

PEOPLE OF THE SACRED LAND

The Untold History of Colorado

Film Screening & Community Conversation | Free and Open to the Public

Wed., Oct 14, 2026, 3:15 PM to 4:30 PM
Chancellor's Hall, CASE Building 4th Floor

Introduced and moderated by Patty Limerick,
Professor of History and Director of the Applied History Initiative

By deconstructing colonization's role in the contemporary landscape of Colorado's Front Range, Oglala Lakota / Cheyenne Elder Richard Williams is correcting a false narrative, illuminating the widely untold history of Colorado and uncovering the causes of the extensive damage endured by Native peoples.

Center for Native American and Indigenous Studies
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Leadership Support and Programming
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Environmental Center
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER