on schedule, Sept. 6. Club's owners want to run a 1:30 to 3:30 p.m session each Saturday afternoon. This is called for in Woody Herman's contract (he follows Dorsey) but T. D, wouldn't go for it and the idea was dropped as far as he's concerned."53

The First Heard LP dates this to be a September 16, 1945 (Sun) performance, which cannot be (no CCSB programs aired on Sundays). The recording was used December 3, 1945 as a replacement for Harry James Spotlight Bands 776. There are no announcements with the above tunes, though reference is made to the band’s engagement at the 400 Restaurant (perhaps the reserve recording was made there).

“Virtually every name performer in N. Y. showed up at the 400 Club, N. Y., Sunday (21) night at a party given to Tommy Dorsey on his 10th anniversary in the band business. Highlight of the proceedings was a broadcast over CBS, originally scheduled as a regular band remote, in which Frank Sinatra, Roy Rogers, Jo Stafford, Frankie Carle, Cab Calloway and Gene Krupa all took a hand by making one tune announcement apiece. A piece of a huge birthday cake was given to every customer. First cut was made by Dorsey's mother, in N. Y. from her Coast home. Both Sinatra and Krupa, on Dorsey's payroll in the past, worked out with the band. Krupa's entire band took over the stand for the last set of the evening. In addition to the above names, Vaughn Monroe, Ray McKinley, and Russ Morgan were in on the celebration.”

BACH OR BOOGIE FORMAT FOR RCA

“New RCA Sunday afternoon NBC show replacing the Tommy Dorsey airer bows in on Dec. 2. Format of show, headed by Raymond Paige, is based on a "Battle of Music" (swingsters vs. longhairs) show, Paige did back in 1941 on his "Forecast" series, when Albert Spalding was pilled against Frankie Hyers. The new half-hour program is a Paige-Manny Rosenberg package, with the latter in charge of production. Joe Bigelow and Frank Wilson of the J. Waller Thompson agency, which handle's the RCA account, look set for the scripting job, along with Henry Denker of the Transamerican agency. Paige will wield the baton for both the symphonic and jazz orchestral contingents, with. Kenny Delmar as the referee. In addition there will be a couple of spokesmen representing the "Bach or Boogie" factions, with George Frazier and Leonard Feather among those polled for the swingster segment and Sigmund Spaeth and Demes Taylor among those in line as the longhaired reps.”

T. DORSEY’S MEX VACASH

“Tommy Dorsey will take his first real vacation in years after he finishes eight days at Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook, Cedar Grove, N. J. Dec. 2. He intends going to Mexico City for a couple weeks prior to his opening at the Capitol Theatre, N. Y., scheduled for the week before or the week after Christmas. Dorsey is currently at the 400 Club. N. Y., being replaced Nov. 22 by Woody Herman. He opens at Dailey's Nov. 22.”

400 CLUB N. Y. NIXES 300G OFFER

"Nat Moss and his partners in the 400 Club, N. Y., name band spot that his stirred up considerable interest in the field because of the prices it is paying top bands, were offered $300,000 recently for their interest in the operation. Source or the offer is undisclosed, but it was rejected. Last spring, when the "400" opened there was wide speculation among bandsmen as to whether it would make the grade in, paying such high prices and being off the beaten track. With that kind of money; dangled before its owners, it apparently is there to stay. Its grosses, with top names, stick as the current Tommy Dorsey; are somewhere between $25,000 and $30,000 weekly.\textsuperscript{62}

INSIDE ORCHESTRAS – MUSIC

"Tommy Dorsey's Sentimentalists -quartet were recorded in a unique manner last week during a disking session at RCA-Victor studios in N. Y. They delivered vocals while seated around a mike. This unusual method evoked surprise from many kibitzing the session. Dorsey explained that the idea stemmed from the relaxed manner in which the group demonstrated a new arrangement to him around a table at the 400 Club, N. Y., one night. He figured that if the quartet could relax that much sitting around a table, the same feeling could be achieved sitting around a mike.\textsuperscript{63}

SINATRA BACKING BUDDY RICH BAND?

"Buddy Rich finally left Tommy Dorsey's orchestra, last week, to build a band of his own. It is now in the process of being gathered and will debut sometime around mid-December. It's reported, but unconfirmed, that Frank Sinatra has a hand in Rich's financial and management setup. Alvin Stohler, who was with Charlie Spivak, has replaced Rich. His first work with "Dorsey was at an RCA-Victor recording session last."\textsuperscript{64}

SINATRA PUTS UP 25G TO BACK BUDDY RICH

“Frank Sinatra and Buddy Rich signed contracts late last week under which the singer will underwrite the drummer's new band and act as its "adviser." Sinatra agreed to put up $25,000 to get Rich started, and the band goes into rehearsal within the next couple weeks. Music Corp. of America will book the band. After, rehearsal periods are over. Rich's combo will go on a two-week cruise of one-nighters and then possibly go into the Terrace Room, Newark, new name band spot which opened last night (Tues.) with Jimmy Dorsey. Roy Eldridge assertedly is being dickered for the new group. Rich left Tommy Dorsey's orchestra two weeks ago, being replaced by Alvin Stohler.”

