

Student Academic Success Center

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Guide to Tutoring Resources

ACADEMIC SUPPORT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM: DEPT. OF HOUSING

All students living in residence halls (including Bear Creek Apartments) can request small group tutoring in all subjects, through the ASAP program. <http://housing.colorado.edu/resources-tips/tutoring>

ALTEC

This state-of-the-art facility supports the study of foreign languages and cultures. A large multimedia library of materials offers audio and videotapes, videodiscs, computer programs, CD ROMS, books, journals, and foreign language magazines. And don't miss out on the interactive media labs, for both Mac and PC platforms. <http://altec.colorado.edu/>

Astrophysical & Planetary Sciences

Provides a Tutoring List for students to contact private tutors in Astronomy, Geology, Physics, Math and other related math and science courses.
https://aps.colorado.edu/undergrad_tutoring.shtml

The BOLD CENTER: Student Success Center

The Broadening Opportunity through Leadership and Diversity Center is located within the Engineering School. Provides free, drop-in tutoring for a wide variety of engineering courses throughout the academic year. Open to all engineering students Sunday through Friday.
<http://www.colorado.edu/bold/programs/student-success-center>

CHEMISTRY & BIOCHEMISTRY

Chemistry and Biochemistry provides a Chemistry Help within the Eckley building. Times and locations are specific to each course and is provided to students via their syllabi. Also available is a "Tutor List" for <http://chem.colorado.edu/undergraduate/tutor-list>

ECONOMICS

The Department of Economics provides a free drop-in tutorial lab for undergraduates enrolled in Economics courses at CU-Boulder in Econ 12A. The tutors that are undergraduate students are all available to help with ECON 1078, 1088, 2010, 2020, 3070, 3080, and 3818.

<http://www.colorado.edu/Economics/undergraduate/tutorial-lab.pdf>

They also provide a "Tutor List" in which any student can contact and hire a tutor privately.

<http://www.colorado.edu/Economics/undergraduate/tutor-list.pdf>

ENGINEERING AND APPLIED SCIENCE

The Broadening Opportunity through Leadership and Diversity Center (BOLD) Student Success Center (SSC) provides free, drop-in tutoring for a wide variety of courses throughout the academic year. With two locations open to all engineering students Sunday through Friday, the SSC is a space for students to ask questions, get extra help or polish their skills in a friendly and mutually supportive setting.

<http://bold.colorado.edu/>

FRENCH AND ITALIAN

The Department of French and Italian provides a “Private Tutor List” in which any student can contact and hire a tutor privately. Refer to the main website: <http://frit.colorado.edu/>
Under each language tab, one can find the current tutor list by clicking on “Undergraduate Major”.

GEOLOGICAL SCIENCES

The Department of Geological Sciences offers free tutoring Monday thru Thursday 2 pm to 5 pm in Benson 1B57. The department also provides a “Private Tutor List” <http://www.colorado.edu/GeolSci/studentinfo.htm> (under “Undergraduate Student Information”).

GERMANIC AND SLAVIC LANGUAGES

This department provides a “Private Tutor List” for German, Russian, Hebrew, and Nordic languages in which any student can contact and hire a tutor privately. Refer to the main website:
<http://gsll.colorado.edu/> Under each language tab, find “Tutors and Translators”.

MATHEMATICS

The Department of Mathematics provides information for drop-in tutoring labs for undergraduates enrolled in Math courses at CU-Boulder (MATH175) and a “Private Tutor List”:
<http://www.colorado.edu/math/undergraduate/index.html>

MOLECULAR, CELLULAR, AND DEVELOPMENTAL BIOLOGY

The MCDB “Learning Lounge” is located in the basement of Porter Bioscience, Room B0054. The Help Room is mainly devoted to helping with the fall MCDB 1150 course, but there might be availability in MCDB 2150 as well. In the spring, the Help Room is devoted to the spring intro genetics course MCDB 2150.

Miramontes Arts & Sciences Program (MASP)

Students enrolled in MASP are provided Academic Co-Seminars can obtain tutoring in EPOB, MCDB, Chemistry, Calculus, Writing, Physics. Contact the MASP office, 492-8229.

THE PROGRAM FOR WRITING AND RHETORIC (PWR)

THE PWR offers consultants trained in writing pedagogy. Writing Center sessions strive to address writers' stated needs while attending to relevant disciplinary, rhetorical, grammatical, and stylistic concerns. Contact: (303) 735-6906 or wrtghelp@colorado.edu. The Writing Center is located in the Norlin Commons (E111). Visit their web site for complete details.
<http://www.colorado.edu/pwr/writingcenter.html>

SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE

The Spanish and Portuguese Department offers free walk-in tutoring sessions, 15 minutes maximum per day per student in McKenna 26 (basement). Hours, tutoring assistance information:
<http://spanish.colorado.edu/content/free-spanish-tutoring>
The Spanish and Portuguese Department also provides a “Private Tutor List” in which students can contact and hire a tutor privately. <http://spanish.colorado.edu/tutors-and-translators>

STUDENT ACADEMIC SUCCESS CENTER (SASC)

SASC is a multi-cultural academic learning community. Students taking a SASC Math, Writing, or Co-seminar can request tutoring through their SASC coordinator. SASC provides a tutoring ‘bulletin board’ where students can locate private tutors for hire in a wide variety of classes. The “Tutor Locator” can be found at: <http://www.colorado.edu/sasc/tutoring>
Click on “Tutor Locator” (on-campus availability only, or CU VPN connection required- a link is provided). In addition, SASC provides workshops on a variety of academic skill development areas that are open to all CU students. <http://www.colorado.edu/sasc/skills>

STUDENT ATHLETE TUTORING

Updated 6/2015

Athletes on varsity teams are eligible for tutoring through the Herbst Academic Center. Athletes are informed of tutorial services during orientation.

This tutoring bulletin board/list is provided as service of the Student Academic Success Center (SASC). SASC is not a party to tutoring relationships, schedules, departmental changes, or information made through this list, and therefore cannot bear responsibility for any interactions involving tutors listed here and students seeking tutoring. Know of any other Help Labs or Tutor List? Send information to: Tutors@Colorado.edu. Thank you!