		MEDIA, COMM & INFORMATION		MUSIC		COLLEGE OPPORTUNITY FUND $116 per credit hour per semester  The College Opportunity Fund (COF), created by the Colorado legislature, provides a stipend to eligible undergraduates paying in-state tuition. The stipend pays a portion of total tuition for undergraduate students who attend a Colorado public institution or a participating private institution. The stipend is paid to the institution on a per-credit-hour basis, and the credit-hour amount is set annually by the General Assembly. Students must complete the COF application on the official state College Opportunity Fund website and authorize use of funds to receive COF. Students who do not complete both of these steps will be responsible for paying the total in-state tuition.

Rates published by the Bursar's Office are approved by the Board of Regents annually in accordance with the level of cash fund appropriations set for the university by the Colorado General Assembly. The Board of Regents reserves the right to change tuition and fees at any time. Tuition charged is based on residency classification, number of credit hours and your college, school or program. Fractional credit hours outside of flat rate tuition are assessed the average rate between the two closest credit hours. Dual degrees are charged the higher rate. These rates apply to Boulder Main Campus only. Classes taken on different campuses and Continuing Education have separate tuition, fees and billing. Rates and deadlines may be subject to change.

<sup>1</sup> Beginning in Summer 2024, students enrolled in 1–3 credit hours will pay tuition per credit hour instead of a flat rate. See CU Boulder Today - Change in tuition.

<sup>2</sup> The student share of tuition is a flat rate between 12 and 18 credit hours. Total tuition continues to increase at the same increment for each hour over 18.

<sup>3</sup> 12 credit hours per semester is considered full-time to receive financial aid. Graduating in four year requires enrollment in at least 15 credit hours per semester.
