

Comparison of the current and proposed Standing Rules

Current Standing Rules (taken from the BFA website Feb. 2016 http://www.colorado.edu/bfa/bylaws/standing-rules )	Proposed Standing Rules, version 2017-03-02	Comments
Overview The governing documents of the Boulder Faculty Assembly include a set of Bylaws and a companion set of Standing Rules. Article numbers in the two documents mirror each other. For example, Article II of both the Bylaws and the Standing Rules govern the BFA election process. The Bylaws are generally substantive, while the Standing Rules are generally procedural. If the two documents are inconsistent in any respect the Bylaws are controlling. Where the two documents are silent with regard to matters of procedure, the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order is controlling.	Overview The governing documents of the Boulder Faculty Assembly include a set of Bylaws and a companion set of Standing Rules. Article numbers in the two documents mirror each other. For example, Article II of both the Bylaws and the Standing Rules govern the BFA election process. The Bylaws are generally substantive, while the Standing Rules are generally procedural. If the two documents are inconsistent, the Bylaws take precedence. Where the Bylaws and Standing Rules do not address matters of procedure, issues will be resolved according to the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.	Overview Clarifies the order in which the Bylaws, Standing Rules, and Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised are consulted.
Introduction The Standing Rules of the Boulder Faculty Assembly describe procedures and practices necessary to implement the Bylaws of the Boulder Faculty Assembly. The numbering of the Articles of the Bylaws and the Articles of the Standing Rules correspond. Not all Articles of the Bylaws have implementing Standing Rules. The Standing Rules can be amended as provided by the Bylaws of the Boulder Faculty Assembly.	Introduction The Standing Rules of the Boulder Faculty Assembly describe procedures and practices necessary to implement the Bylaws of the Boulder Faculty Assembly. Remaining sections of previous Article II Elections will be renumbered.

	academic unit. There are no term limits for these unit representatives. b) All Traditional and Other Units shall have at least one representative. c) Any request for a new Assembly seat shall be presented to the BFA Executive Committee. The BFA Executive Committee may then forward the request to the full Assembly for final approval requiring a two-thirds majority vote. d) Fourteen at-large representatives shall be elected by and from members of the Faculty Senate for three-year staggered terms. No more than six of these members shall be from the College of A&amp;S and no more than six shall be from any other School, College, Institute, or the Boulder Campus Libraries. Four of the at-large seats shall be reserved for instructors, but no more than six shall be held by instructors. e) Two retired faculty members shall be elected for three-year terms by and from the CU Retired Faculty Association. f) No more than two members from any type of recognized academic unit may serve at one time as elected representatives to the Assembly. Exception: three faculty from a single recognized academic unit may serve at one time as elected representatives when the Assembly Chair is a member of that unit. g) If a recognized academic unit representative is unable to complete any portion of their term of office, that unit is responsible for filling the resulting vacancy. Section 3. For determination of quorum, at the start of each academic year the working Assembly membership shall be established by a simple count of named and recognized Traditional and Other Unit representatives.	ALERT - This is new!
