Course Overview

This course introduces economic theories of aggregate economic activities including the determination of income, employment, and prices; economic growth; and short-run economic fluctuations. Macroeconomic policies are examined in both closed and open economy models.

We will study models of aggregate output, unemployment, prices, interest rates, inflation, and economic growth. Different time horizons of the short-run, the medium-run, and the long-run will be considered. Macroeconomic models will be applied to the U.S. economy. Monetary and fiscal policy issues also will be discussed. This course will think critically, construct arguments, and solve problems using the theory and data that macroeconomists use. An important outcome of this course is the development of coherently understanding and analyzing important contemporary macroeconomic issues.

Course Objective

Upon completion of this course students should be able to:

- Apply algebraic, graphical and calculus tools to macroeconomic theory.
- Apply macroeconomic principles, theories and models to critically analyze and explain economic situations encountered in the real world that involve macroeconomics.
- Acquire the ability to think about complex economic issues in a logical objective manner, so that students discriminate between correct solutions to macroeconomic problems and common misconceptions.
- Evaluate different economic arguments and interpret the reasons why some are well-founded, while others are not.

- Communicate the results of macroeconomic analysis in a clear and professional way.

Course Modality

This is an in-person course. You will be required to come to class. No part of this course is remote. We are hoping the in-person experience will make for a richer and less isolating learning experience for you. Given the accelerated pace of Maymester, you should: Plan to study three to six hours each day on your own, Attend class every day; missing a day during Maymester is like missing a week of class in the fall and spring semesters, Not add a class you have not attended from the first day.

Textbook

Macroeconomics, 11th edition by Mankiw, N. Gregory. The course will use MacMillan Publishing's Achieve homework system that comes with an electronic version of the book embedded in the system. You will sign up for Macroeconomics + Achieve System ($104.07 before tax) through Canvas. Detailed instructions for signing up are provided on the course Canvas site.

Class Technology

Achieve Learning System

The course will use the Macmillan Publishing, Achieve Learning system for Learning Curve, Homework, and Quiz assignments. There are instructions to sign up for Achieve through Canvas found in the Getting Started Module.

Clickers - This class will use iClicker Student Mobile App. Answers to clickers questions will be used for class attendance and will be a part of your grade. You will need to sign up for iClicker. There are instructions to sign up for iClicker through Canvas found in the Getting Started Module.

Class Support/Help (Also found on Canvas)

(1) The primary help option for the course is the professor who has regular office hours.

(2) The Economics Department maintains a list of tutors who are available for private hire. Its website is <https://www.colorado.edu/economics/node/515/attachment>.

(3) The Office of Victim Assistance can be reached at 303-492-8855. Its webpage is <http://www.colorado.edu/ova/>.

(4) The webpage <https://www.colorado.edu/undocumentedstudentresources> contains information regarding campus counseling resources available for students and employees with DACA Status.

(5) The website <https://www.colorado.edu/redfolder/> provides guidance with regard to assisting students in distress.

Do not fall behind in this course. Students who keep up with all assignments tend to succeed in the course. Failing to keep up often results in failing the course. Do the required work and use the help available to you in order to master the material. I teach you to succeed in this course.

Prerequisites: ECON 2020 (Principles of Macroeconomics) and ECON 1088 or MATH 1081 or MATH 1300 or MATH 1310 or APPM 1350 (math and Calculus) (all min grade C-). Restricted to students with 22-180 units completed.

Course Evaluation

Clicker/Attendance	5%
Learning Curve (LC)	10%
Quick Quizzes (QQ)	5%
Homework Exercises (HW)	10%
Quizzes (QZ)	10%
Midterm 1	18%
Midterm 2	18%
Cumulative Final	24%

Clicker/Attendance (5%): Clickers questions will be asked for the content learned during the class, and they are rewards for students who are present in class. No makeup for Clickers questions will be given to a class absentee. Class attendance is automatically recorded once logged in at the iClicker cloud. Class attendance will be checked randomly twice per day. If you are late, you will not get credit for attendance. Students are required to attend the class regularly. For flexibility of class attendance, you may miss up to one day for any (medical) reason with no penalty. Beyond it, each absence will lower your grade. Some excused absences that may be considered are due to sickness, university excused function, or circumstances beyond the students' control. The instructor has a sole right to require a proper verification of such excuses. Students will be responsible for making up missed work and material for any missed class by liaising with their classmates. More than 3/4 of the class attendance is required to pass the course. Otherwise, students will automatically get the failing grade. Students should not test the instructor's limits on this attendance policy.

Learning Curve, Quick Quizzes, Homework and Quizzes (35%): There will be daily assignments (LC, QQ, HW, QZ) for each chapter that are due at set times. Late submission are not be accepted. The lowest 2 scores of each LC, QQ, HW and QZ will be dropped (i.e. you may miss up to 2 out of a series of the each daily assignment with no penalty). Learning curve, Quick Quizzes and Homework are allowed for unlimited attempts per question with small penalty. Multiple attempts are not allowed for Quizzes.

