Lectures & Studios

• Be attentive to your attendance. Your overall grade will be impacted after 3 absences
• Utilize the faculty office hours to grow ideas further and gain further insight
• Your education in ENVD is weighted on performing well in both lecture & studio work
Utilize Your Resources: Digital Media Center & Creative Labs

- Studios will require models and other fabrications that will be built here.
- Wood Shop, Metal Shop, Laser Cutters, CNC Routers, Studio Space, Computer Labs
- Full professional photo studio and print lab for student projects (PHOTOGRAPH EVERYTHING)
Faculty Office Hours: Environmental Design Building

- Faculty are available weekly in the ENVD Building to talk about studio & lecture courses
- Come prepared with questions and your work to talk through
- Prepare for 5-15 minutes per student if other students are waiting.
Transitioning into Design Education

- Connecting with your Cohort
  - Scholarship Programs
  - Professional Development
Get a Jumpstart on ENVD: Dive into the Emerging Leaders Program

- Connect with Dylan West- dylan.west@colorado.edu about any questions
- Technology Workshops, Registration Events, Social Events- Boulder Scavenger Hunt, 1:1 Mentoring, Invovlement Fair, and Professional Development Events
Designers Without Boundaries (DWB):

- Academic scholarship program for first-generation, underrepresented, and Pell-Grant eligible students
- Meet community leaders, volunteer, and professional development opportunities
- Be part of a community at CU and participate in leadership events
Get Involved: Student Leadership Opportunities

- Join student groups - Student Fair in Sept.
- Become more integrated into the Program
- Seek out leadership opportunities (Peer Advisors, Emerging Leader, Ambassadors, TA, Technology Advisors)
Connect with your Advisor
- Constant throughout your time in ENVD
- Help with Internships & Goals in Profession
- Understand how to make an advising appointment
Advisor vs. School Counselor
Meet with Your Advisor Regularly

• Learn about credit requirements and class options. We talk out scheduling options but we let you make your schedule.

• Required to meet with your advisor each semester.

• If you are experiencing academic difficulty in multiple classes, please reach out to your advisor so we can assist you.

• If you are having challenges with one specific course, start by meeting with that faculty member during their office hours.

• Guide you throughout campus and help you develop the skills needed to build out the right degree for you.

• We help you navigate this network of support and campus. Together we help you find your pathway here at CU.
Scheduling appointments is currently limited when using assistive technology, such as a screen reader; here's the information on workarounds.
