

FYXP Lecturer Position Description

Position Summary

The Program for Exploratory Studies (PES) invites qualified CU Boulder staff to serve as Lecturers of Record for one-credit First Year Experience Program (FYXP) courses supporting first-year and transfer students. Lecturer roles are temporary instructional assignments held in addition to an employee's primary staff position and are generally voluntary, subject to supervisor approval and workload limits.

FYXP Courses

Lecturers may teach one-credit FYXP seminars, including first-year success, Living & Learning Community-based courses, and transfer success courses. FYXP courses:

- Are offered Fall and/or Spring
- Are taught in-person or online (asynchronous)
- Use both Letter and Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory grading modes
- May include teaching/assessment/design support from PES Peer Advisors

Lecturers typically teach one section per semester, with a general limit of two sections per semester. Some courses are taught as part of assigned staff duties and are not additionally compensated.

Pay Transparency

- Compensation: $2,500 (fixed rate) per one-credit FYXP course section
 - Paid as an additional job and subject to applicable taxes
 - Exception: No additional pay when teaching is part of assigned job responsibilities
-

Eligibility

- Current CU Boulder staff employee
 - Supervisor approval required
 - Experience working with undergraduate students preferred
-

Benefits

No additional benefits beyond the employee's existing CU Boulder benefits.

Work Location

- In-Person courses: CU Boulder campus
 - Online courses: remote/asynchronous
-

How to Apply

Submit a statement of interest, résumé, supervisor approval (cc), and documentation of FERPA training to Tom Marshall, Curricular & Experiential Education Program Manager-Tom.Marshall@colorado.edu. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

Equal Opportunity & Compliance

The University of Colorado at Boulder is committed to pay transparency and equitable access to instructional opportunities. This posting provides required information regarding compensation, duties, and eligibility for staff serving as Lecturers in FYXP courses.