Tests (60%): The three exams will be combinations of analytical problems, short essay questions and multiple choice questions of topics covered in class. Missing an exam should be avoided. No makeup exams will be given. For student who misses an exam for a medical emergency or family reason, and only if the student submits proper verification of such excuse, the weight for the corresponding midterm will be added to the final exam. Otherwise, a missed exam will result in a zero point. Final exam should not be missed in any circumstances. The midterm exam 1 (18%), and the midterm exam 2 (18%) will be on the specified chapters of the texts. The final exam (24%) is cumulative from all of the chapters that we will have learned. All exams are held in person.

Letter Grade will be assigned as follows:

A : 94% - 100%
 A-: 90.00 – 93.99 %
 B+: 87.00 – 89.99 %
 B : 83.00 – 86.99 %
 B-: 80.00 – 82.99 %
 C+: 77.00 – 79.99 %
 C : 73.00 – 76.99 %
 C-: 70.00 – 72.99 %
 D+: 67.00 – 69.99 %
 D : 63.00 – 66.99 %
 D-: 60.00 – 62.99 %
 F : 0.00 - 59.99%

University Policies

Classroom Behavior

Both students and faculty are responsible for maintaining an appropriate learning environment in all instructional settings, whether in person, remote or online. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status, political affiliation or political philosophy. For more information, see the classroom behavior policy, the Student Code of Conduct, and the Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance.

Requirements for COVID-19

As a matter of public health and safety, all members of the CU Boulder community and all visitors to campus must follow university, department and building requirements and all public health orders in place to reduce the risk of spreading infectious disease. CU Boulder currently requires COVID-19 vaccination and boosters for all faculty, staff and students. Students, faculty and staff must upload proof of vaccination and boosters or file for an exemption based on medical, ethical or moral grounds through the MyCUHealth portal.

The CU Boulder campus is currently mask-optional. However, if public health conditions change and masks are again required in classrooms, students who fail to adhere to masking requirements will be asked to leave class, and students who do not leave class when asked or who refuse to comply with these requirements will be referred to Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution. For more information, see the policy on classroom behavior and the Student Code of Conduct. If you require accommodation because a disability prevents you from fulfilling these safety measures, please follow the steps in the "Accommodation for Disabilities" statement on this syllabus.

If you feel ill and think you might have COVID-19, if you have tested positive for COVID-19, or if you are unvaccinated or partially vaccinated and have been in close contact with someone who has COVID-19, you should stay home and follow the further guidance of the Public Health Office (contacttracing@colorado.edu). If you are fully vaccinated and have been in close contact with someone who has COVID-19, you do not need to stay home; rather, you should self-monitor for symptoms and follow the further guidance of the Public Health Office (contacttracing@colorado.edu). In this class, if you are sick or quarantined, you should contact the professor in order to make arrangements to keep up with the class and makeup assignments if necessary.

Accommodation for Disabilities

If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit your accommodation letter from Disability Services to your faculty member in a timely manner so that your needs can be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities in the academic environment. Information on requesting accommodations is located on the Disability Services website. Contact Disability Services at 303-492-8671 or dsinfo@colorado.edu for further assistance. If you have a temporary medical condition, see Temporary Medical Conditions on the Disability Services website.

Preferred Student Names and Pronouns

CU Boulder recognizes that students' legal information doesn't always align with how they identify. Students may update their preferred names and pronouns via the student portal; those preferred names and pronouns are listed on instructors' class rosters. In the absence of such updates, the name that appears on the class roster is the student's legal name.

Honor Code

All students enrolled in a University of Colorado Boulder course are responsible for knowing and adhering to the Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code may include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, lying, bribery, threat, unauthorized access to academic materials, clicker fraud, submitting the same or similar work in more than one course without permission from all course instructors involved, and aiding academic dishonesty. All incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution (honor@colorado.edu); 303-492-5550). Students found responsible for violating the Honor Code will be assigned resolution outcomes from the Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution as well as be subject to academic sanctions from the faculty member. Additional information regarding the Honor Code academic integrity policy can be found on the Honor Code website. In this class, ChatGPT is banned. GPTZero would be used to quickly detect A.I.-generated text or answer.

Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination, Harassment and/or Related Retaliation

CU Boulder is committed to fostering an inclusive and welcoming learning, working, and living environment. University policy prohibits sexual misconduct (harassment, exploitation, and assault), intimate partner violence (dating or domestic violence), stalking, protected-class discrimination and harassment, and related retaliation by or against members of our community on- and off-campus. These behaviors harm individuals and our community. The Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC) addresses these concerns, and individuals who believe they have been subjected to misconduct can contact OIEC at 303-492-2127 or email cureport@colorado.edu. Information about university policies, reporting options, and support resources can be found on the OIEC website. Please know that faculty and graduate instructors have a responsibility to inform OIEC when they are made aware of any issues related to these policies regardless of when or where they occurred to ensure that individuals impacted receive information about their rights, support resources, and resolution options. To learn more about reporting and support options for a variety of concerns, visit Don't Ignore It.

Religious Holidays

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance.

See the campus policy regarding religious observances for full details.
