VIII. Presidential Action Items

- I. Camden Sharkey– Intern Director: was an intern last session. Works at Dutch Bros. Worked with COYAC and state house (if I heard that right). Wants to be an intern director because of the impact the last intern director left on him.
 - I. Chase: Camden is one of his favorite people in CUSG. Great personality, will work on any project. Worked on attorney general stuff, etc. Important role because it interfaces with freshman, which Camden will be great at.
 - II. (Canyon asked a question but I full on missed it)
 - III. Kaori: What would you like to implement in the intern program? (Judicial intern maybe? Possibly a double role, doubling finance. All interns break away from traditional roles for a little bit. Really focusing on judicial integration. Shadowing different officials to get a good amount of knowledge. Professional development and resume development for interns.)
 - IV. Weston: What is the biggest challenge of this role? (Making sure the group dynamic is welcoming and beneficial to all. Not forcing any dynamic on the group. Allowing the group to build their own standards and vibes.)
 - V. Keenan: What are some experiences from training people at Chick-Fil-A that will help in your new job? (Patience. Knowing that this is their first time doing something ever. Respectful communication. Experienced workers make good trainers.
 - VI. Kellen: What specifically about Jess’s leadership appealed to you? What would you do differently? (Camden and Jess worked well together; personalities meshed nicely. Invested in intern’s lives in a professional way. Made interns comfortable to ask questions. Camden would try to make the program less standardized. More individualized help.
 - VII. Kayli: Why this position instead of the other open ones? (Because of Jess’s impact, but also because he feels best prepared for this role.) Having worked in CUSG, what would you fix if you could fix anything right now? (Would make CUSG a glass box. Making us more approachable, better known on campus. Mario or Luigi? (Mario.)

- VIII. Breakout room time! (Camden: laptop may die)
- IX. Canyon: good answers, well spoken, sounds like a good mentor. In support.
- X. Keenan: Chick-Fil-A is a heated environment. Being able to educate people on something that intense is impressive. Speaks well to his capabilities.
- XI. Kelly: Leading CYAC after COVID was impressive, did well with that. Phenomenal passion and drive. In support.
- XII. Kellen: If I was a new freshman, he would be the perfect person to talk about for CUSG. Great candidate.
- XIII. Weston: Echoes what Canyon said. Great, thorough responses. In support.
- XIV. Move to approve Camden as intern director. (AYE)
- XV. Elizabeth: congrats on being ratified.

IX.Introduction

i.Executive Cabinet Structure

- ii. Chase: We've already seen this in May, but continuing to show it to us to follow the rules. DEI positions being presented today. Bringing back liaisons.
- iii. (Missed Elizabeth's question because of an electric guitar incident)
- iv. Kayli: where did external affairs used to be? (Created last year under DEI.) Do we how much department staff under strat comm? (We will be able to review that later, but officially there are no positions in that department yet. Over the last couple of years, we had some positions there. Making sure the director has input into the structure of their staff. Working with the skills of the staff.
- v. Kaori: Are liaisons changed in any way? (No.)
- vi. Keenan: External affairs manager interfaces with disability services and DEI stuff, whereas legal affairs does other CUSG branches? (Yes, but legal affairs also does off campus policy stuff. External affairs is mostly for on-campus offices and community organizations.)
- vii. Kellen: We approved job descriptions for other cabinet positions, where are they on the website? (There are no stupid questions in CUSG. Job descriptions are pretty much for HR, but also to keep people in their lane.)
- viii. Move to approve

X.First Reading

XI.Second Reading

XII.Late Announcements

- I. Chase: if you are signing up to work fall welcome and you can prove it, we have t-shirts. Otherwise, they will be at the first in-person leg. After that, we'll figure it out. It will not just be left out in the office for obvious reasons.
- II. Elizabeth: please send Gabby headshots!!!

XIII.Late Roll Call

XIV.Adjournment
