

One possible, sample outline for a major program in Ancient History, Art and Archaeology for a student beginning the study of the language in the sophomore year is outlined below:

Sophomore Year Courses/Hours for Major

CLAS 1014-1024: Beginning Latin 1 and 2 0

CLAS 1509: Trash and Treasure 4

CLAS 1120: Masterpieces of Roman Literature 3

CLAS 2100/10: Women in Antiquity (Greece or Rome) 3

Total Credit Hours Towards Major 10

Junior

CLAS 2114-2124: Intermediate Latin 1 and 2 8

CLAS 2019: Pompeii and the Cities of Vesuvius 3

CLAS 4031: Alexander and the Hellenistic World 3

CLAS 4110: Greek and Roman Epic 3

Total Credit Hours Towards Major 17

Senior

CLAS 3014: Introduction to Latin Prose 3

CLAS 3024: Introduction to Latin Poetry 3

CLAS 4149: Greek Cities and Sanctuaries 3

CLAS 4081: The Roman Republic 3

Total Credit Hours Towards Major 12

Even if you decide that you cannot complete the requirements for the major, the 18-hour minor program in Classics (see below) still offers a substantial program in Greek or Latin.