

UEP Scholars Conference Intern Application Form

Please type.

Name _____ Major(s) _____ Planned completion of B.A. /B.S (date) _____

Cell phone _____

CU e-mail _____

Date of birth _____

Student ID # _____

Employee ID # _____
(You have this only if you have been employed at UCB)

Do you currently have a job on or off campus? _____ Yes _____ No
If yes, where:

Hours per week: _____

Do you have any other CU appointments or job commitments (paid or unpaid) for the coming academic year (summer, fall, spring)?

During the current academic year are you _____ graduating? _____ expecting other major events? (Please explain.)

What other information that could be relevant to this application would you like to share?

Please note: The Scholars Conference Interns receive a Norlin Scholarship at a higher rate than other Norlin Scholars. In addition to the responsibilities associated with these positions, students must fulfill all other Norlin Scholar requirements in order to maintain the scholarship and the position.

SCI Applicants

Please provide brief answers to the following:

1. In what ways have you seen yourself grow—both personally and academically—since your first semester at CU? What kinds of resources and experiences have supported that growth? In what ways would you like to continue to grow?
2. What skills do you bring to a team? Describe an example of an experience you've had working collaboratively with peers to reach a common goal. What type of issues came up on the team? How successful were you in reaching your goals?
3. What about being an SCI might be most challenging for you? In what ways do you like to challenge yourself?
4. What questions do you have about being a Norlin Scholar SCI?
5. Draft a brief e-mail inviting a CU professor to be the keynote speaker for the 10th Annual UEP Scholars Conference.
6. Optional: What ideas do you have for enlivening / improving this year's Scholars Conference? (What would you like to see happen – and how can we achieve it?)

Please type your answers (on this or a separate sheet) and turn in with your application to james.f.walker@colorado.edu by the due date listed in the announcement.