UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

English Departmental Honors Application

Applicants who wish to defend an English Departmental Honors thesis in Fall 2020 or Spring 2021 must email this application with a complete Degree Audit printout and their writing sample to ssengl@colorado.edu by Wednesday, April 15, 2020.

Literature students should submit a 7-12 page sample that demonstrates the ability to develop a coherent literary argument. Creative Writing students should submit a sample of fiction (7-12 pages) or poetry (5-7 poems). Only students declared as English majors, Creative Writing track may defend a creative thesis.

Applicants are responsible for reading and understanding the English Honors Requirements, Deadlines, & Guidelines document found at https://www.colorado.edu/english/undergraduates/english-honors-program.

Applicants must declare their thesis advisor at the time of application. Graduate Students and Adjunct lecturers may not serve as thesis advisors. In certain cases and with preapproval from the Associate Chair for Creative Writing, Literature faculty can serve as the thesis advisor for students writing a creative thesis.
