Captioning Policy

Captioning Policy

- ICT Accessibility Standards
- When does video need to be captioned?
  - Public (academic, strategic, or representing dept.)
  - Non-public academic accommodation

Old Main is CU's oldest building, where the university was founded in 1876.

0:33 / 3:19
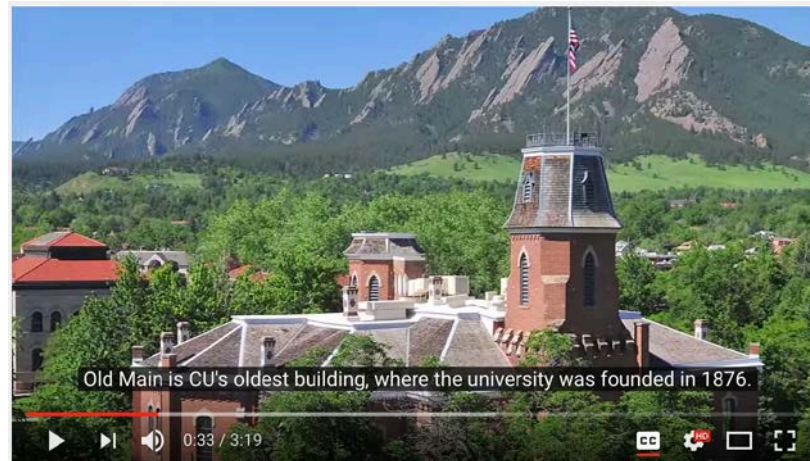

ICT Accessibility Standards

- "Departments have a responsibility to ensure closed-captioning is available on materials related to their program and/or service for which access is unrestricted (e.g., video content available to the general public). Official video media content that represents the university and to which access is unrestricted must be captioned."

Captioning Service

- Accommodation-related requests (free!)

- Facilitate captioning for all clients (faculty, staff, students)

- Tutorials, training, resources, consulting

Captioning Form

Digital Signage

- What is a digital sign?

- When does it need captions?
    - Cable / broadcast content
    - Public digital display (with audio)
    - Digital display soliciting action from user (with audio)

Digital Signage

- "…Any broadcast or cable television content displayed on campus must have closed captioning enabled."

- "If Departments are using televisions or digital screens to display any materials related to their program and/or service for which access is unrestricted (e.g. video content available to the general public), or the intent of the video solicits some form of action on behalf of the user, the content must have closed captions …"
