Prerequisites

You should be familiar and comfortable with fractions and decimals, graphing, and solving basic linear algebraic equations. If you find these problems very difficult, please come and see me during my office hours.

Required Materials

For this course, I will be using the fourth edition of Paul Krugman and Robin Wells' Principles of Macroeconomics (chapter version). Also, access to the FlipItEcon online homework site.

To sign up, please visit <http://www.flipitecon.com>.

The course key is d78d89eb

Feel free to purchase a hard-copy textbook if you like the feel of paper between your fingers. However, an online version is likely cheaper.

You are also required to have a 'clicker' for the course to answer in-class questions. One can be obtained at the Bookstore, and can be used for any other courses that require them during the rest of your studies.

Recitations

Attending recitation is an important part of success in the course. It provides an opportunity for you to work through the material in a smaller class. You should already be signed up and ready to attend one of the following recitations. There are no recitations the first week of class.

Grading

Item	Percent of Final Grade
Exam 1	25%
Exam 2	25%
Final Exam	30%
Homework	10%
In-Class Questions	10%
Recitation	25%

NOTE: This adds up to more than 100%! See below under Recitation / Exam Make-up for an explanation.

Exams

Exams will be mostly multiple choice questions, with (possibly) some short-answer questions. All Exams will be held during class time in the same room as the lecture.

Homework

Homework is conducted through the FlipItEcon site. Homework will generally be due on Friday each week.

In-Class Questions

We will have in-class questions using ‘clickers’ almost every class. You will receive a point for every question you answer. At the end of the semester, I will drop the two lowest scores by day from your grade.

Recitation / Exam Make-up

There are no make up exams.

If you miss an exam for any reason, you will be given a zero. However, you will also be given a grade in recitation, and at the end of the semester, I will replace your lowest exam score (not including the Final Exam) with your recitation score, if it helps your grade.

E-mail

I am happy to answer your e-mails. However, since there are many students in this class, I ask that you give me at least 24 hours to respond. Also, I will only respond during business hours (not on weekends!!). If I feel you can find the answer to the question on this syllabus, I will e-mail you back a terse “Syllabus.” Please don’t be offended, and please don’t send me these kind of e-mails. Last, please start a new thread, rather than replying to a class-wide e-mail.

I am not allowed, by law, to discuss grades with you or anyone else over e-mail.

Drop Deadline

The deadline to drop the course without receiving a “W” on your transcript is January 27th.
