Personal and Professional Data

Academic Training

B.A. Emory University, 1972, French

M.A. University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, 1975, Anthropology

Ph.D. University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, 1980, Anthropology

Honors and Awards

Phi Beta Kappa, 1972

Phi Delta Kappa, 1980

Certificate of Teaching Excellence (Virginia Tech), 1984

Phi Delta Kappa Outstanding Research Award (Virginia Tech), 1987

Dean's Outstanding Research Award (Virginia Tech), 1987

Outstanding Article of the Year, Journal for Research in Mathematics Education, 1988

Faculty Teaching Fellowship (Colorado), 1989-90

Three of my former students have won prizes for their dissertation work under my supervision:

Beatrice Naff-Cain received a 1988 Promising Young Researcher Award from the National Council of Teachers of English for her application of ethnographic techniques to research in English education and the 1990 Richard Meade Award for an article about this work.

M. Elizabeth Graue won a 1991 Outstanding Dissertation Award from the American Educational Research Association for her application of ethnographic methods to the study of kindergarten readiness.

Karen Tonso received two 1998 Outstanding Dissertation Awards: one for Research on Women in Education from the American Educational Research Association, and one for Qualitative Research in Education from the American Educational Research Association.

Fellow, American Anthropological Association, 1992
Scholar-in-Residence, University of Arizona, April, 1992
Outstanding Article of the Year, Journal for Research in Mathematics Education, 1992
Finalist, Presidential Teaching Scholar (Colorado), 1993
Winner, Elizabeth Gee Award (University of Colorado) for Outstanding Contributions to Women in Research, Teaching, and Service, 2001
Winner, Distinguished Research Lectureship, the highest annual award given to a faculty member at the University of Colorado, 2003
Named Bob and Judy Charles Endowed Chair of Education, 2004-2016
Elected to the National Academy of Education, 2004
Named University Distinguished Professor, 2004
Visiting Scholar, University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Australia, 2006
Finalist, Maria Mitchell Award for Women in Science, 2008
Resident Fellow, Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford University, 2008-09
CU Women That Matter Award, Chancellor's Committee on Women, 2010
Advances in Social Contexts of Education Interdisciplinary Scholarship Lecture, American Educational Research Association, 2011

Grants and Contracts

Completed

- 6/01/79: "Women's Peer Groups and Choice of Career," National Institute of Education, $97,000 (M. Eisenhart, co-principal investigator with D. Holland)
- 7/01/80: "Distribution of Mental Health Professionals" (Supplemental Grant), National Institute of Mental Health, $40,000 (M. Eisenhart, principal investigator)
- 3/01/84: "Women's Educational and Career Profiles," Virginia Tech Supplemental Grant, $1,000 (M. Eisenhart, principal investigator)
- 6/01/84: "Student Teaching Action Research," Virginia Tech Supplemental Grant, $900 (H. Borko, M. Eisenhart, R. Lalik, M. A. Lewis, and J. Shrum, co-principal investigators)
- 6/15/84: "An Interlocking Approach to Improving High School Environments for Learning Math," Virginia Department of Education, $8,000 (written by M. Eisenhart and E. Adams for Pulaski County, VA, School Division)
- 6/01/85: "Making the Transition from Education to Work," ED/WORK Project, Vocational and Technical Education Division, Virginia Tech, release time and graduate assistance (M. Eisenhart, principal investigator)
- 6/01/85: "Student Teaching Action Research," Virginia Tech Supplemental Grant, $930 (M. A. Lewis, J. Shrum, H. Borko, and M. Eisenhart, co-principal investigators).
- 6/15/85: "Ethnographic Evaluation of the School-based Gifted and Talented Program," Fairfax County, Virginia, Public Schools, $8,900 (M. Eisenhart, co-principal investigator with J. Shrum).
- 8/01/86: "Teaching and Learning Reading: Presenting and Acquiring Knowledge in the Social Nexus of Classroom Life," $5,000 (written by H. Borko, M. Eisenhart, N.

Hoover, and J. Niles). This project was approved for support by the National Institute of Education in FY 1982 (for $70,000) but could not be funded because of federal cutbacks. Drs. Eisenhart and Borko, with some support from the Division of Curriculum and Instruction, College of Education Minigrants, and a Supplemental Grant from Virginia Tech's Educational Fund, were able to conduct the data collection phase of the study during the 1981-82 school year and to complete analysis in 1986.
