

DILS Directed Independent Language Study

Tibetan

Colloquial Tibetan I

TBTN 1110 (2) | MWF 8-8:50am

Provides a thorough introduction to the colloquial Tibetan language, emphasizing speaking and listening in the Lhasa dialect. Trains students in basic conversations and the idiomatic and syntactical features of Tibetan through drills and dialogues.

Modern Literary Tibetan I

TBTN 1210 (2) | MWF 9:10-10am

Provides a thorough introduction to the modern literary Tibetan, emphasizing reading and writing. Trains students in the Tibetan script, elementary grammar, and reading authentic materials, including Tibetan maxims, pop song lyrics, and children's stories.

These courses are made possible with funding from a U.S. Department of Education UISFL grant.

Center for Asian Studies
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Anderson Language and Technology Center
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Email | cas@colorado.edu

Visit | colorado.edu/cas/academics/courses