The surviving disc of this session is located in the GMA Walter C. Scott Collection and has been digitized for preservation and presentation by Karl Pearson. During the second selection, Dorsey commented on the soloists, “Yeah, Johnny Potoker, beat it out on the old piano, boy ... Keep on playing, Buddy DeFranco, blow that clarinet, boy ... It's Boomie Richmond on the tenor saxophone, on his first V-Disc appearance with old TD and his band. Blow it down, Boomie, blow it down.”

“Blues No More” was incorrectly identified as “Sent For You Yesterday (And Here You Come Today)” in “V-Discs” (Sears). Tommy Dorsey recorded additional V-Discs during this period, which remain a mystery so far as dates and personnel are concerned. Richard Sears’ V-Discs lists the following as unidentified.

“Song Of India” is from the April 17, 1944 Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands (GMA Tommy Dorsey Vol. 1, Chapter 10, 1944)

“Boogie Woogie” is from Lang-Worth transcription AS 309 (GMA Tommy Dorsey Vol. 1, Chapter 12, 1946)

T. D. WILL CARRY OWN ENGINEER FOR REMOTES

“Tommy Dorsey: intends—to” carry his own radio broadcast engineer as soon as an ex-member of his band gets out of service. He feels, as do most other leaders, that to have the same man handling his remotes every time he broadcasts—an engineer familiar with the band's arrangements—can improve these performances tremendously. Accordingly, Jimmy Blake, former trumpeter with the band, now a Navy radioman, and an instructor at a New England base, will rejoin the band for that purpose. He'll be fully licensed for the job. For years bandleaders have recognized the problem of proper monitoring of broadcasts. A good engineer can aid a remote greatly and, by the same token, a poor one can ruin an otherwise good band. There have been various attempts at overcoming the problem. Some leaders assign men familiar with their arrangements to stick close to engineers during broadcasts and warn them of highs and lows coming so they can be properly compensated. Most leaders, however, trust to luck for want of a better way out.”72

TOMMY DORSEY, MCA IN TIFF AGAIN, LEADER TELLS AGCY. TO HALT BOOKINGS

“Tommy Dorsey and Music Corp. of America are in another of the periodic disputes that have occurred between them during past years. Several weeks ago, Dorsey advised the agency not to submit him further for bookings, presumably beyond the Capitol theatre, N. Y. date he will begin following his brother Jimmy's band, current at that house. Run is to open just before Christmas. Exactly what has come up between Dorsey and MCA is unknown, and no one connected with either the leader or the agency is disposed to talk about the dispute. Just the bare fact that Dorsey dispatched a wire to David (Sonny) Werblin about three weeks ago, advising of his attitude, has become known. Dorsey, along with virtually every other top name leader connected with any agency, has had arguments with MCA before, both minor and violent. He has been with that agency close to 10 years. Leader is currently in Mexico City on vacation.”73

CAPITOL, N. Y.

Tommy Dorsey Orch (17) in lh Sentimentalists i4), Stuart Foster, Charlie Shavers; Slate Bros. (3) with Fay Carroll. George Prentice; “They Were Expendable” (M-G-M)

“Tommy Dorsey at the Capitol with the smallest orch he’s had in some years is figured to give the house a potent holiday box office. He’s discarded his strings in favor of a more mobile unit, which can hit the audience mark without blasting the pewholders out of the theatre. TD is virtually the entire stage-show. Sole outside support comes from the Slate Bros, with Fay Carroll and George Prentice, both acts being brought in for entertainment values rather than any additional box office. With the instrumentation of seven brass, five reeds and four rhythm, Dorsey gives out with a groovy session which is held down because of length of the film, ‘They Were Expendable.’ He’s liberal in giving time to his soloists, Buddy De Franco, clarinetist and Charlie Shavers, trumpeter and with his own contribs at the sliphorn more than satisfies the audience. Vocals are by his four femme group, the Sentimentalists, a nicely begowned group, whose arrangements sometimes border on dissonances, but cut a healthy groove. Stuart Foster, seen here previously with Ina Ray Hutton’s orch, had to overcome a too-flowery intro from TD Maestro naming the soloists who hit big time - after leaving – the band (Sinatra. Haymes, Leonard) has the audience expecting a super- crooner with the result that the femmes start with the audible swoon stuff as soon as he's on. Its a big item to overcome, but he soon impresses with smooth renditions of ‘That's for Me,’ ‘Symphony’, and ‘Ol' Man River’ for a hearty exit. Slate Bros. (3) have some diverting comedy in their penny arcade bit, wherein they give impressions of the various devices found in that kind of emporium, but their knockabout seems somewhat out of date. They’re aided by Fay Carroll, a stunner, whose straight piping - and not bad - is a peg for further comedies. They pass muster. George Prentice seems to be a good booking for this time of year when juvenes flock to the theatre because of the Christmas vacation. His Punch-and-Judy routine entertains the adults as well.”

