Spring Summer Fall

Brief description of Your Organization:

Fund for the Public Interest is a national nonprofit organization that runs campaigns for America's leading environmental and social change organizations. We launched in 1982 and now run the nation's largest and most effective canvassing and telephone membership operation. Our team talks one-on-one with thousands, sometimes millions of people and describes the nature/goals of the project(s): makes their voice heard of environmental and social issues. Door to door fundraising, grassroots organizing, and community outreach

Please list required and/or desired skills and qualifications:

Must be 18 or older, have excellent communication skills, and be passionate about working on and engaging the community on a wide variety of social and environmental issues.
