While advisors are here to help, you are an adult now!
It will be your responsibility to reach out and book an appointment if you need assistance.
What are they?
• Assessments that tell us more about you!

Where Do I Take Them?
• Access and complete all placements through Buff Portal

When Do I Need To Take Them By?
• AT LEAST ONE WEEK before your enrollment window

Results
• Do not count toward any grades or degree requirements
• Do not show on your official transcript
Most first-year students are pre-enrolled into 1 or more classes in their first semester based on their declared major.

- Automatically added to your schedule in mid-June
- You can make changes to your pre-enrolled major class(es) during your enrollment window.

Note: Connect with your RAP or other special program coordinator (if applicable) to adjust your pre-enrolled RAP or other special program class(es)

Are you in a Special Program?
These programs may also pre-enroll you in a class(es)
- ROTC
- McNeill
- Norlin Scholars
- Presidential Leadership Class (PLC)
- Miramontes Arts & Sciences Program (MASP)
- Living Learning Community (LLC)
- & More

Are you in a RAP?
- Opportunity to take a first-year course with 20 students
- Monitor your CU email inbox for request from RAP coordinator to select RAP course from listed options, and you will be pre-enrolled in one of your preferences.
- Need help picking a RAP class? Contact your academic advisor!
To see the pre-enrolled classes for your major, scroll through the following slides until you find your major.

Open-option students will not have any major-specific pre-enrolled classes.

*Essential Tool – you will use this throughout your time at CU Boulder!

- Most accurate and updated progress towards your degree
- Serves as a checklist and keeps track of:
  - General education and major classes/credits
  - Transfer Credits (AP/IB/Dual/Concurrent Enrollment)
  - GPA/Grades
- Can be used to explore major/minor/certificate interests

How do I run my own degree audit? Let's take a minute to practice!

1. Log onto Buff Portal
2. Click on Menu tab (3 lines icon top-left)
3. Click on Registration & Advising or use the Search tool

Select:
- Degree Audit →
- Run a Degree Audit →
- Run Declared Programs → View Audit
When you pull up your audit, you should see your major listed. The example below shows a major in Atmospheric and Oceanic Sciences (ATOC).

If you are an Open Option (OPNO) student or are interested in another major outside of A&S, please follow instructions to run a What-If degree audit (see below).

Goal to Graduate: All Green Check Marks

General Breakdown of Requirements in the Degree Audit

• Minimum Requirements for all A&S Students
  • 120 Credit Hours
  • 2.0 Cumulative GPA

• General Education Requirements (Gen Ed)
  • Classes all students need to take regardless of major
  • May see AP/IB/Transfer credits apply in Gen Eds
  • Make sure to check with your advisor about how your major requirements overlap with Gen Eds!

• Major Requirements
• Electives

A&S General Education Distribution Requirement
All courses must be completed with a D- or better

No more than two lower-division (1000- and 2000-level) courses with the same course prefix may count towards the Distribution requirement. At least four different course prefixes must be represented in a student’s Distribution requirement coursework.

- Arts and Humanities - 12 semester hours.
- Social Sciences - 12 semester hours.
- Natural Sciences - 12 semester hours.
  A course with a lab component or a stand-alone lab course will also fulfill the NS lab requirement.

A&S General Education NS Lab Requirement
All courses must be completed with a D- or better

- Natural Sciences lab:

A&S General Education Diversity Requirement

ENROLLMENT WINDOW FAQ

Q: When do I register for classes?
During your 2-day Enrollment Window

Q: How long is my Enrollment Window?
2 Days!
Opens at 8:30am (Mountain Time) on the first day
Closes at 4:30pm (Mountain Time) on the second day

*For best chances of getting in your top-choice courses, you will need to register for classes as soon as your window OPENS at 8:30am (MT)

Q: How do I sign up?
Buff Portal →
New Student Welcome Card →
Register for Classes →
Sign up for an Enrollment Window

Q: Which enrollment window do I pick?
Most seats will be equally distributed amongst the enrollment windows. This means you are registering for classes with other students in your same enrollment window!

Pick an enrollment window that works best with your schedule (e.g., working, traveling, waiting for AP/IB scores). If you are traveling, consider if you will have good Wi-Fi, are accounting for the time zone difference, etc.

Q: What do I do if my sign up is blocked?
Make sure you have completed ‘Advising’ and ‘Enrolling in Classes’ challenge questions from the Online Experience on Canvas to select your window!
NEXT STEPS AND TO-DOS: USE BUFF PORTAL AS YOUR GUIDE!
