

The Application for Accommodations is the first step in the accommodation process. Per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), an academic accommodation is a reasonable modification or adjustment that enables a qualified person with a disability to gain equal access to the academic environment.

In an effort to determine eligibility for an accommodation under the ADA, Disability Services will require documentation of diagnosis/diagnoses from a current or treating provider.

Disability Impacts

Describe the disability for which you are seeking an accommodation.

Describe the accommodation(s) you are requesting within an academic setting.

Describe how the accommodations you have requested would address the academic impact of your disability.

By checking this box I understand the following;

- Appropriate documentation of my disability from a qualified professional is required in order to receive accommodations
- It may be necessary for Disability Services to discuss my needs for accommodations with other entities on campus as appropriate to my situation. Specific disability information will only be shared with the appropriate university personnel on a need-to-know basis.
