

Dr. Sonia DeLuca Fernández is the Senior Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at the University of Colorado Boulder and reports to the Chancellor. In her role, DeLuca Fernández provides leadership for strategically advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion using an intersectional, social justice approach. A certified change management professional, she works with community and campus constituents, including the Inclusion, Diversity and Excellence in Academics (IDEA) Council, to operationalize DEI-focused recommendations and mobilize leaders.

Before joining CU Boulder, DeLuca Fernández held various appointments, working in DEI, assessment, multicultural affairs, commuter student services, and student activities. She earned a Ph.D. in higher education from the University of Michigan, a M.A. in social foundations of education, and a B.A. in African American Studies, both from the University of Iowa. She loves to cook and enjoys exploring Boulder.
