

THE 13TH ANNUAL ACADEMIC LEADERS RETREAT

Agenda

August 13, 2019 UMC 235

| | | |
|-------------|--|---|
| 8–8:30 | Registration and hot buffet breakfast | Reconnect with your colleagues, and meet deans, associate deans, chairs, and directors. |
| 8:30–8:45 | Welcome Russ Moore Provost | |
| 8:45–10 | When the media calls... Candace Smith Strategic Relations Julie Poppen Strategic Relations Bronson Hilliard Strategic Academic Communications | What are best practices to keep issues from becoming negative media stories? Learn how the CU Boulder Strategic Media Relations team is structured to support campus when sticky issues arise and amplify high-impact campus stories that can raise a unit's profile. |
| 10–10:15 | Break | |
| 10:15–11:15 | How the Registrar can help your unit with academic innovations and support Kristi Wold-McCormick University Registrar Reid Kallman Enrollment & Records Services | Collaboration with the Office of the Registrar is key to successful implementation of academic initiatives and curricula. Learn about new registrar-led innovations and key academic resources, including curriculum management, alternative credentials, changing academic policies, student identity enhancements, improved class search, and more. |
| 11:15–12:15 | Learning to appreciate CORA and stop using emails Ryan Huff CU Chief Spokesperson Alex Loyd University Counsel | Emails are the #1 item sought through the Colorado Open Records Act (CORA). Do you know how CORA works? Learn what is the best way to communicate as an academic leader. |
| 12:15–1 | Lunch | |
| 1–2:15 | The changing landscape of higher education – 2019 and beyond Christina Gonzales Vice Chancellor Student Affairs Ann Schmiesing Senior Vice Provost Academic Resource Management | In this discussion, we explore the changing landscape of higher education, with a focus on demographics and generational shifts, public perceptions of higher education, technological transformations, and changing student and employer expectations. What opportunities and challenges do these changes present for CU Boulder's mission as a comprehensive public teaching and research institution, and how can we anticipate, shape, and respond to these changes? |
| 2:15–2:30 | Closing remarks and evaluation Suzanne Soled Director Faculty Relations Shelly Miller Associate Director Faculty Relations | |

Offered by the Academic Leaders Institute, Faculty Relations, Office of Faculty Affairs