

2022 – 2023 Sustainability Chair Application

The sustainability chair is expected to act as CU Student Government's liaison to the Environmental Center and student organizations specializing in environmental efforts. The Environmental Center is a catalyst for change and has led student efforts to increase sustainability at the University of Colorado Boulder for over 50 years. The Sustainability Chair attends weekly Environmental Board meetings. By doing so, this position will be expected to stay up to date on current initiatives regarding sustainability as well as identifying ways that CUSG can support them.

Furthermore, the Sustainability Chair is expected to work with the Executives and Environmental Center to maintain, ensure compliance with, update, and pass Legislative Council Environmental Legislation. Finally, the Chair must attend all meetings including but not limited to: Staff Meetings, Department of Student Engagement Meetings, Environmental Board Meetings, Zero Waste Board of Director Meetings, Zero Waste Operations Partnership Meetings, and Transportation Working Group Meetings. This position is paid hourly.
