

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES' DAY

Land Back: Comparative Hemispheric Perspectives

This international Indigenous panel, co-sponsored by the Center for Latin American and Latinx Studies, includes community and intellectual leaders from across the Américas to discuss shared issues and challenges regarding Indigenous land return in their respective regions. Hemispheric Indigenous perspectives include Mapuche (Chile / South America), Q'eqchi Maya (Belize / Central America), and Cheyenne / Lakota (United States / North America). Panelists bring a wealth of knowledge to this topic based on their intellectual and community-based work regarding land rights for Indigenous peoples. The panel will be moderated by Professor Vanessa Racehorse (Shoshone-Bannock/Cherokee/Shoshone-Paiute), Colorado Law.

OCTOBER 14, 2026

10:00 AM - 11:45 AM

In person, CU Boulder Campus
CBIS Room (Norlin M549)

QUESTIONS?
CNAIS@COLORADO.EDU

Event Registration

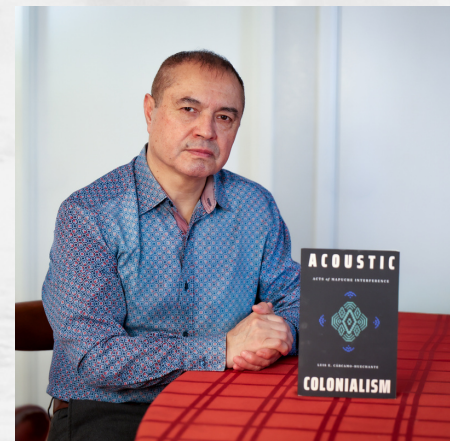

Featured Panelists:

Rick Williams (Oglala Lakota/Northern Cheyenne), President, People of the Sacred Land

Cristina Coc (Q'eqchi Maya), Founder and Program Director, Julian Cho Society

Dr. Luis E. Cárcamo-Huechante (Mapuche), Associate Professor, University of Texas at Austin