

IMAGE REPRODUCTION POLICY AND USE PERMISSION

University of Colorado Museum of Natural History - Anthropology Section

218 UCB - Henderson Building, Boulder, CO 80309

anthrocoll@colorado.edu

Policy Statement

The Image Reproduction Policy of the University of Colorado Museum of Natural History Anthropology Section pertains to original photography of collection objects, scans of archival documents, and to duplicate images made from existing transparencies, negatives, prints, and electronic media in the UCM Anthropology Collection.

Reproduction Fees

Collection Images

See attached fee schedule.

Archives & Photographs

There is no fee for use of digitized archives for unpublished material, presentations, and research. For any use request for archival material that requires new digitization see the attached fee schedule.

Use Fees

No Intent to Publish

There is no use fee for an image that will not be published unless the unpublished use is a commercial event, such as broadcast or exhibition.

Intent to Publish

See attached fee schedule.

Digital images used on the internet must be reproduced at 72 dpi or less.

In all cases of publication and public presentation, the University of Colorado Museum of Natural History must be cited as the source. (See the required credit line below.)

Permission for Image Use

Image(s):

Permission to publish the above image(s) in

Permission to use the above image(s) for (include print run, media type, and whether this will be cover or interior placement)

One-time only, non-exclusive use. Expected publication/air date:

Required credit lines: Copyright University of Colorado Museum of Natural History.

Anthropology Registrar signature

Date

Requester signature

Date