Fall Career Events For INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

SEPTEMBER

On-campus Employment Workshop
Thursday, September 3; 5 PM - 7 PM, JD Abrams
Working on-campus is a great way for international students to gain US work experiences while still in school. Discover the benefits of on-campus employment and how it can help you build your resume, learn valuable skills, and establish important connections. On-campus employment also helps you prepare for CPT/OPT job searches.
Organizers: CS, Student Employment & ISSS

Optional Practical Training (OPT) Workshop
Thursday, September 10; 5 PM - 7 PM, JD Abrams
F-1 students, who are planning to work off-campus after graduation, will learn the details of the Optional Practical Training (OPT) application process! OPT is a required work authorization for F-1 international students wanting to work off-campus after graduation.
Organizers: CS & ISSS

International Coffee Hour
Friday, September 25; 4 PM - 5:30 PM, UMC Grill
Come socialize and celebrate the end of the week! Refreshments are free and the conversations are great! International Coffee Hour happens every Friday during the semester, but this time Career Services sponsors it and will give a short overview of their services.
Organizers: CS & the CUE

OCTOBER

“National Interest Waiver” Workshop with an Immigration Lawyer
Wednesday, October 7; 5 PM - 7 PM, JD Abrams
International students will learn about the National Interest Waiver – an immigration petition for applicants with advanced degrees or exceptional abilities in the sciences, arts or business. Brad Hendrick, an immigration lawyer from Caplan and Earnest, will review who qualifies for the petition and how to apply for it. Bring questions and get your answers right from the source.
Organizers: CS & ISSS

NOVEMBER

Curricular Practical Training (CPT) Workshop
Wednesday, November 11; 5 PM - 7 PM, JD Abrams
F-1 students, who are planning to work off-campus while still in school, will learn the details of the Curricular Practical Training (CPT) application process! CPT is a required work authorization for international students wanting to work off-campus while still in school.
