

Department of English

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

English Departmental Honors Application

There are two internal application deadlines if you wish to apply to pursue an Honors thesis in AY 2022-23: Friday, 1 April 2022 and Monday, 1 August 2022. Those who are planning to graduate in Fall 22 must apply by the April deadline. If you are graduating in Spring 23, you may apply by August 1, but the department strongly encourages students to meet the April deadline, so that you may spend the summer consulting with your advisor and preparing to write the Honors thesis. Please email this application with a complete Degree Audit printout and writing sample to ssengl@colorado.edu by the deadlines.

Literature students should submit a 7-12 page sample that demonstrates the ability to develop a coherent literary argument. Creative Writing students should submit a sample of fiction (7-12 pages) or poetry (5-7 poems). Only students declared as English majors, Creative Writing track may defend a creative thesis.

Applicants are responsible for reading and understanding the English Honors Requirements, Deadlines, & Guidelines document found at <https://www.colorado.edu/english/undergraduates/english-honors-program>.

Applicants must declare their thesis advisor at the time of application. Graduate Students and Adjunct lecturers may not serve as thesis advisors. In certain cases and with preapproval from the Associate Chair for Creative Writing, Literature faculty can serve as the thesis advisor for students writing a creative thesis.
