PROFESSIONAL GOAL

I am working towards a PhD in finance at the Leeds Business School in University of Colorado, and I intend to go into research and academia after completion. My research interests include consumer/investor behavior, investor decision making, influences of technology and online asymmetry in household finance.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Cornell University Fall 2019
Research Assistant of Dr. Byoung-Hyoun Hwang (Associate Professor of Finance at the Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management in the Cornell SC Johnson College of Business) – conducted research and analysis on US securities through Bloomberg historical data.

Fund Manager, Reiman Fund, University of Denver, CO Summer 2019
Successfully managed Reiman fund (worth about $300,000) as part of a Finance course at the University of Denver.

ICON Advisors, Inc., Greenwood Village, CO Summer 2019
Financial Analyst Intern – conducted research, portfolio and database management.

Northwest Mutual, Denver, CO Summer 2019
Financial Services Intern – experience with sales, and life and health insurance.

Financial Designs Ltd., Greenwood Village, CO Winter 2018
Shadowed Keith Fisher, Principal, who handles insurance and asset investment for the ultra-affluent (by applying mathematical modeling).

University of Colorado, Boulder, CO

2016 – 2017

Worked at the Department of Admissions (as a Freshman student employee), handled important student information and maintained the databases.

CERTIFICATES

Licensed to sell Life, Accident, and Health Insurance in Colorado (2019).
