

Getches-Wilkinson Center for Natural Resources, Energy, and the Environment

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO LAW SCHOOL

GWC Research Assistant

Position Overview

The Getches-Wilkinson Center for Natural Resources, Energy and the Environment (GWC) is seeking Colorado Law students interested in natural resources, energy, and environmental law to serve as the GWC Research Assistant.

Key benefits include:

- Legal research and writing, supported by GWC staff, focused on real-world challenges in water law, public lands, climate change and natural resources as applied to the American West.
- Mentorship from faculty and GWC staff and access to GWC's network of leaders on the Advisory Council.
- Opportunities for original scholarship and publication.

Eligibility

Open to currently enrolled 2L or 3L students at Colorado Law.

Payment Details

- This is a part-time position at $21/hr for fall and may continue into the spring semester pending funding availability. Scheduling is flexible to accommodate other commitments.
- Work-study is preferred. Interested students should apply for work-study funding. Work-study information is available here: <https://www.colorado.edu/studentemployment/work-study>

Application Instructions

Submit the following as a single PDF to Annie Carlozzi (annie.carlozzi@colorado.edu) by Sunday, August 16, 2026, at 11:59pm.

- Cover letter explaining your interest in the position and your optimum hours
- Resume.
- Law school transcript (unofficial accepted).
- Writing sample.

Applications will be received by GWC staff and an interview may be scheduled. The selected Research Assistant will be notified by early September 2026.

Contact Information

For further information, please contact GWC Assistant Director Annie Carlozzi at annie@colorado.edu.