Capitol, New York
(Reviewed Thursday Evening, Dec. 20)

“Tommy Dorsey’s crew displays a heftier wallop than the last time it worked this house. Ork spends a lot more time on show presentation than it previously did. Dorsey himself goes to work using his trombone a number of times, even taking a full chorus and collecting some great palming. Band (16) preems with ‘Opus No. 1’ and segues into ‘Sunny Side of the Street’ (a slick Sy Oliver arrangement) which really sends them. The next, ‘Boogie Woogie,’ was well done but didn’t rate too high. However, it gave the spotlight to Johnny Potoker, piano, who made that keyboard jump. Band has two production numbers that win solid returns. The first is Brahms’ ‘Lullaby,’ in which TD does some slick lip work. The second is the old jumper, ‘Well Git It.’ In latter everybody worked. When sax man was down front sidemen made with the hands with such infectious results that the house joined too. The number is plenty exciting and the way the boys give out with it added to the fever pitch. Charlie Shavers just about stopped everything cold with his trumpet. The boy fingers those valves so fast and gets such a clean, sharp tone that it is almost unbelievable. His ‘Summertime’ was solid all the way. This reviewer once caught Shavers in a duet with Buddy Rich (drums) that had everything. Adding this to the present show is suggested. The band carries the Sentimentalists (4 girls) who look okay in their red and gold gowns. Kids do well in the harmony department and in backing Stuart Foster, the boy band singer. The gals could also be added to the “Lullaby” number. Their vocal background would add to the production. Stuart Foster got a terrific intro from TD. In fact, Dorsey is one of the few ork leaders who gives credit to everybody. In this case he compared Foster to Sinatra, Haymes, et. al. The boy has improved since last caught. He has more assurance. Opened with ‘That’s For Me,’ followed with ‘Door Will Open’ and finished with a great ‘Ol’ Man River.’ In which he really opened up. Called back and delivered ‘Symphony’ running off to a big hand. Pic, ‘They Were Expendable.’ Biz good.”

Tommy Dorsey (Victor)

Never Too Late To Pray – FT, Chicago – FT; VC

Without stirring up a Holy Roller pitch, Tommy Dorsey gives a relaxed and smooth spinning for Willard Robinson and Fud Livingston’s rhythm spiritual, “Never Too Late To Pray,” and it’s a pray meetin’ in a more reserved manner as Stuart Foster and the Sentimentalists lift their voices in revival spirit. The real rhythmic punch is applied to Fred Fisher’s “Chicago” plastic, with the band providing plenty of rock to the Windy City song, as Sy Oliver and the Sentimentalists give a lowdown sure to the lyric.

For brighter spinning in the phonos fans will get their nickels kick from “Chicago.”

TD RENEWS VICTOR PACT FOR THREE YEARS

New York, Dec. 24 – Tommy Dorsey signed a three-year renewal of his RCA Victor disking contract the other day, thereby bringing a measure of calm to some troubled waters. The firm has been in the wars lately because of production difficulties, drawing vigorous squawks and dire threats from Dorsey and other top sellers who threatened to jump ship unless their quarterly statements took on a healthier hue. Because it has found it next to impossible to goose production, RCA Victor has been forced to prune its roster of artists (see “The Billboard,” November 17) and recently added the King Sisters to the rapidly swelling list of ex-Victorites. The Kings are slated to do their stuff at Capitol henceforth. Dorsey’s signing, at what reported to be TD’s traditionally “best terms in the industry” is taken as an indication that Victor is now in a position to give assurances to top artists that it can either (1) guarantee them sufficient production and distribution to make a contract worth their while, or (2) pay them enough coin to make them stop worrying too much about distribution during these troubled reconversion days.

“Tommy Dorsey and RCA-Victor have arrived at the terms of a new recording contract between them, which will be formally signed sometime between today (Wed.) and the end of this week. New agreement, calling for terms that neither party will as yet disclose, is for three years effective next Tuesday (1) and replaces an old one that doesn't expire until April, 1947, inclusive of a one-year option. Only angle about the new contract known is that it calls for 30 sides annually. Before re-signing with Victor, Dorsey was known to be dickering with the new Metro recording company, headed by Frank Walker, who as former head of Victor, signed Dorsey to the contract the new one will displace. There have been a number of reports about Dorsey's talks with Metro about going over to that company, following the expiration of his deal with Victor. One of them cited terms Dorsey is said to have asked Metro, of a guarantee of $250,000 annually. This kind of money would put Dorsey into the same recording coin class with Bing Crosby, who is guaranteed $300,000 annually by Decca. Dorsey at one time had been seriously considering throwing in with Metro. This was at the time the recording companies and the American Federation of Musicians were at odds, with no new disks being made He would have been the backbone of a new Metro firm then. It didn't come off.78
