WHEREAS BFA motions BFA-X--M-033009, Class Conflicts, and BFA-X-M-030810.2, Class Conflicts and Club Sports address class conflicts specific to Intercollegiate Athletics and Club Sports, and

WHEREAS other extracurricular University-related student events may also create class conflicts,

BE IT MOVED that the BFA affirms the following practices regarding conflicts between classes and all extracurricular University-related student events (e.g., intercollegiate varsity sports, club sports, band, cheer squad, music/art/dance/theatre performances, ROTC, etc.):

• For any conflict that arises between extracurricular University-related student events and academic expectations, instructors have full authority to decide whether and/or how to accommodate those conflicts.

• While an instructor has the right to refuse to allow make-ups or other accommodations, he or she is permitted to provide such accommodations.

Therefore, faculty are encouraged to include a statement in their course syllabus that outlines the course policy and student responsibilities regarding conflicts with extracurricular University-Related student events (see sample syllabus language, below).

Further MOVED that:

• This motion statement be shared with all teaching faculty at CU-Boulder by the Office of Undergraduate Education before classes start each semester.

• This motion supersedes previous motions specific to Intercollegiate Athletics (BFA-X--M-033009), and Club Sports Class Conflicts (BFA-X-M-030810.2).

SAMPLE SYLLABUS LANGUAGE

Students formally affiliated with extracurricular University-related activities are required to communicate in writing with the instructor about potential conflicts within the first week of class or as soon as the student learns of a conflicting event. This deadline is established in order to provide students with time to change their course schedule if necessary. Instructors are not obligated to accommodate any potential conflicts, but may, at their own discretion, allow reasonable accommodations for these absences.

From the BFA Student Affairs Committee: February 12, 2018
Approved by the BFA Intercollegiate Athletics Committee: Feb 23, 2018