

Practicing Teachers with a Focus on Literacy

- Work with award-winning CU faculty and instructors
- Develop your repertoire of practices to foster literacy development among all learners in your classroom
- Earn 3 semester hours of graduate credit in each course

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

FEATURED SUMMER SESSION COURSES

Special Topics: Social/Emotional Learning

EDUC 6804, Section 503, Class No. 18772
June 10 – July 3, 2014, TWTh 9 am – 12:15 pm

Emily Price

Provides an examination of the philosophical and research bases for social and emotional literature. Explores 4-6 distinct social and emotional learning programs. Focuses on social and emotional instructional and learning strategies.

Processes in Writing

EDUC 5265, Section 501, Class No. 12002
June 10 – July 3, TWTh, 12:45 – 4 pm

FEATURED ONLINE COURSE

Language & Literacy Across the Curriculum

EDUC 5235, Section 101, Class No. 11984
June 2 – July 3, 2014

Dr. Diana Arya

Expands teacher's vision and practice to support literacy and academic language development in math and science content areas.

FEATURED SUMMER SESSION INTENSIVE COURSE

Curriculum for Multicultural Education

EDUC 5445, Section 601, Class No. 12086
July 21 – Aug 1, 2014, M-F 8 am – 3 pm

Dr. Christine Sleeter, Summer Session FIRST Scholar

Visiting Professor Emerita, California State University – Monterey Bay

Helps teachers learn to design, teach, and evaluate good standards-conscious multicultural curricula. Integrates Sleeter's recent work in critical family history tools (<http://historyandfamily.blogspot.com/>).

To register as a degree or nondegree student visit: colorado.edu/summer/applying