

Planning Committee motion on the formation of a Teaching/Clinical Faculty Personnel Committee

The Planning Committee moves that the Arts and Sciences Faculty Senate establish a Teaching/Clinical Faculty Personnel Committee (TCFPC) as a standing committee of the ASFS. The TCFPC will be constituted of experts in teaching (primarily Teaching/Clinical Full Professors, but some Full Professors, as well) and chaired by a Teaching Full Professor. The TCFPC will evaluate promotion and non-reappointment cases in the teaching and clinical faculty ranks and provide recommendations to the Divisional Deans. Until the number of Full Teaching Professors reaches a sufficient level, some Associate Teaching Professors will serve on the TCFPC to evaluate promotions from Assistant Teaching Professor to Associate Teaching Professor. All Divisions of the College of Arts and Sciences will be represented on the TCFPC. TCFPC members will be appointed for staggered three-year terms.
