

ETHICS & COMPLIANCE - MONTHLY BROWN BAG SERIES

OCTOBER – CLERY COMPLIANCE

OVERVIEW OF SERIES

Over the 2016-2017 academic year on the fourth Monday of each month, we will host a series of seminars for the beginner to the expert compliance professional. During these meetings, subject matters experts will host a panel or offer a presentation to share and discuss compliance basics, case studies, trends and other issues of the day so that together we develop a shared understanding of how we fulfill our legal responsibilities and how we choose to operate to deliver on our three campus goals of Student Success, Reputation and Revenue. All Brown Bag Series seminars are open to the CU Community (students, faculty, staff, etc.).

PRESENTATION DETAILS

October's Monthly Brown Bag Series will feature a presentation by Patrick Warwick-Diaz, Clery Compliance and Crime Analyst with the CU Police Department, on Clery Compliance.

As a federal law signed in 1990, the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, commonly referred to as the Clery Act, sets forth requirements for colleges and universities around disclosure of campus crime activity and security policies in an annual report. In addition, the law requires campuses provide “timely warnings” and ongoing disclosures for certain types of criminal activity. With any law, there are requirements we as a university must do to be in compliance. In his presentation, Patrick will cover this history behind the Clery Act, the requirements the law places on our community and what occurs if we are out of compliance. He will also highlight “how we do Clery” at CU Boulder. For our campus community, there is a goal that “the Clery Act is about people, not paper”. Attendees will also gain insight into their individual responsibilities, particularly if considered a Campus Security Authority (CSA) and how each of us on-campus can be in support of the campus requirements.

During the hour session, ample time will be provided for audience Q&A.
