APRIL EVENTS

Career Services

Resumes & Networking
April 1, Norlin E303, 5:30pm - 7pm
Prepare for an Internship or Job Search. 80% of jobs are found through networking!
Get ready for your internship or job search by learning about resumes and how to network to your next position. This is an overview of resumes, for a resume critique check out our drop-in schedule.

Salary Negotiation Strategies for Women
April 7, C4C S350, 4pm - 6pm
Whether you are a female student looking for your first job or an alumna who is looking to move up in your career, this panel discussion is for you! Come hear from female panelists with extensive professional experience in HR, Talent Acquisition, and/or managers with hiring authority speak about strategies and techniques to successfully negotiate salary as a woman.

Internship/Job Search & Interviewing
April 8, C4C S350, 5:30pm - 7pm
Start an Internship or Job Search here! Learn the secrets of internship and job searching to find what you’re looking for. Build social media job searching skills and interviewing skills to gain an edge in your search.

Employer Resume Review (Technical)
April 13, C4C S350, 1:30pm - 3:30pm
Employers attending the Just In Time Fair will be on hand to review students’ resumes! Attend this session and ask your resume related questions, as well as receive feedback on your resume.

Just In Time Career & Internship Fair - Day 1 Technical Day
April 15, University Memorial Center Ballrooms, 9am - 3pm
CU-Boulder Career Services is bringing more than 140 organizations to campus to meet students and alumni for two specialized days. The first day, April 15th, is focused on technical organizations and positions.

Resume Review (Non-technical)
April 15, C4C S350, 5:30pm - 7pm
Is your resume ready for the Just In Time Fair on April 16? Attend this session and ask your resume related questions, as well as receive feedback on your resume. This workshop is tailored for undergraduate students.

Just In Time Career & Internship Fair - Day 2 All Campus Day
April 16, University Memorial Center Ballrooms, 9am - 3pm
CU-Boulder Career Services is bringing more than 140 organizations to campus to meet students and alumni for two specialized days. The second day, April 16th, is an All Campus Day with organizations and positions ranging from non-profits to sales and education.

U.S. Department of State Info Session
April 16, UMC 247, 3:30pm - 5pm
Are you interested in a career as a Foreign Service Officer with the U.S. Department of State? Anne Callaghan, Diplomat in Residence for the Rocky Mountain Southwest region. Ms. Callaghan will answer questions about the rewards and challenges of a career as a U.S. diplomat and provide a comprehensive overview of the Foreign Service Officer selection process, from application process and choice of a career track through the Foreign Service Officer Test (FSOT) and additional steps that lead to an invitation to an orientation class for new officers.

Explore Majors and Careers
April 22, C4C S350, 5:30pm - 7pm
Connect your strengths and skills to areas of interest and learn about resources to help you get started exploring majors or careers plans. Choosing a major or career can seem like a big decision. Whether you are still searching for a major, or unsure how to apply it to a career, we’ll help break it down and give you tons of free resources and strategies to get started.