ACCOMMODATIONS IN ONLINE TESTING
BEST PRACTICES AND RESOURCES

MAKE PREPARATIONS
Several days prior to an exam or quiz, check in with your professors to ensure that your accommodations have been communicated and are in place. This is important to ensure that your instructor sets up your accommodations online ahead of time.

CHECK CANVAS
Double check Canvas before starting your exam to ensure your accommodations have been implemented. If there are any discrepancies, contact your professor as soon as possible so they can make adjustments.

COORDINATE
Some accommodations such as Reader, Scribe, and technology related to accessibility may require additional coordination and preparation prior to your exam-- please reach out to your Access Coordinator with any questions or concerns.

ISSUES AND CONCERNS
If you experience technology, accessibility, or accommodation concerns that arise during the exam, contact your professor and Access Coordinator immediately.

CONNECT
If you are experiencing new disability-related academic impacts in the remote/online space, please contact your Access Coordinator to discuss what other resources or accommodations can offer support.
