

2017–18 Mandatory Fee Descriptions (charged per semester)

A

A & S Tech (ASSET) Fee $1.32 per credit hour per semester

Applies to all classes in the College of Arts and Sciences regardless of a student's major or program of study. Arts and Sciences Support for Educational Technology supports development and delivery of instruction in the college of Arts and Sciences. Approved by the Board of Regents in 2008.

Arts and Cultural Enrichment Fee $10 per semester

Supports on-campus performing arts. Provides no charge or reduced cost admission for students to museums, performances, etc. Student supported, approved by administration and Board of Regents in 1995.

Athletic Fee $28.50 per semester

Supports quality intercollegiate athletics programs and reduces student ticket prices. Students carrying total credit hours of 3 or less and graduate status D & E students do not pay the Athletic Fee. Not charged during the summer. Originally mandated by Board of Regents in 1980.

C

Campus Care Health Plan $175 (<https://bursar.colorado.edu/tuition-fees/health-insurance/>)

Capital Construction Fee $85, $170 per semester

$85 for 6 or fewer credit hours

$170 for 7 or more

Supports five capital construction projects: Law School, ATLAS, Business School, IT Infrastructure and Visual Arts. Twenty percent of the revenue will be allocated to need-based financial aid. Student bill passed in 2004. Effective fall 2006.

Career Services Fee $12 per semester

Charged to all Boulder campus degree-seeking students except law and graduate status D students (doctoral candidates). Provides students with help deciding on a major, professional career counseling, a resource center, skills presentations, video practice interviews, recommendation files, online listings of internship and career opportunities, on-campus interviewing, career and internship fairs, and more. Not charged during the summer. Board of Regents approved in 2001. Increased from $9 to $12 effective fall 2014.

Course Fees (vary)

Academic units (e.g. schools, colleges, departments or programs) may charge course fees related to the administrative costs for specific academic courses. Course fees are used for costs directly related to the course for which they are charged, charged to all sections of the same course, and cover the unusual costs for those course offerings. Each academic unit is required to establish a Student Advisory Committee of at least five students from that unit, at least one of whom is recommended by the appropriate student organization or government, for the purpose of reviewing the fee proposal. Fees are permanent unless otherwise indicated. See list of course fees. (<https://bursar.colorado.edu/tuition-fees/fees-description/course-fees/>)

- Course fees range from $5 to $1,500 per semester.
- Students may be charged multiple course fees.
- Students may be charged both course fees and program fees for the same class.
- Course fees are sometimes cross-referenced with different classes. For example, you may be enrolled in an Environmental Studies (ENVS) course and be charged a geography course fee (GEOG).
- If you see course fees added and removed from your tuition and fee bill, it is likely because you added and dropped classes.
