Hosted by the 35th Annual Conference for the Committee on the History and Philosophy of Science

Organizer: Heather Demarest (heather.demarest@colorado.edu)

Programme Chair: David Ingram (david.ingram@york.ac.uk)

Funding generously provided by the Foster Endowment, the President's Fund for the Humanities, the Research and Innovation Office, and the Philosophy of Time Society; Coffee generously provided by Laughing Goat at Norlin Library

June 24-26, 2019, on CU Boulder's beautiful main campus (rooms are all in Eaton Humanities Building)

Coffee:

- The Laughing Goat (coffee shop), in the library (adjacent to Humanities). Note that the coffee shop is on the east side of the building. [Closed Tuesday morning until 10am for water maintenance.]
- Pekoe Sip House (coffee shop), located in the Atlas building.

Lunch:

- There are many excellent food options for lunch on 'the hill' which is directly west of campus (toward the mountains).
- Also, Pearl St. Mall is a popular destination with slightly more expensive lunch options.

Hiking:

- Boulder is well known for its beautiful hiking trails!
- Hiking in the early morning is almost always guaranteed to be beautiful with excellent weather.
- Hiking in the afternoon is usually fine, though be sure to watch the weather. Get off the mountains when there is lightning!
- Boulder is over a mile high! Wear sunscreen, drink lots of water, and give yourself extra time to account for the altitude.
- Many excellent trails begin from Chautauqua (at 9th and Baseline).
- Red Rocks is also a popular, short hike with views of Boulder, up against dramatic rock outcroppings. (Accessible also via underpass from Eben G. Fine Park.)
