

FUN SUMMER SINGING OPPORTUNITIES!

Shape-Note Workshop

Beginners and Experienced Singers Welcome!

Saturday, June 11th
9:30 - 11:30 A.M.

First Congregational Church
In Boulder at Pine and Broadway

Shape-note or fasola music is a traditional practice of vigorous social singing dating from Colonial New England, still popular across the country. Hundreds of short four-part pieces are preserved in tune books such as The Original Sacred Harp. Music books and refreshments provided.

The Great American Sing-Along™

Sunday, July 3rd
3:00 - 4:00 P.M.

Westview Presbyterian Church
In Longmont at 15th and Hover

Come sing your heart out to a diverse menu of songs: silly, romantic, historical and patriotic, all assisted by volunteer song leaders and narrated by AMRC Director, Tom Riis. A family-friendly event, fun for all ages and music abilities. Free parking and free lemonade.
