2023-2024 Homecoming and Athletics Chair Job Application

Dear applicant,

The Homecoming and Athletics Chair is tasked to plan, manage, and facilitate the execution of all Homecoming events and programs. The Chair oversees a coalition of other student employees who work to facilitate an entire week of programming and events for the student body and community. In partnership with groups like the CU Alumni Association, Athletics, Center for Student Involvement, and more, the Homecoming and Athletics Chair is the lead voice responsible for making homecoming worth coming home for. Outside of the homecoming “season”, the Homecoming and Athletics Chair works on preparation for the next year, other projects for student government with athletics, and prepares a budget for the upcoming year’s events.

Applications will be reviewed as they are received, and you will be contacted by the Chief of Staff for interviewing if qualified. Please feel free to reach out to the Chief of Staff with any questions or concerns.

COMPLETED APPLICATIONS AND RESUMES SHOULD BE SENT TO:

Why you are interested in applying to be the Homecoming and Athletics Chair?

How would your peers describe you?

Please explain how you would plan on leading the Homecoming Coalition.

What are you interested in and why? This can be about anything in your life, whether that be about your major or what you like to do in your free time.

Talk about a time when you were planning an event and things did not go accordingly. How did you handle that situation? What would you do differently?

How would you better incorporate athletics into CUSG? How would you go about forming a relationship with the athletic department?

What would you change about homecoming?
