

Alessandro Peri, Assistant Professor

PhD, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, 2016

FIELDS

Macroeconomics • Computational Economics • Law and Economics • Environmental Economics • Corporate Finance

CURRENT RESEARCH INTERESTS

- (a) Macroeconomic implications of economic policy and legislative changes.
- (b) Electrical Engineering Economics: Hardware Acceleration of Economic Models.

PUBLICATIONS

- ““Forum Shopping and Legal Labor Markets: Evidence from the Court Competition Era,” (with Chad Brown and Jeronimo Carballo) The Journal of Law and Economics 67.2, 2024, pp. 415–444.
- “Selfish Incentives for Climate Policy: Empower the Young!” (with Larry Karp and Armon Rezai) Journal of the Association of Environmental and Resource Economists 11.5, 2024, pp. 1165–1200.
- “Public Investment in a Production Network: Aggregate and Sectoral Implications,” (with Omar Rachedi and Iacopo Varotto) The Review of Economics and Statistics, Oct. 2023, pp. 1–45.
- “Programming FPGAs for Economics: An Introduction to Electrical Engineering Economics,” (with Bhagath Cheela, Andre DeHon and Jesus Fernandez-Villaverde) Quantitative Economics, 2024, conditionally accepted.

SELECTED WORKING PAPERS

- “Unintended Consequences of Money-Laundering Regulations,” (with Fabrizio Colella and Keith E. Maskus) Rockwool Foundation Working Paper.
- “Bankruptcy Reforms when Workers Extract Rents”
- “Travel Choices and Pandemic Federalism: A Surrogate Model Application to Epi-econ Models,” (with Kaffine, D. and Ladenburger, L.” 2024.